On 12/17/2015, I contacted the FBI Lab about sending in evidence for examination. In particular, we discussed the asphalt/roadway that was removed from Highway 93 near Council, ID. I spoke with John Webb, a supervisor at the Firearms and Toolmarks Unit who advised me that it was possible to determine the direction of the round, depending upon several factors. Prior to sending in the very large section of asphalt/roadway, Mr. Webb asked me to send him photographs that included an overhead with scale and an oblique angle.

At the Lab's direction, on 12/17/2015, I emailed the FBI Laboratory four digital photographs of the asphalt/roadway that was removed from the scene near Council, ID. The four photographs I emailed were: MG_0029.JPG, MG_0030.JPG, MG_0031.JPG and MG_0036.JPG. I subsequently spoke to Mr. Webb about the photographs I sent to him and the possibility of examining the section of road to determine the travel of the round that struck it. Mr. Webb advised that they would not be able to determine the direction of travel.

This morning (01/13/2016) on our internal e-mail I received the following summary from Mr. Webb which I'm sharing with you for your documentation:

Because the Lab never examined the actual evidence, we cannot issue an official report. For documentation purposes, this email must suffice.

Extrapolating a trajectory requires two points in space, or in simple jargon, two bullet holes. A single impact can be used if there is another point of reference. Occasionally an impact bears enough information for general directionality to be discerned. The images sent exhibited an elongated defect in the asphalt that did not appear to be defined well enough to accurately determine directionality. Compounding the issue is the heterogeneous nature of the material, and the influence of possible intervening objects such as a body. Considering all of these factors, accurate determination of the origin of the bullet that created the defect would not be possible. We would have processed the asphalt the same way it was already done, testing for lead and copper to determine if residues consistent with a bullet impact are present.

If you have any questions please let me know.

Respectfully,

Rod Draper FBI – Boise Resident Agency

Case: M2015-4084 Examiner: Stuart Jacobson Dates of analysis: 12/08/2015 to 12/10/2015

Requested Services:

Firearms Examination

Item 7-Ruger M77 .204 cal s/n790-97365

| Task/Test      | Value         |
|----------------|---------------|
| Date Started   | 12/08/2015    |
| Date Completed | 12/09/2015    |
| Seal Type      | Evidence tape |

Initialed Yes
External Packaging Type Box

Exhibit/Item # 150002830-3

 Item Designation
 7

 Make Ruger

 Model
 M77 MkII

 Type / Action
 rifle / bolt action

Finish blue Caliber 204 Ruger

Lands and Grooves 6 Twist Right Land Imp. (inches) 0.035" 0.071" Groove Imp. (inches) Serial # 790-97365 Location left receiver USA Country 24" Barrel Length (inches)

Measuring Device Tape Measure

Overall Length (inches) 44"

Measuring Device Tape Measure

Cartridge Capacity 5+1 N/A Cylinder Halos Cylinder Rotation N/A Will Fire (lbs) 2 3/4 Will Not Fire (lbs) 2 1/2 Fired Since Last Cleaning? Yes 3 # of Test Fires Source lab

Safeties Bolt - fire, unload and safe all working.

Firearm Function Normally? If no, expYes

Additional, broken or missing parts Black sling and ammunition sock (not on rifle). Tasco scope. Broken fore end on stock. Dent in scope (possible bullet strike).

Notes: 12-8-2015: Right handed. Fingerprinted. Soot in barrel, chamber and on bolt face. 12-9-2015:

Test fired 3X. Photographs stored centrally in laboratory.

Case: M2015-4084 Examiner: Stuart Jacobson Dates of analysis: 12/08/2015 to 12/10/2015

Item 8-Lewis Machine & Tool Defender Rifle(Wood)(LMT35830

 Task/Test
 Value

 Date Started
 12/08/2015

 Date Completed
 12/09/2015

 Seal Type
 Evidence tape

Initialed Yes

External Packaging Type Plastic gun case
Exhibit/Item # 150002761-1

Item Designation 8

Make Lewis Machine & Tool

Model Defender 2000

Type / Action Rifle / semi-automatic

Finish Black

Caliber 223 REMINGTON (5.56 X 45MM)

Lands and Grooves 6

Twist Right

Land Imp. (inches) 0.034"

Groove Imp. (inches) 0.081"

Serial # LMT 35830

Location left magazine well

Country USA Barrel Length (inches) 12 11/16"

Measuring Device 24" HOTT ROD Serial #: PY0371-12

Overall Length (inches) 28 11/16" / 32 1/4"

Measuring Device Yard Stick Serial #: C37911

1 Cartridge Capacity Cylinder Halos N/A Cylinder Rotation N/A 5 Will Fire (lbs) Will Not Fire (lbs) 4 3/4 Fired Since Last Cleaning? Yes # of Test Fires 3 Source lab

Safeties Thumb - working.

Firearm Function Normally? If no, expYes

Additional, broken or missing parts SF flash hider, Larue flashlight holder. Surefire Scout Light flash light (working). KAC folding front and rear sight. EOTech Holographic Hybrid sight with magnifier (working). GFH charging handle. Black nylon sling. No magazine.

Notes: 12-8-2015: Soot in barrel, chamber and on bolt face. 12-9-2015: Test fired 3X using laboratory magazine. Recovered 2 bullets.

Item 10-Roland's Glock Model 30 handgun (Serial #DKY931)

Task/Test Value

Case: M2015-4084 Examiner: Stuart Jacobson Dates of analysis: 12/08/2015 to 12/10/2015

Date Started 12/08/2015

Date Completed 12/08/2015

Seal Type Evidence tape

Initialed Yes
External Packaging Type Box

Exhibit/Item # 150003761-16

 Item Designation
 10

 Make Glock

 Model
 30

Type / Action pistol / semi-automatic

Finish Black
Caliber 45 AUTO

Lands and Grooves 8
Twist Right
Land Imp. (inches) poly
Groove Imp. (inches) poly

Serial # DKY931US
Location Under barrel
Country Austria
Barrel Length (inches) 3 3/4"

Measuring Device 6" HOTT ROD Serial #: PY0370-12

Overall Length (inches) 7"

Measuring Device Yard Stick Serial #: C37911

Cartridge Capacity 1 N/A Cylinder Halos Cylinder Rotation N/A Will Fire (lbs) 6 1/2 Will Not Fire (lbs) 6 1/4 Fired Since Last Cleaning? Yes # of Test Fires 3 Source lab

Safeties Trigger - working. Firing pin - working. Drop - ?

Firearm Function Normally? If no, expYes

Additional, broken or missing parts No magazine. Rubber grip sock.

Notes: 12-8-2015: Soot in barrel, chamber and on breach face. Serial numbers on frame, slide and barrel match. Test fired 3X using ISP magazine.

Item 7.1-Test fires from Ruger M77 .204 cal s/n790-97365

 Task/Test
 Value

 Date Started
 12/09/2015

 Date Completed
 12/09/2015

 Exhibit/Item #
 150002830-3

Case: M2015-4084 Examiner: Stuart Jacobson Dates of analysis: 12/08/2015 to 12/10/2015

Item Designation 7.1

Caliber 204 Ruger
Headstamp WINCHESTER
204 RUGER

Marketed by / Manufacturer Winchester-Western

Case Finish Nickel
Primer Finish Brass
Condition Fired

Firing Pin Shape Hemispherical

Firing Pin Drag No

Magnetic No

Examiner ID Mark 7.1A-7.1C

Notes: Test fires from item 7.

Remarks Not tested.

Item 8.1-Test fires from Lewis Machine & Tool Defender Rifle(Wood)(LMT35830

 Task/Test
 Value

 Date Started
 12/09/2015

 Date Completed
 12/09/2015

 Exhibit/Item #
 150002761-1

Item Designation 8

Caliber 223 REMINGTON (5.56 X 45MM)

Headstamp +

LC 05

Marketed by / Manufacturer Lake City Arsenal

Case Finish Nickel
Primer Finish Nickel
Condition Fired

Firing Pin Shape Hemispherical

Firing Pin Drag No Magnetic No

Examiner ID Mark 8.1A - 8.1C

Notes: Test fires from item 8.

Remarks Not tested.

Item 10.1-Test fires from Roland's Glock Model 30 handgun (Serial #DKY931)

 Task/Test
 Value

 Date Started
 12/08/2015

 Date Completed
 12/08/2015

 Exhibit/Item #
 150003761-16

 Item Designation
 10.1

 Caliber
 45 AUTO

 Headstamp
 SPEER

45 AUTO

Case: M2015-4084 Examiner: Stuart Jacobson Dates of analysis: 12/08/2015 to 12/10/2015

Marketed by / Manufacturer Speer
Case Finish Nickel
Primer Finish Nickel
Condition Fired

Firing Pin Shape Hemispherical

Firing Pin Drag Yes Magnetic No

Examiner ID Mark 10.1A - 10.1C

Notes: Test fires from item 10.

Remarks Not tested.

Item 7-Ruger M77 .204 cal s/n790-97365

 Task/Test
 Value

 Date Started
 12/09/2015

 Date Completed
 12/09/2015

 Item Designation
 7.1

 Caliber / Diameter
 204 Ruger

 # Lands and Grooves
 6

 Twist
 Right

Twist Right
Land Imp. (inches) 0.035"
Groove Imp. (inches) 0.071"

Composition Jacketed S.Point (JSP)

Make Winchester
Examiner ID Mark 7.1A - 7.1C

Notes: Test fires from item 7.

Remarks Not tested.

Item 7.1-Test fires from Ruger M77 .204 cal s/n790-97365

 Task/Test
 Value

 Date Started
 12/09/2015

 Date Completed
 12/09/2015

 Exhibit/Item #
 150002830-3

 Item Designation
 7.1

 Caliber / Diameter
 204 Ruger

Lands and Grooves 6

Twist Right

Land Imp. (inches) 0.035"

Groove Imp. (inches) 0.071"

Composition Jacketed S.Point (JSP)

Make Winchester
Examiner ID Mark 7.1A - 7.1C

Notes: Test fires from item 7.

Remarks Not tested.

Case: M2015-4084 Examiner: Stuart Jacobson Dates of analysis: 12/08/2015 to 12/10/2015

Item 8.1-Test fires from Lewis Machine & Tool Defender Rifle(Wood)(LMT35830

 Task/Test
 Value

 Date Started
 12/09/2015

 Date Completed
 12/09/2015

 Exhibit/Item #
 150002761-1

Item Designation 8.1

Caliber / Diameter 223 REMINGTON (5.56 X 45MM)

Lands and Grooves 6

Twist Right

Land Imp. (inches) 0.034"

Groove Imp. (inches) 0.081"

Composition Jacketed S.Point (JSP)

Make Lake City
Examiner ID Mark 8.1A - 8.1B

Notes: Test fires from item 8. Two recovered.

Remarks Not tested.

Item 10.1-Test fires from Roland's Glock Model 30 handgun (Serial #DKY931)

 Task/Test
 Value

 Date Started
 12/08/2015

 Date Completed
 12/08/2015

 Exhibit/Item #
 150003761-16

 Item Designation
 10.1

 Caliber / Diameter
 45 AUTO

 # Lands and Grooves
 8

Twist Right
Land Imp. (inches) poly
Groove Imp. (inches) poly

Composition Jacket HP (JHP)

Make Speer

Examiner ID Mark 10.1A - 10.1C

Notes: Test fires from item 10.

Remarks Not tested.

Item 7-Ruger M77 .204 cal s/n790-97365

Task/Test Value

Dithiooximide

Date Started 12/09/2015

Date Completed 12/09/2015

NH4OH Transfer

Control positive
Blank negative
Evidence positive

C:\inetpub\www.root\ILIMS\reports\ORACLE\FA_MATRIX.RPT

Case: M2015-4084 Examiner: Stuart Jacobson Dates of analysis: 12/08/2015 to 12/10/2015

Dithiooximide Green

Control positive
Blank negative
Evidence positive

Dithiooximide Other

Notes: Swabbed bullet for control. Small green positive area located in defect.

Sodium Rhodizonate

Date Started 12/09/2015

Date Completed 12/09/2015

Sodium Rhodizonate Pink

Control positive
Blank negative
Evidence positive

5% HCI Purple

Control positive
Blank negative
Evidence positive

5% HCI Other

Notes: Lead bullet for control. Small purple positive area located in defect.

Conclusion

Evidence item 8 was test fired and found to function normally. It has a trigger pull of between 4 3/4 and 5 pounds.

Evidence item 7 was test fired and found to function normally. It has a trigger pull of between 2 1/2 and 2 3/4 pounds.

Evidence item 10 was test fired and found to function normally. It has a trigger pull of between 6 1/4 and 6 1/2 pounds.

ISP Forensic Services Worksheet: BULLET

Lab Number: M2015-4084 Analyst: Stuart Jacobson Date: 12/9/2015

| EXHIBIT/ITEM #:                                            | 7.1                     | 10.1                     | 8.1                                    |
|------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------|--------------------------|----------------------------------------|
| Caliber/diameter:                                          | 204 Ruger               | 45 AUTO                  | 223 REMINGTON (5.56X 45MM)         |
| LG / Twist:                                                | 6 / Right               | 8 / Right                | 6 / Right                              |
| Land Width                                                 | 0.035"                  | poly                     | 0.034"                                 |
| Groove Width                                               | 0.071"                  | poly                     | 0.081"                                 |
| Composition                                                | Jacketed S.Point (JSP)  | Jacket HP (JHP)          | Jacketed S.Point (JSP)                 |
| Weight - grains                                            |                         |                          |                                        |
| Make                                                       | Winchester              | Speer                    | Lake City                              |
| Foreign Material                                           |                         |                          |                                        |
| Examiner ID Marks                                          | 7.1A - 7.1C             | 10.1A - 10.1C            | 8.1A - 8.1B                            |
| Notes:                                                     | Test fires from item 7. | Test fires from item 10. | Test fires from item 8. Two recovered. |
| Comparisons (Analytical Method Section 5) Item # to Item # | to                      | to                       | to                                     |
| Class                                                      |                         |                          |                                        |
| Individual                                                 |                         |                          |                                        |
| Conclusion                                                 |                         |                          |                                        |
| Remarks                                                    | Not tested.             | Not tested.              | Not tested.                            |
| Seal Type                                                  |                         |                          |                                        |
| Initialed                                                  |                         |                          |                                        |
| External Packaging Type                                    |                         |                          |                                        |
| Packaging Issues                                           |                         |                          |                                        |

ISP Forensic Services Worksheet: CARTRIDGE CASE

Lab Number: M2015-4084 Analyst: Stuart Jacobson Date: 12/9/2015

| EXHIBIT/ITEM #:                                            | 7.1                     | 10.1                     | 8                              |
|------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------|--------------------------|--------------------------------|
| Caliber:                                                   | 204 Ruger               | 45 AUTO                  | 223 REMINGTON (5.56X 45MM) |
| Headstamp                                                  | WINCHESTER              | SPEER                    | +                              |
|                                                            | 204 RUGER               | 45 AUTO                  | LC 05                          |
| Manufacturer                                               | Winchester-Western      | Speer                    | Lake City Arsenal              |
| Composition Case/primer                                    | Nickel/Brass            | Nickel/Nickel            | Nickel/Nickel                  |
| Condition                                                  | Fired                   | Fired                    | Fired                          |
| Foreign Material                                           |                         |                          |                                |
| Examiner ID Marks                                          | 7.1A-7.1C               | 10.1A - 10.1C            | 8.1A - 8.1C                    |
| Notes:                                                     | Test fires from item 7. | Test fires from item 10. | Test fires from item 8.        |
| Comparisons (Analytical Method Section 5) Item # to Item # | to                      | to                       | to                             |
| Class                                                      |                         |                          |                                |
| Individual                                                 |                         |                          |                                |
| Conclusion                                                 |                         |                          |                                |
| Remarks                                                    | Not tested.             | Not tested.              | Not tested.                    |
| Seal Type                                                  |                         |                          |                                |
| Initialed                                                  |                         |                          |                                |
| External Packaging                                         |                         |                          |                                |
| Туре                                                       |                         |                          |                                |
| Packaging Issues                                           |                         |                          |                                |

ISP Forensic Services Worksheet: FIREARM

Lab Number: M2015-4084 Analyst: Stuart Jacobson Date: 12/08/2015

| EXHIBIT/ITEM #:7        | Analytical Method     | Section 1, Section     | 2, Section 3       |                 |
|-----------------------------|-----------------------|------------------------|--------------------|-----------------|
| Make:                       | Model:                | Type:                  | Finish:            |                 |
| Ruger                       | M77 MkII              | rifle / boltaction | blue               |                 |
| Caliber:                    | No. LG:               | Twist:                 | Land Width:        | Groove Width:   |
| 204 Ruger                   | 6                     | Right                  | 0.035"             | 0.071"          |
| Serial #:                   | Location:             |                        | Country:           |                 |
| 790-97365                   | left receiver         |                        | USA                |                 |
| Barrel Length: 24"          |                       | Overall Length: 4      | 14"                |                 |
| Tape Measure                | ·                     | Tape Measure           |                    |                 |
| Cartridge Capacity:         | Cylinder Halos:       | Rotation (cw/cw        | w):                |                 |
| 5+1                         | N/A                   | N/A                    |                    |                 |
| S/A Trigger Pull:           | Will Fire:            | Will Not Fire:         |                    |                 |
|                             | 2 3/4                 | 2 1/2                  |                    | _               |
| D/A Trigger Pull:           | Will Fire:            | Will Not Fire:         |                    |                 |
| Fired Since Last Cleaning?  | Ö                     | 11. Dec                |                    |                 |
| Yes                         |                       |                        |                    |                 |
| Number of Times Test        | Source:               |                        |                    |                 |
| Fired: 3                    | lab                   |                        |                    |                 |
| Safeties, List:             |                       |                        |                    |                 |
| Bolt - fire, unload and sat | e all working.        |                        |                    |                 |
| Did Firearm function norr   | nal? (If no, describe | in notes.)             |                    |                 |
| Yes                         |                       |                        |                    |                 |
| Additional, broken or mis   | sing parts:           |                        |                    |                 |
| Black sling and ammuniti    | on sock (not on rifle | ). Tasco scope. Br     | oken fore end on   | stock. Dent in  |
| scope (possible bullet str  | ike).                 |                        |                    |                 |
| Notes: Comparison Micro     | scope Serial Numbe    | r 60804, Leeds LCD     | . (Analytical Meth | nod Section 5)  |
| 12-8-2015: Right handed     | . Fingerprinted. So   | ot in barrel, cham     | ber and on bolt fa | ice. 12-9-2015: |
| Test fired 3X. Photograp    | hs stored centrally i | n laboratory.          |                    |                 |
| Packaging Information:      |                       |                        |                    |                 |
| Seal Type                   | Initialed             | External Packagi       | ng Type            |                 |
| Evidence tape               | Yes                   | Box                    |                    |                 |
| Packaging Issues            |                       |                        |                    |                 |

ISP Forensic Services Worksheet: FIREARM

Lab Number: M2015-4084 Analyst: Stuart Jacobson Date: 12/08/2015

| EXHIBIT/ITEM #:                                                                                             | Analytical Method                          | Section 1, Section 2                                      | 2, Section 3                    |                      |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------|----------------------|
| Make:Lewis Machine & Tool                                                                               | Model:Defender 2000                    | Type: Rifle / semi- automatic                             | Finish:Black                |                      |
| Caliber:223 REMINGTON (5.56X 45MM)                                                                  | No. LG:6                               | Twist:Right                                           | Land Width: 0.034 "      | Groove Width: 0.081" |
| Serial #:LMT 35830                                                                                      | Location:left magazine wel             | l                                                         | Country:USA                 |                      |
| Barrel Length: 12 11/16' 24" HOTT ROD Serial #: Cartridge Capacity:                                         | PY0371-12 Cylinder Halos:                  | Overall Length: 26  Yard Stick Serial &  Rotation (cw/cw/ | 8 11/16" / 32 1/4"#: C37911 |                      |
| 1                                                                                                           | N/A                                        | N/A                                                       |                                 |                      |
| S/A Trigger Pull:                                                                                           | Will Fire:                                 | Will Not Fire:4 3/4                                   |                                 |                      |
| D/A Trigger Pull:                                                                                           | Will Fire:                                 | Will Not Fire:                                            |                                 |                      |
| Fired Since Last Cleaning Yes                                                                               | 3?                                         |                                                           |                                 |                      |
| Number of Times TestFired: 3                                                                            | Source:                                    |                                                           |                                 |                      |
| Safeties, List:Thumb - working.                                                                         |                                            |                                                           |                                 |                      |
| Did Firearm function nor                                                                                    | rmal? (If no, describ                      | e in notes.)                                              |                                 |                      |
| Additional, broken or miSF flash hider, Larue flasand rear sight. EOTechBlack nylon sling. No m | shlight holder. SureHolographic Hybrid | _                                                         |                                 |                      |
| Notes: Comparison Micr12-8-2015: Soot in barrmagazine. Recovered 2                                  | el, chamber and on                         |                                                           |                                 |                      |
| Packaging Information:                                                                                      |                                            |                                                           |                                 |                      |
| Seal Type                                                                                                   | Initialed                                  | External Packagin                                         | g Туре                          |                      |
| Evidence tape                                                                                               | Yes                                        | Plastic gun case                                          | Sc. 1017                        |                      |
| Packaging Issues                                                                                            |                                            |                                                           |                                 |                      |

ISP Forensic Services Worksheet: FIREARM

Lab Number: M2015-4084 Analyst: Stuart Jacobson Date: 12/08/2015

| EXHIBIT/ITEM #:           | Analytical Metho                         | d Section 1, Section 2               | 2, Section 3        |               |
|---------------------------|------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------|---------------------|---------------|
| Make:Glock            | Model:30                             | Type:pistol / semi-automatic | Finish:Black    |               |
| Caliber:                  | No. LG:                                  | Twist:                               | Land Width:         | Groove Width: |
| 45 AUTO                   | 8                                        | Right                                | poly                | poly          |
| Serial #:DKY931US     | Location:Under barrel                |                                      | Country:Austria |               |
| Barrel Length: 3 3/4"     |                                          | Overall Length: 7"                   |                     |               |
| 6" HOTT ROD Serial #: P   | Y0370-12                                 | Yard Stick Serial #                  |                     |               |
| Cartridge Capacity:       | Cylinder Halos:                          | Rotation (cw/cww                     | ı ):         |               |
| 1                         | N/A                                      | N/A                                  |                     |               |
| S/A Trigger Pull:         | Will Fire:                               | Will Not Fire:                       |                     |               |
| D/A Trigger Pull:         | Will Fire:6 1/2                      | Will Not Fire:6 1/4              |                     |               |
| Fired Since Last Cleaning |                                          |                                      |                     |               |
| Yes                       | **                                       |                                      |                     |               |
| Number of Times Test      | Source:                                  |                                      |                     |               |
| Fired: 3                  | lab                                      |                                      |                     |               |
| Safeties, List:           |                                          |                                      |                     |               |
| Trigger - working. Firing | pin - working. Dro                       | p - ?                                |                     |               |
| Did Firearm function nor  | mal? (If no, describ                     | e in notes.)                         |                     |               |
| Yes                       |                                          |                                      |                     |               |
| Additional, broken or mi  | ssing parts:                             |                                      |                     |               |
| No magazine. Rubber g     |                                          |                                      |                     |               |
| Notes: Comparison Micr    |                                          |                                      |                     |               |
| 12-8-2015: Soot in barr   | [[[[] [[] [[] [] [] [] [] [] [] [] [] [] |                                      | numbers on fram     | e, slide and  |
| barrel match. Test fired  | 3X using ISP maga                        | zine.                                |                     |               |
| Packaging Information:    |                                          |                                      |                     |               |
| Seal Type                 | Initialed                                | External Packagin                    | g Туре              |               |
| Evidence tape             | Yes                                      | Box                                  |                     |               |
| Packaging Issues          |                                          |                                      |                     |               |

SODIUM RHODIZONATE WORKSHEET

Analytical Method Section 6

| Date:12-9-  | Date:12-9-2015 |            |            | La | Lab Number:M2015-4084-9 |   |     |   |  |
|-------------|----------------|------------|------------|----|-------------------------|---|-----|---|--|
|             |                |            |            |    |                         |   |     |   |  |
| Description | n of object:   | :          |            |    |                         |   |     |   |  |
| See Photog  | raph (s) X     |            |            |    |                         |   |     |   |  |
| Piece of as | phalt with     | defect.    |            |    |                         |   |     |   |  |
|             |                |            |            |    |                         |   |     |   |  |
|             |                |            |            |    |                         |   |     |   |  |
|             |                |            |            |    |                         |   |     |   |  |
|             |                |            |            |    |                         |   |     |   |  |
|             |                |            |            |    |                         |   |     |   |  |
|             |                |            |            |    |                         |   |     |   |  |
|             |                |            |            |    |                         |   |     |   |  |
|             |                |            |            |    |                         |   |     |   |  |
|             |                |            |            |    |                         |   |     |   |  |
|             |                |            |            |    |                         |   |     |   |  |
|             |                |            |            |    |                         |   |     |   |  |
| Cadium Di   | Jimomoto       | Toot.      |            |    |                         |   |     |   |  |
| Sodium Rh   | lodizonate     | Control    | Blank      | 9  | Т                       | Т | ı — | ſ |  |
| Sodium      | Pink           |            |            |    | -                       | - |     |   |  |
| Rhodizonate | Other          | +          | -          | +  | -                       |   |     |   |  |
|             |                |            |            |    |                         |   |     |   |  |
| 5% HCI      | Purple         | +          | -          | +  |                         |   |     |   |  |
|             | Other          |            |            |    |                         |   |     |   |  |
|             |                |            |            |    |                         |   |     |   |  |
|             |                |            |            |    |                         |   |     |   |  |
| Notes:      |                |            |            |    |                         |   |     |   |  |
| Small area  | of positive    | response i | in defect. | •  |                         |   |     |   |  |
|             |                |            |            |    |                         |   |     |   |  |
|             |                |            |            |    |                         |   |     |   |  |
|             |                |            |            |    |                         |   |     |   |  |
|             |                |            |            |    |                         |   |     |   |  |
|             |                |            |            |    |                         |   |     |   |  |
|             |                |            |            |    |                         |   |     |   |  |

GUNSHOT RESIDUE WORKSHEET

Analytical Method Section 6

Date:12-9-2015 Lab Number:M2015-4084-9

DITHIOOXAMIDE WORKSHEET

Analytical Method Section 6

| Date:12-9-2015                         | i         |         |       | Lab | Numbe    | r:M201 | 5-4084-9 | 9 |   |
|----------------------------------------|-----------|---------|-------|-----|----------|--------|----------|---|---|
| Description of                         |           |         |       |     |          |        |          |   |   |
| See Photograph                         | (s) X     |         |       |     |          |        |          |   |   |
| Piece of asphal                        | t with de | efect.  |       |     |          |        |          |   |   |
|                                        |           |         |       |     |          |        |          |   |   |
|                                        |           |         |       |     |          |        |          |   |   |
|                                        |           |         |       |     |          |        |          |   |   |
|                                        |           |         |       |     |          |        |          |   |   |
|                                        |           |         |       |     |          |        |          |   |   |
|                                        |           |         |       |     |          |        |          |   |   |
|                                        |           |         |       |     |          |        |          |   |   |
|                                        |           |         |       |     |          |        |          |   |   |
|                                        |           |         |       |     |          |        |          |   |   |
|                                        |           |         |       |     |          |        |          |   |   |
| Dithiooxamide                          | Toet.     |         |       |     |          |        |          |   |   |
| Ditiliooxamide                         | 1 est.    | Control | Blank | 9   |          |        |          |   |   |
| NH4OH                                  | Transfer  | +       | -     | +   | - |        |          |   |   |
|                                        | Other     | -       |       |     | 1        |        |          |   |   |
|                                        |           |         |       |     | 1        |        |          |   |   |
| Dithiooxamide                          | Green     | +       | -     | +   |          |        |          |   | l |
| Dithiooxamide                          | Green     | +       | -     | +   |          |        |          |   |   |
| Dithiooxamide                          |           | +       | -     | +   |          |        |          |   |   |
| Dithiooxamide                          |           | +       | -     | +   |          |        |          |   |   |
| Notes:                                 | Other     |         |       | +   |          |        |          |   |   |
| Notes:                                 | Other     |         |       | +   |          |        |          |   |   |
| Notes:                                 | Other     |         |       | +   |          |        |          |   |   |
| Notes:                                 | Other     |         |       | +   |          |        |          |   |   |
| Dithiooxamide  Notes: Small area of po | Other     |         |       | +   |          |        |          |   |   |
| Notes:                                 | Other     |         |       | +   |          |        |          |   |   |

DITHIOOXAMIDE WORKSHEET

Analytical Method Section 6

Date:12-9-2015

Lab Number:M2015-4084-9

SODIUM RHODIZONATE WORKSHEET

Analytical Method Section 6

Date:12-9-2015 Lab Number:M2015-4084-9

M2015-4084-9 Sodium Rhodizonate

M2015-4084-9 HCl

Case # M2015 - 4084

40

IDAHO STATE POLICE

FIREARMS IDENTIFICATION SECTION

TECHNICAL REVIEW CHECKLIST

Examiner's opinions are supported by clear and correct notes.

| Agency MT Dot Date 12-10-15                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | Evidence items are correctly described.          |               |               |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------|---------------|---------------|
| Bullets:  Cartridge Cases:  Bullets:  Bullets:  Cartridge Cases:   Tool mark:  Distance Testing:  Function Testing:  Serial Number Restoration:  Misc. Lead Copper Test:   Misc. Lead Copper Test:   Tool mark:  T | Agreement with examiners conclusions concerning: |               |               |
| Cartridge Cases:   Bullets:   Cartridge Cases:   Tool mark:   Distance Testing:   Function Testing:   Serial Number Restoration:   Misc. Lead/ Copper Test:   A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | Test Fires:                                      |               |               |
| Evidence:  Bullets:   Cartridge Cases:   Tool mark:   Distance Testing:   Function Testing:   Serial Number Restoration:   Misc. Lead/Coppur Test:   Misc. Lead/Coppur Test:   Tool mark:   | Bullets: □                                       |               |               |
| Bullets:  Cartridge Cases:  Tool mark:  Distance Testing:  Function Testing:  Serial Number Restoration:  Misc. Lead/Coppur Test:  A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Cartridge Cases: □                               |               |               |
| Cartridge Cases: □  Tool mark: □  Distance Testing: □  Function Testing: □  Serial Number Restoration: □  Misc. Lead/Copper Test : □                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Evidence:                                        |               |               |
| Tool mark:  Distance Testing:  Function Testing:  Serial Number Restoration:  Misc. Lead/Coppur Test:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | Bullets: □                                       |               |               |
| Distance Testing:  Function Testing:  Serial Number Restoration:   Misc. Lead/Copper Test:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Cartridge Cases: □                               | *             |               |
| Function Testing:   Serial Number Restoration:   Misc. Lead/ Copper Test:   A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Tool mark: □                                     |               |               |
| Serial Number Restoration:   Misc. Lead/Copper Test:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Distance Testing: □                              |               |               |
| Misc. Lead/Copper Test:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | Function Testing:                                |               |               |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | Serial Number Restoration:                       |               |               |
| Reviewer Train Spinch Agency MT Date 12-10-15                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Misc. Cead/Copper Test:                          |               |               |
| Reviewer Train Spind Agency MT Date 12-10-15                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | *                                                |               |               |
| Reviewer Train Spind Agency MT Date 12-10-15                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                  |               |               |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | Reviewer Train Spind                             | Agency MT DOT | Date 12-10-15 |

IDAHO STATE POLICE FORENSIC SERVICES

615 W. Wilbur Ste B Coeur D'Alene, ID 83815-7785 Phone: (208) 209-8700 Fax: (208) 209-8612

FORENSIC FIREARM AND TOOLMARK REPORT

| Case Agency(s):            | Agency Case No(s).:       | Laboratory Case No.: |  |  |
|----------------------------|---------------------------|----------------------|--|--|
| ISP-CONFIDENTIAL D3        | M15000140                 | M2015-4084           |  |  |
| Date(s) of Offense:        | Investigating Officer(s): | Report No.:          |  |  |
| 11/1/2015                  | Jason Horst               | 8                    |  |  |
| Date Evidence Accepted:    | Analyst:                  |                      |  |  |
| 12/8/2015                  | Stuart Jacobson           |                      |  |  |
| Case Name(s):              | •                         |                      |  |  |
| Subject - BRIAN S WOOD     |                           |                      |  |  |
| Subject - JACK FRED YANTIS |                           |                      |  |  |
| Subject - CODY W ROLAND    |                           |                      |  |  |

EVIDENCE DESCRIPTION:

- 7 Agency exhibit no. 150002830-3. Box containing Ruger Model 77 Mark II, 204 Ruger caliber bolt action rifle, serial number 790-97365.
- 8 Agency exhibit no. 150002761-1. Plastic gun case containing Lewis Machine & Tool Model Defender 2000, 223 Remington (5.56 X 45MM) caliber, semi-automatic rifle, serial number LMT 35830.
- 9 Agency exhibit no. 150002882-1. Box containing piece of asphalt with defect.
- 10 Agency exhibit no. 150003761-16. Box containing Glock Model 30, 45 ACP caliber, semi-automatic pistol, serial number DKY931US.

CONCLUSIONS AND INTERPRETATIONS:

Evidence item 7 was test fired and found to function normally. It has a trigger pull of between 2 1/2 and 2 3/4 pounds.

Evidence item 8 was test fired and found to function normally. It has a trigger pull of between 4 3/4 and 5 pounds.

Evidence item 10 was test fired and found to function normally. It has a trigger pull of between 6 1/4 and 6 1/2 pounds.

Evidence item 9 was visually and microscopically examined for bullet fragments and none were observed. The defect in item 9 was chemically tested for the presence of lead and copper and a small amount of lead and copper was detected.

Laboratory Case Number: M2015-4084 Report No.: 8

DISPOSITION OF EVIDENCE:

Testfire(s) from Laboratory Item No(s). 10, 8 and 7 have been retained by the laboratory. All remaining items will be returned to the submitting agency.

REMARKS:

Sturt 9

I declare under penalty of perjury pursuant to the law of the State of Idaho that the foregoing is true and correct.

Stuart Jacobson / Forensic Scientist

Issue Date: 12/10/2015

IDAHO STATE POLICE FORENSIC SERVICES

700 South Stratford Drive, Ste 125 Meridian, ID 83642-6202 Phone: (208) 884-7170

Fax: (208) 884-7197
FORENSIC BIOLOGY REPORT

| Case Agency(s):         | Agency Case No(s).:       | Laboratory Case No.: |  |
|-------------------------|---------------------------|----------------------|--|
| ISP-CONFIDENTIAL D3     | M15000140                 | M2015-4084           |  |
| Date(s) of Offense:     | Investigating Officer(s): | Report No.:          |  |
| 11/1/2015               | Jason Horst               | 5                    |  |
| Date Evidence Accepted: | Analyst:                  |                      |  |
| 11/10/2015              | Jamie Femreite            |                      |  |
| Case Name(s):           |                           |                      |  |
| Subject - CODY W ROLAND |                           |                      |  |
| Subject - BRIAN S WOOD  |                           |                      |  |

EVIDENCE DESCRIPTION:

Item 5: Cylindrical metal "projectile" with a brass colored casing and silver colored core Item 5.1: Swab collected from the "projectile"

CONCLUSIONS AND INTERPRETATIONS:

Results from presumptive chemical tests performed on Item 5 indicated the presence of blood; however, serological tests to determine the species of origin were not performed due to limited sample size.

DNA testing may be attempted upon request and submission of documentation authorizing the consumption of Item 5.1, as well as submission of a known reference sample from Brian Wood, Cody Roland, and Jack Yantis. Please contact the laboratory regarding the resubmission of evidence.

DISPOSITION OF EVIDENCE:

All items have been returned to the main laboratory evidence vault for return to the submitting agency.

REMARKS:

I declare under penalty of perjury pursuant to the law of the State of Idaho that the foregoing is true and correct.

Jamie Femreite / Forensic Scientist

Issue Date: 11/20/2015

J.L. Zis

IDAHO STATE POLICE FORENSIC SERVICES

615 W. Wilbur Ste B Coeur D'Alene, ID 83815-7785 Phone: (208) 209-8700 Fax: (208) 209-8612

FORENSIC TOXICOLOGY REPORT

| Case Agency(s):         | Agency Case No(s).:       | Laboratory Case No.: |  |  |  |
|-------------------------|---------------------------|----------------------|--|--|--|
| ISP-CONFIDENTIAL D3     | M15000140                 | M2015-4084           |  |  |  |
| Date(s) of Offense:     | Investigating Officer(s): | Report No.:          |  |  |  |
| 11/1/2015               | Jason Horst               | 4                    |  |  |  |
| Date Evidence Accepted: | Analyst:                  |                      |  |  |  |
| 11/6/2015               | Britany Wylie             |                      |  |  |  |
| Case Name(s):           |                           |                      |  |  |  |
| Subject - CODY W ROLAND |                           |                      |  |  |  |

EVIDENCE DESCRIPTION:

Item 4: Urine Collection Kit: containing Instant Test Cup labeled CODY ROLAND

CONCLUSIONS AND INTERPRETATIONS:

Item 4: Drugs confirmed: None

DISPOSITION OF EVIDENCE:

The evidence will be returned to the submitting agency.

REMARKS:

I declare under penalty of perjury pursuant to the law of the State of Idaho that the foregoing is true and correct.

Britany Wylie / Forensic Scientist

Issue Date: 11/20/2015

Laboratory Case Number: M2015-4084 Report No.: 4

Toxicology Report Supplement

ROUTINE DRUG SCREEN:

Methamphetamine, Methadone, Cannabinoids (Cannabis), Cocaine Metabolite, Opiate Class Compounds, Benzodiazepine Class Compounds (additional compounds may also be included)

All positive results reported have been confirmed by GC-MS or LC-MS QQQ.

UPON REQUEST:

Alcohol / Inhalants (e.g. Toluene and Xylenes).
Pharmaceutical preparations not covered under routine drug screen

COMMENTS:

- 1. A negative finding does not indicate that no drug was present; only that it was not detected by our testing protocols.
- 2. A positive Cannabinoid result indicates that the subject has been exposed to cannabinoids (cannabis).
- 3. The current blood toxicology analytical methods used by ISP Forensic Services are limited in the types and concentrations of benzodiazepines that can be confirmed.
- 4. ISP Forensic Services is currently unable to detect cannabimimetic substances and/or their metabolites in toxicology samples. These substances are commonly known as "spice" or "synthetic cannabinoids."
- 5. Due to the variable pharmacological factors which affect drug metabolism (drug dose, route of administration, and rates of metabolism and excretion), determination of time since use and the level of impairment cannot be established solely on the basis of the results of the blood or urine testing.
- 6. When a suitable blood sample is available, urine alcohol analysis will not be pursued unless there are extenuating circumstances surrounding the case, and permission has been granted.
- For DUI, the blood or urine results should be considered in conjunction with observations of impairment.
- 8. ISP Forensic Services does not perform testing for sugar levels, insulin, or any metals (such as lithium, mercury or arsenic) in either blood or urine.

STORAGE OF TOXICOLOGY COLLECTION KITS:

It is the best practice to store urine and blood specimens refrigerated, at minimum, to prevent degradation of any drug compounds present in the sample.

SAMPLE RETURN POLICY:

Upon completion of analysis, our laboratory will return the specimen to the agency from which it was submitted. The original submittal form (containing the external chain-of-custody) for toxicology cases will be returned with the evidence.

615 W. Wilbur Ste B Coeur D'Alene, ID 83815-7785 Phone: (208) 209-8700 Fax: (208) 209-8612

FORENSIC TOXICOLOGY REPORT

| Case Agency(s):         | Agency Case No(s).:       | Laboratory Case No.: |
|-------------------------|---------------------------|----------------------|
| ISP-CONFIDENTIAL D3     | M15000140                 | M2015-4084           |
| Date(s) of Offense:     | Investigating Officer(s): | Report No.:          |
| 11/1/2015               | Jason Horst               | 3                    |
| Date Evidence Accepted: | Analyst:                  |                      |
| 11/6/2015               | Britany Wylie             |                      |
| Case Name(s):           |                           |                      |
| Subject - BRIAN S WOOD  |                           |                      |

EVIDENCE DESCRIPTION:

Item 3: Urine Collection Kit: containing Instant Test Cup labeled WOOD, BRIAN

CONCLUSIONS AND INTERPRETATIONS:

Item 3: Drugs confirmed: None

DISPOSITION OF EVIDENCE:

The evidence will be returned to the submitting agency.

REMARKS:

I declare under penalty of perjury pursuant to the law of the State of Idaho that the foregoing is true and correct.

Britany Wylie / Forensic Scientist

Issue Date: 11/20/2015

Toxicology Report Supplement

ROUTINE DRUG SCREEN:

Methamphetamine, Methadone, Cannabinoids (Cannabis), Cocaine Metabolite, Opiate Class Compounds, Benzodiazepine Class Compounds (additional compounds may also be included)

All positive results reported have been confirmed by GC-MS or LC-MS QQQ.

UPON REQUEST:

Alcohol / Inhalants (e.g. Toluene and Xylenes).
Pharmaceutical preparations not covered under routine drug screen

COMMENTS:

- 1. A negative finding does not indicate that no drug was present; only that it was not detected by our testing protocols.
- 2. A positive Cannabinoid result indicates that the subject has been exposed to cannabinoids (cannabis).
- 3. The current blood toxicology analytical methods used by ISP Forensic Services are limited in the types and concentrations of benzodiazepines that can be confirmed.
- 4. ISP Forensic Services is currently unable to detect cannabimimetic substances and/or their metabolites in toxicology samples. These substances are commonly known as "spice" or "synthetic cannabinoids."
- 5. Due to the variable pharmacological factors which affect drug metabolism (drug dose, route of administration, and rates of metabolism and excretion), determination of time since use and the level of impairment cannot be established solely on the basis of the results of the blood or urine testing.
- 6. When a suitable blood sample is available, urine alcohol analysis will not be pursued unless there are extenuating circumstances surrounding the case, and permission has been granted.
- 7. For DUI, the blood or urine results should be considered in conjunction with observations of impairment.
- 8. ISP Forensic Services does not perform testing for sugar levels, insulin, or any metals (such as lithium, mercury or arsenic) in either blood or urine.

STORAGE OF TOXICOLOGY COLLECTION KITS:

It is the best practice to store urine and blood specimens refrigerated, at minimum, to prevent degradation of any drug compounds present in the sample.

SAMPLE RETURN POLICY:

Upon completion of analysis, our laboratory will return the specimen to the agency from which it was submitted. The original submittal form (containing the external chain-of-custody) for toxicology cases will be returned with the evidence.

700 South Stratford Drive, Ste 125 Meridian, ID 83642-6202 Phone: (208) 884-7170

Fax: (208) 884-7197
FORENSIC VOLATILES ANALYSIS REPORT

| Case Agency(s):         | Agency Case No(s).:       | Laboratory Case No.: |
|-------------------------|---------------------------|----------------------|
| ISP-CONFIDENTIAL D3     | M15000140                 | M2015-4084           |
| Date(s) of Offense:     | Investigating Officer(s): | Report No.:          |
| 11/1/2015               | Jason Horst               | 2                    |
| Date Evidence Accepted: | Analyst:                  |                      |
| 11/5/2015               | Melissa (Nikka) Bradley   |                      |
| Case Name(s):           | * * *                     | A         |

EVIDENCE DESCRIPTION:

Subject - CODY W ROLAND

Item 2: Blood Collection Kit: containing two gray top tubes labeled "Roland, Cody"

CONCLUSIONS AND INTERPRETATIONS:

Item 2:

Ethyl Alcohol: None Detected

DISPOSITION OF EVIDENCE:

The evidence will be returned to the submitting agency.

REMARKS:

I declare under penalty of perjury pursuant to the law of the State of Idaho that the foregoing is true and correct.

Melissa (Nikka) Bradley / Forensic Scientist

Issue Date: 11/12/2015

MBradley

700 South Stratford Drive, Ste 125 Meridian, ID 83642-6202 Phone: (208) 884-7170

Fax: (208) 884-7197
FORENSIC VOLATILES ANALYSIS REPORT

| Case Agency(s):         | Agency Case No(s).:       | Laboratory Case No.: |
|-------------------------|---------------------------|----------------------|
| ISP-CONFIDENTIAL D3     | M15000140                 | M2015-4084           |
| Date(s) of Offense:     | Investigating Officer(s): | Report No.:          |
| 11/1/2015               | Jason Horst               | 1                    |
| Date Evidence Accepted: | Analyst:                  |                      |
| 11/5/2015               | Melissa (Nikka) Bradley   | !                    |
| Case Name(s):           |                    | 3                    |
| Subject - BRIAN S WOOD  |                           |                      |

EVIDENCE DESCRIPTION:

Item 1: Blood Collection Kit: containing two gray top tubes labeled "Wood, Brian"

CONCLUSIONS AND INTERPRETATIONS:

Item 1:

Ethyl Alcohol: None Detected

DISPOSITION OF EVIDENCE:

The evidence will be returned to the submitting agency.

REMARKS:

I declare under penalty of perjury pursuant to the law of the State of Idaho that the foregoing is true and correct.

Melissa (Nikka) Bradley / Forensic Scientist

Issue Date: 11/12/2015

MBradley

700 South Stratford Drive, Ste 125 Meridian, ID 83642-6202 Phone: (208) 884-7170

Fax: (208) 884-7197 FORENSIC FIELD SERVICES REPORT

| Case Agency(s):            | Agency Case No(s):        | Laboratory Case No.: |
|----------------------------|---------------------------|----------------------|
| ISP-CONFIDENTIAL D3        | M15000140                 | M2015-4084           |
| Date(s) of Offense:        | Investigating Officer(s): | Report No.:          |
| 11/1/2015                  | Jason Horst               | 7                    |
| Analyst:                   |                           |                      |
| Jennifer (Jennie) Ayers    |                           |                      |
| Case Name(s):              |                           |                      |
| Subject - BRIAN S WOOD     |                           |                      |
| Subject - JACK FRED YANTIS |                           |                      |
| Subject - CODY W ROLAND    |                           |                      |

On November 2, 2015, at approximately 1314 hours, Forensic Scientist I Hailey Youngling and I responded to the Ada County Coroner's office in Boise, Idaho, to assist Idaho State Police with the collection of post mortem fingerprints.

The decedent was in a black body bag; the evidence seals were broken. The bag was identified with a tag labeled "Jack Yantis", "case number: 2015-01", and "Adams County Coroner".

On the decedent's right hand, there were areas of damage, including the thenar area of palm, right index finger, right middle finger, and right ring finger. On the decedent's left hand, there was damage to the left ring finger and the left little finger. The proximal joint of the left little finger was still attached to the hand, the middle joint was missing, and a piece which appeared to be the distal joint was present with the body, but contained a very small amount of pattern area.

With my assistance, Hailey Youngling collected the following exemplars: one set of inked fingerprints, one set of fully rolled finger prints from the right hand, portions of the right palm, one set of fully rolled finger prints from the left hand, and the left palm.

We cleared the Ada County Coroner's office at 1450 hours. The finger and palm print exemplars were turned over to Detective Vickie Gooch at 1525 hours.

REMARKS:

I declare under penalty of perjury pursuant to the law of the State of Idaho that the foregoing is true and correct.

Jennifer (Jennie) Ayers / Forensic Scientist

Issue Date: 12/16/2015

From: Hendershot, Danielle

Sent: Thursday, November 12, 2015 1:38 PM

To: Horst, Jason

Subject: M15-140 Evidence Status

Items that have been sent to a lab, and what lab:

150002761-4 Urine kit from Brian Wood- CDA lab Toxicology testing
150002761-5 Blood kit from Brian Wood – Meridian lab Alcohol testing
150002761-23 Cody Roland's Urine Kit- CDA lab Toxicology testing
150002761-24 Cody Roland's Blood Kit- Meridian lab Alcohol testing
150002761-25 Roland's Uniform Shirt- RJ Lee Group lab GSR testing
150002761-26 Roland's Uniform Pants- RJ Lee Group lab GSR testing
150002806-16 GSR Kit- RJ Lee Group lab GSR testing
150002830-9 Small deformed projectile (204 round)- Meridian lab for BIO testing
Photos of ASP- FBI picked up from Angelie (confirmed) tool mark testing
150002830-3 Ruger M77 .204 Rifle- Meridian lab (pending call to scientist) for Fingerprinting- ATF trace has also been started.

Evidence we are waiting on:

150002847-1 Cody Roland's ASP- lead or copper testing
150002830-3 Ruger M77- function and trigger weight testing
150002761-1 Lewis Machine & Tool Defender Rifle- function testing
150002761-16 Roland's Glock Model 30- function testing
150002830-9 Small deformed projectile (204 round)- measure and weight to confirm 204 or 223

This is where we stand right now. Let me know if you have any thoughts on this or want anything changed.

700 South Stratford Drive, Ste 125 Meridian, ID 83642-6202 Phone: (208) 884-7170 Fax: (208) 884-7197

FORENSIC DNA REPORT

| Case Agency(s):            | Agency Case No(s).:       | Laboratory Case No.: |
|----------------------------|---------------------------|----------------------|
| ISP-CONFIDENTIAL D3        | M15000140                 | M2015-4084           |
| Date(s) of Offense:        | Investigating Officer(s): | Report No.:          |
| 11/1/2015                  | Jason Horst               | 9                    |
| Date Evidence Accepted:    | Analyst:                  | •                    |
| 1/4/2016                   | Stacy Guess               |                      |
| Case Name(s):              |                           |                      |
| Subject - BRIAN S WOOD     |                           |                      |
| Subject - JACK FRED YANTIS |                           |                      |
| Subject - CODY W ROLAND    |                           |                      |

EVIDENCE DESCRIPTION:

Item 5.1: Swab collected from the "projectile"

Item 11: Reference blood sample from Jack Yantis

Item 11.1: Bloodstains prepared from a known blood sample from Jack Yantis

Item 12: DNA extracts from Items 5.1 and 11.1

CONCLUSIONS AND INTERPRETATIONS:

Deoxyribonucleic Acid (DNA) Analysis, employing the Polymerase Chain Reaction (PCR), was used to generate a Short Tandem Repeat (STR) profile from Item 11.1 and blood previously indicated on Item  $5.1.^1$

The DNA profile obtained from Item 5.1 matches that obtained from Item 11.1. Therefore, Jack Yantis is the source of the blood on this item.²

DISPOSITION OF EVIDENCE:

The stained portion of Item 5.1 was consumed during testing. All items have been returned to the main laboratory evidence vault for return to the submitting agency.

Laboratory Case Number: M2015-4084 Report No.: 9

REMARKS:

I declare under penalty of perjury pursuant to the law of the State of Idaho that the foregoing is true and correct.

Stacy Guess / Forensic Scientist

Issue Date: 02/01/2016

¹ Loci Examined: D3S1358, TH01, D21S11, D18S51, Penta E, D5S818, D13S317, D7S820, D16S539, CSF1PO, Penta D, vWA, D8S1179, TPOX, and FGA.

 $^{^2}$  This conclusion is based upon the following: 1) a genetic match at the gender identity locus, Amelogenin, in addition to the 15 polymorphic STR loci listed above that have an expected Likelihood Ratio of at least 3.68X10¹⁸, 2) a Likelihood Ratio exceeding the source attribution criterion of 2.0X10¹⁰ (for N=2.0X10⁷,  $\alpha$ =0.01 Forensic Science Communications 2(3) July 2000), and 3) that Jack Yantis does not have a genetically identical twin.

| 123456 |    |                                                                                     |
|----------------------------|----|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 4                          |    |                                                                                     |
| 5                          |    |                                                                                     |
| 6                          |    |                                                                                     |
| 7                          |    | INTERVIEW WITH STEVE PHILLIPS                                                       |
| 8                          |    | Q=Sgt. Boone                                                                        |
| 9                          |    | Q1=Det. Horst                                                                       |
| 10                         |    | A=Steven Phllips                                                                    |
| 11                         |    |                                                                                     |
| 12                         |    |                                                                                     |
| 13                         | A: | And, um, that's where I had met him and then we had our - a seasonal                |
| 14                         |    | position, a Marine position down in the canyon open.                                |
| 15                         |    |                                                                                     |
| 16                         | Q: | Okay.                                                                               |
| 17                         |    |                                                                                     |
| 18                         | A: | And, uh, he was outta work. And, uh, we ended up hirin' him to - to - kinda to      |
| 19                         |    | do that. So for the first - I can't even think how long he was down there. Let's    |
| 20                         |    | just say five months it was roughly - it could been as short as three and half      |
| 21                         |    | and maybe as long as five months. I wasn't his immediate supervisor. The            |
| 22                         |    | only time else after that that I really supervised him was g- um, I'm the Lead      |
| 23                         |    | Firearms guy for our department and he's one of my firearms instructors.            |
| 24                         |    |                                                                                     |
| 25                         | Q: | Okay.                                                                               |
| 26                         |    |                                                                                     |
| 27                         | A: | So I guess I kinda supervised him in - in that role.                                |
| 28                         | 0  | 01                                                                                  |
| 29                         | Q: | Okay.                                                                               |
| 30                         | ۸. | Dut his day to day stuff that? a that?                                              |
| 3132                   | A: | But his day to day stuff that's - that's                                            |
|                            | 0. | That's (Tam Cross)?                                                                 |
| 3334                   | Q: | That's (Tom Green)?                                                                 |
| 35                         | ۸. | (Green) Vech                                                                        |
| 36                         | A: | (Green). Yeah.                                                                      |
| 37                         | 0. | Okay.                                                                               |
| 38                         | Q: | Okay.                                                                               |
| 39                         | A: | Yeah.                                                                               |
| 40                         | A. | 1 can.                                                                              |
| 41                         | Q: | What's your relationship with his - with his wife and, you know, his - how do-      |
| 42                         | Q. | how did that come about?                                                            |
| 43                         |    | now did that come about:                                                            |
| 44                         | A: | Um, the relationship right at the moment, I'm not exactly sure. And we'll get       |
| 45                         |    | into that after a bit. But, how its all started was is like I said, we - we, um, so |

| 4647484950515253545556             |    | when I came to Idaho, um, I had to go - I had been out of law enforcement for five years so I had to go back to the academy and that's where we met, was in the academy. And he was workin' for, um, McCall PD and I was workin' down there on the river. And, um, we - we, you know, became friends throughout the academy and they we just kinda stayed in contact, you know, with each other. And - and, um, and then when he came to work for us, um, you know, we became, you know, just like everybody else. You know, you come - become friends with your - your coworkers and their families and stuff. And as - as it progressed my - my wife actually, um, they were entertaining the idea of actually goin' into business together in the real estate deal. Um                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 5859                                                                   | Q: | (Mackenzie) and your wife?                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 6061                                                                   | A: | Yeah (Mackenzie) and                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 6263                                                                   | Q: | Okay.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| 64656667686970717273747576 | A: | my wife. So, uh, we make - we become pretty good friends. I mean, I, uh, I had known, um, those guys for a while and their wives got introduced. And - and our wives are - we always joked about our wives bein' like twins 'cause they're born on the same day, they're both blue-eyed blondes, there's - there's a lot of, um, a lot of similarities to 'em. So, um, the girls kinda hit it off and, you know, and we occasionally hang out maybe once a month, one - maybe twice a month. You know, we'd get together type of thing. And so, you know, we were f- we were pretty good - close friends there for a while. And, um - um, and then this crap all started. You know, a- and it's kinda - it's kind of, uh, I'm not exactly sure where to - where to stand on it especially in the last couple of days, I'm not exactly sure whose side I'm on or if I wanna be on anybody's side, um, anymore. Um, so I mean, does that answer your question of - of we kinda got |
| 7879                                                                   | Q: | Yeah, yeah, yeah                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 8081                                                                   | A: | Okay.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| 82838485                                                       | Q: | um, so - so you - you and (Brian) knew each other or met, you know, back when you guys, uh, when (Brian) still worked for McCall, but you had a Marine Deputy position in Hells Canyon he came and worked for you a                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 8687                                                                   | A: | Mm-hm.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 8889                                                                   | Q: | little bit, part time, so he - that's where you guys                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 90                                                                         | A: | Yeah.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |

| 0.1 |    |                                                                                 |
|-----|----|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 91  | Ο. | 49                                                                              |
| 92  | Q: | met?                                                                            |
| 93  |    |                                                                                 |
| 94  | A: | That's, uh, yeah that's where we really started                                 |
| 95  | _  |                                                                                 |
| 96  | Q: | Fast forward to - of                                                            |
| 97  |    |                                                                                 |
| 98  | A: | Yeah.                                                                           |
| 99  |    |                                                                                 |
| 100 | Q: | you know, however - however length period of time and your wives were           |
| 101 |    | introduced to each other, they became friends and then you guys were just,      |
| 102 |    | you know, occasionally, from time to time - how - how long a period of time     |
| 103 |    | are we gonna be talkin' about here?                                             |
| 104 |    |                                                                                 |
| 105 | A: | Um, he got hired                                                                |
| 106 |    |                                                                                 |
| 107 | Q: | So I guess what I'm drivin' at is                                               |
| 108 |    |                                                                                 |
| 109 | A: | He got hired in, uh, '12 or '13, I don't remember.                              |
| 110 |    |                                                                                 |
| 111 | Q: | So - so would it be safe to say that you've personally known, as well as        |
| 112 | ۷. | professionally known (Brian), for the length or the duration of his time        |
| 113 |    | (unintelligible) your department?                                               |
| 114 |    | (unintenigiole) your department:                                                |
| 115 | A: | Yes.                                                                            |
| 116 | Λ. | 1 65.                                                                           |
| 117 | Q: | Okay so you have a pretty good insight into (Brian)'s personality. I w- I mean, |
| 118 | Q. | do you feel                                                                     |
| 119 |    | do you icci                                                                     |
| 120 | A: | Voc                                                                             |
|     | A. | Yes.                                                                            |
| 121 | Ο. | 121 4-9                                                                         |
| 122 | Q: | like you do?                                                                    |
| 123 | Α. | V-1 01 1 -1 1 1 1                                                               |
| 124 | A: | Yeah. Oh yeah, oh yeah, yeah, yeah.                                             |
| 125 | 0  | O1 - W. II                                                                      |
| 126 | Q: | Okay. Well                                                                      |
| 127 |    |                                                                                 |
| 128 | A: | And especially when - in the last - last two and a half months.                 |
| 129 |    |                                                                                 |
| 130 | Q: | When you say it like that it makes me think that there's somethin'              |
| 131 |    | 100                                                                             |
| 132 | A: | Well                                                                            |
| 133 |    |                                                                                 |
| 134 | Q: | there's somethin' there.                                                        |
| 135 |    |                                                                                 |
|     |    |                                                                                 |

| 136                                                                                                                        | A:                               | Well I mean, we would - well I - I give you where                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 137                                                                                                                        |                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 138                                                                                                                        | Q:                               | That's concerning.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 139                                                                                                                        |                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 140                                                                                                                        | A:                               | I'm comin' from. I thought I knew (Brian) pretty well.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 141                                                                                                                        |                                  | in comm from 1 mought 1 men (Brain) protty won.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 142                                                                                                                        | Q:                               | Okay.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| 143                                                                                                                        | Q.                               | Okay.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| 144                                                                                                                        | ۸.                               | Lman I. Thomastly did um like it's                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
|                                                                                                                            | A:                               | I mean, I - I honestly did, um, like it's                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 145                                                                                                                        | 0                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 146                                                                                                                        | Q:                               | That's a common g- theme.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 147                                                                                                                        | No                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 148                                                                                                                        | A:                               | I considered him, um, one of my good friends. And - I mean, we had a lotta                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 149                                                                                                                        |                                  | interests, you know, we're both firearms enthusiasts, and d- and, you know, so                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| 150                                                                                                                        |                                  | we talked a lot about that. And of course we're both - he's one of my firearms                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| 151                                                                                                                        |                                  | instructors and - and, you know, so we had a lotta things in common. Um, but                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 152                                                                                                                        |                                  | I can tell ya in the this last two months or this last month and a half or                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 153                                                                                                                        |                                  | whatever we've been dealin' with this, um, (Brian)'s not even close to the                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 154                                                                                                                        |                                  | person I thought he was. I - I mean, not even close and every day something                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 155                                                                                                                        |                                  | new comes out. You know, and I - I - I don't even know, uh, I - I'm to the                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 156                                                                                                                        |                                  | point now I can't even trust (Mackenzie) because we're - we're startin' to                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 157                                                                                                                        |                                  | catch her in a couple of lies. So where I sit at now, I couldn't tell ya.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 158                                                                                                                        |                                  | catch her in a couple of hes. so where I sit at how, I couldn't ten ya.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| 159                                                                                                                        | 0.                               | 777 11                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 139                                                                                                                        |                                  | Wall                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|                                                                                                                            | Q:                               | Well                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 160                                                                                                                        |                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 160161                                                                                                                 | Q.A:                         | You know?                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 160161162                                                                                                          | A:                               | You know?                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 160161162163                                                                                                   |                                  | You know? I guess maybe - maybe I - I don't - not for me to say one way or another                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 160161162163164                                                                                            | A:                               | You know?                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 160161162163                                                                                                   | A:                               | You know? I guess maybe - maybe I - I don't - not for me to say one way or another how you sit or - or to pick a side, I'm just lookin' for, you know, it's a mess                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 160161162163164165166                                                                              | A:                               | You know? I guess maybe - maybe I - I don't - not for me to say one way or another                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 160161162163164165                                                                                     | A:Q:                         | You know? I guess maybe - maybe I - I don't - not for me to say one way or another how you sit or - or to pick a side, I'm just lookin' for, you know, it's a mess                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 160161162163164165166                                                                              | A:Q:                         | You know? I guess maybe - maybe I - I don't - not for me to say one way or another how you sit or - or to pick a side, I'm just lookin' for, you know, it's a mess                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 160161162163164165166                                                                              | A:Q:A:                   | You know? I guess maybe - maybe I - I don't - not for me to say one way or another how you sit or - or to pick a side, I'm just lookin' for, you know, it's a mess  Mm-hm.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 160161162163164165166167168169                                                         | A:Q:A:Q:             | You know? I guess maybe - maybe I - I don't - not for me to say one way or another how you sit or - or to pick a side, I'm just lookin' for, you know, it's a mess  Mm-hm. um, and apparently, um, (Mackenzie) came to you at one point in time.                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| 160161162163164165166167168169170                                                  | A:Q:A:                   | You know? I guess maybe - maybe I - I don't - not for me to say one way or another how you sit or - or to pick a side, I'm just lookin' for, you know, it's a mess  Mm-hm.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 160161162163164165166167168169170                                                  | A:Q:A:Q:A:       | You know? I guess maybe - maybe I - I don't - not for me to say one way or another how you sit or - or to pick a side, I'm just lookin' for, you know, it's a mess  Mm-hm. um, and apparently, um, (Mackenzie) came to you at one point in time.  Mm-hm.                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 160161162163164165166167168169170171                                           | A:Q:A:Q:             | You know? I guess maybe - maybe I - I don't - not for me to say one way or another how you sit or - or to pick a side, I'm just lookin' for, you know, it's a mess  Mm-hm. um, and apparently, um, (Mackenzie) came to you at one point in time.                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| 160161162163164165166167168169170171172173                             | A:Q:A:Q:A:Q: | You know? I guess maybe - maybe I - I don't - not for me to say one way or another how you sit or - or to pick a side, I'm just lookin' for, you know, it's a mess  Mm-hm. um, and apparently, um, (Mackenzie) came to you at one point in time.  Mm-hm.  Um, what - how did that happen and what happened?                                                                                                                                                               |
| 160161162163164165166167168169170171172173174                      | A:Q:A:Q:A:       | You know? I guess maybe - maybe I - I don't - not for me to say one way or another how you sit or - or to pick a side, I'm just lookin' for, you know, it's a mess  Mm-hm. um, and apparently, um, (Mackenzie) came to you at one point in time.  Mm-hm.  Um, what - how did that happen and what happened?  Okay. Um, so I gotta look back over my notes here. Um, so, ah, I'm tryin' to                                                                                 |
| 160161162163164165166167168169170171172173174175               | A:Q:A:Q:A:Q: | You know? I guess maybe - maybe I - I don't - not for me to say one way or another how you sit or - or to pick a side, I'm just lookin' for, you know, it's a mess  Mm-hm. um, and apparently, um, (Mackenzie) came to you at one point in time.  Mm-hm.  Um, what - how did that happen and what happened?  Okay. Um, so I gotta look back over my notes here. Um, so, ah, I'm tryin' to think of what day it was. Before the first of the year, I'm gonna say - okay so |
| 160161162163164165166167168169170171172173174175176        | A:Q:A:Q:A:Q: | You know? I guess maybe - maybe I - I don't - not for me to say one way or another how you sit or - or to pick a side, I'm just lookin' for, you know, it's a mess  Mm-hm. um, and apparently, um, (Mackenzie) came to you at one point in time.  Mm-hm.  Um, what - how did that happen and what happened?  Okay. Um, so I gotta look back over my notes here. Um, so, ah, I'm tryin' to                                                                                 |
| 160161162163164165166167168169170171172173174175176177 | A:Q:A:Q:A:Q: | You know? I guess maybe - maybe I - I don't - not for me to say one way or another how you sit or - or to pick a side, I'm just lookin' for, you know, it's a mess  Mm-hm. um, and apparently, um, (Mackenzie) came to you at one point in time.  Mm-hm.  Um, what - how did that happen and what happened?  Okay. Um, so I gotta look back over my notes here. Um, so, ah, I'm tryin' to think of what day it was. Before the first of the year, I'm gonna say - okay so |
| 160161162163164165166167168169170171172173174175176177 | A:Q:A:Q:A:Q: | You know? I guess maybe - maybe I - I don't - not for me to say one way or another how you sit or - or to pick a side, I'm just lookin' for, you know, it's a mess  Mm-hm. um, and apparently, um, (Mackenzie) came to you at one point in time.  Mm-hm.  Um, what - how did that happen and what happened?  Okay. Um, so I gotta look back over my notes here. Um, so, ah, I'm tryin' to think of what day it was. Before the first of the year, I'm gonna say - okay so |
| 160161162163164165166167168169170171172173174175176177 | A:Q:A:Q:A:Q: | You know? I guess maybe - maybe I - I don't - not for me to say one way or another how you sit or - or to pick a side, I'm just lookin' for, you know, it's a mess  Mm-hm. um, and apparently, um, (Mackenzie) came to you at one point in time.  Mm-hm.  Um, what - how did that happen and what happened?  Okay. Um, so I gotta look back over my notes here. Um, so, ah, I'm tryin' to think of what day it was. Before the first of the year, I'm gonna say - okay so |

Q:

A:

197

198 199

200

201

223

224

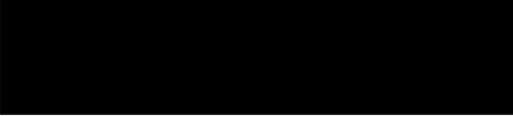

225

Hm.

"Bet let's take a week off and, you know, you go somewhere for a week and you go for some- for a week and let's think about this and - and do whatever. And then at the end of that week we'll get back together and see where we're sittin'." Everybody kinda calms down and, you know, have a couple nights to think about it. So they agree and they decided since they were gonna split, they were gonna go rent a car so - 'cause they only have one vehicle. Okay? So they're gonna go rent a car. So they both drive down here to Boise and they rent a car. And (Brian) keeps the pickup that they just got and (Mackenzie) takes the rental car and goes back to McCall. Somewhere from somewhere from the - when they - once they got the rental car, (Brian) had made some - some sort of comments that set (Mackenzie) off on the - on the aspect of he was gonna hurt himself. Okay? So she was worried about it him and so she had text him and tried to call him, he wouldn't contact her. Um, she contacted his friends, he wouldn't answer any of his friends' messages. Contacted her - his parents, um, his parents tried to get a hold of him, nothin'. His dad calls me, 'cause he knows we're friends, and says - and apparently (Brian) looked up to me at one point in time. And he says, "Hey -" he says "This is what's kinda goin' on. Um, (Brian) had made some suicidal talks, um, Bri- uh, (Mackenzie)'s pretty upset about it he - they te- they told me about the split up and all that." He says, "Would you reach out and see if he'll answer ya just so we can kinda know where he's at?" I said, "Absolutely." At this point in time I think it's the stress from the shooting, okay, because I have no idea about the rest of this stuff. Okay? So I've been through shootings, I understand that, and I knew - I knew it was gonna happen to (Brian). And (Brian) is not - he's not one to deal with that stress at all. So I'm assuming that it's - it's built up from the shooting and all the - the drama. And, um, so - so I reach out to him, I text him and - and doesn't answer me and so I called and I left a message and - and I basically just told him, I said, "Dude you need to call me. Otherwise I'm gonna hafta handle this another way." But, you know, go the law enforcement route. So he calls me right back he's like, "No don't do that. I'm just, you know, just pissed and -" so we talked on the phone for, I don't know, 40 some minutes. And he's pretty - he goes back and forth on either goin' to another country or killin' himself. So, um, finally I'm - I'm - I finally get where he's at, and he's just north of Horseshoe Bend and, um, I said, "All right." I said, "Well what's your plan tonight?" He says, "Well I'm gonna go to my storage locker and get a sleepin' bag and - and, uh, I'm gonna live in my car. I go, "Dude it's - it's minus 6 at my house, it's gotta be minus 10, 11 in McCall you can't sleep in your car." You know? And, "Nope that's what I'm gonna do." And blah, blah, blah and, you know, just, you know, "Don't worry about me and everything will be okay." And, uh, we talked a little while and talked a little while and finally, um, I just told him, I said, "Hey" I said, "There's a room at the Best Western." I said, "I'm on my way, meet me there." Jumped in the truck and I ran up to McCall and he met me, he'd been over to his storage unit and got some stuff outta there. And had been - went by the house, uh, where him and (Mackenzie) - their apartment, um, picked up some clothes and he was waitin' for me at the motel. So I go, "Oh that's positive." You know? So we sat until about 4:30 in the mornin', um, talkin' about, you know, feelings and - and stuff like that. And it wasn't a- what I started figurin' out is it wasn't - yeah the stress from the shooting was - was gettin' to him and I think that's what kinda made everything flare up, is that stress, and it just kinda broke everything else free. But, um, he told

Mm-hm.

226

227

228

229 230

231

232

233

234235

236

237

238

239240

241

242243

244

245

246

247

248249

258259

Q:

A:

271 272 273 So anyways we - we sit and talked about 274 275 those things and - and finally get back to the point of - of (Brian)'s bein' 276 (Brian), he can think. You know, he's not totally, "I'm gonna go out and kill 277 myself or I'm just gonna, you know, go to Central or Sou- uh, Central or 278 South America." And so anyways we - we talked 'til about 4:30 in the 279 mornin', we got up and went to breakfast and talked a little more and he was 280 kinda back to bein' the (Brian) I knew. So, um, with that I thought, "Okay, 281 you know, he's just havin' a - a moment of - a stress breakdown and - and, but 282 things are, you know, he's back to - back to talkin' and - and back to bein' himself I'm gonna go home." So I leave and pull over to - to Maverick to get 283 fuel and he's meetin' a friend of his, um, to go look at a job. Um, his friend 284 285 does some, um, g- like, industrial cleaning and - and, like, if you're gonna 286 remodel a house that's been damaged or - from a storm or... 287 288 Q: Mm-hm. 289 290 ...somethin', he'll go in and clean that all up so the contractors can come in A: 291 and rebuild and stuff like that. So they - they have a demolition on a - on a 292 chimney and stuff and so (Brian) with his explosives and - and stuff like that, was thinkin' about, um, lookin' at biddin' the job to - to do the demo of that, 293 294 uh, chimney. So they were gonna met and my wife calls me 'cause she's 295 talkin' to, you know, bein' a friend to (Mackenzie) and my wife texts me and says, "Hey you still with (Brian)?" I said, "No I just left him." She goes, "You 296 need to go back, uh, (Mackenzie) just called me, he's gonna get some more 297 bad information today and it's gonna send him totally over the edge and she's 298 299 - she's worried about him. Would you go stay with him?" I'm like, "Well what is it?" She goes, "I don't know." 300 301 302 303 I remember hearin' about that. Q: 304 305 A: 306 307 308 So this was - then around the 7th? Q: 309 310 A: Nope, no, no, no. 311 312 The 6th? Q: 313 314 This is the next day. A: 315

| 316 | Q:               | From - okay.                                                                       |
|-----|------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 317 |                  |                                                                                    |
| 318 | A:               | From - from - from the first day so we're - we're still in that 28, 29 area.       |
| 319 |                  |                                                                                    |
| 320 | Q:               | Okay.                                                                              |
| 321 |                  | Steered Steered Steered                                                            |
| 322 | A:               | 'Cause on the 30th we took off and went to - the morning of the 30th we went       |
| 323 |               | to, um, it's not it - right either 'cause we came back - we got back to Boise at,  |
| 324 |                  | like, 10 a- 10:00 pm on New Year's Eve so we left the day before that to go to     |
| 325 |                  | Seattle. So we're - we're still in that 27th                                       |
|     |                  | Seattle. So we le - we le still in that 2/th                                       |
| 326 | 0                |                                                                                    |
| 327 | Q:               | Okay.                                                                              |
| 328 |                  |                                                                                    |
| 329 | A:               | 28th day, somewhere in there. So, um, I said, "Okay." And so I -                   |
| 330 |                  |                                                                                    |
| 331 |                  |                                                                                    |
| 332 |                  | So I called him on the phone and I said, "Hey, you know, where ya at?"             |
| 333 |                  | And he says, "I'm over here at Ridley's parkin' lot. And so I - I said, "Stay      |
| 334 |                  | right there. I'll be right there in a minute, we need to talk about somethin'."    |
| 335 |                  | And he says, "Well can we talk over the phone?" I'm - I said, "No." I said,        |
| 336 |                  | "Just stay right there, I'll be right back." "Okay." So I go over there and he's - |
| 337 |                  | he's in his pickup and (Sam), um, is in his pickup and - and I walk over and I     |
| 338 |                  | got in the pickup with him and                                                     |
|     |                  | got in the pickup with him and                                                     |
| 339 | 0.               | What's (Cam)'s last warms                                                          |
| 340 | Q:               | What's (Sam)'s last name?                                                          |
| 341 |                  |                                                                                    |
| 342 | A:               | (Fernandez).                                                                       |
| 343 |                  |                                                                                    |
| 344 | Q:               | Okay.                                                                              |
| 345 |                  |                                                                                    |
| 346 | A:               | You got his phone number? Yup.                                                     |
| 347 |                  |                                                                                    |
| 348 | Q:               |                                                                                    |
| 349 | ::: : |                                                                                    |
| 350 | A:               | Yup.                                                                               |
| 351 |                  |                                                                                    |
| 352 | Q:               |                                                                                    |
| 353 | Q.               |                                                                                    |
| 354 | A:               |                                                                                    |
| 355 | A.               |                                                                                    |
|     |                  | II. 1                                                                              |
| 356 |                  | He - he went off his rocker and went right back into, "I'm                         |
| 357 |                  | gonna kill myself and so and so forth." Um, he, um, tryin' (unintelligible).       |
| 358 |                  | Yup that's it. Um, so we spent - that was at, like, nine o- or 10 o'clock in the   |
| 359 |                  | morning. Okay? I spent until 3:30 that afternoon in that parkin' lot in the        |
| 360 |                  | pickup with him and he's goin' back and forth. I mean, he - he wanted me to        | get outta the truck so he could go kill himself or he - he wasn't talkin' so 361 362 much about the fleeing to Central America anymore, but, uh, the, um, talkin' 363 about blowin' himself up. And he was so gridlocked in his brain, he couldn't 364 even read the gas guage 'cause we'd been sittin' there for a while. And I said, "Well how much fuel you got?" I could see the gas gauge and he looks at it 365 366 and I mean, he loo- (unintelligible) pulls up and looks at it his mouth is 367 movin', but nothing's comin' out of it. I mean, this guy is so gridlocked in his 368 brain he can't even communicate. So we sat and talked and we talked and we 369 talked and - and, um, it finally got to the point that I realized he was startin' to 370 screw with me. I don't know if you guys know, but (Brian)'s incredibly smart. 371 He's a - he's a National, um - um, c- I can't remember what they call it now. 372 National Honor Society or whatever so he's in the 1% - the 1% smartest kids 373 in school 374 375 Mm-hm. Q: 376 377 So... A: 378 379 (Unintelligible)? Q: 380 381 Y- yeah he's i- he's incredibly smart. Now (Mackenzie)'s even smarter, she's A: 382 - they - she's off the chart, they can't even rate her. So I realize that he's kinda screwin' with me, he's tellin' me what I wanna hear so I'll get outta the truck. 383 All right? So I change tactics on him and I d- and I just flat told him I said, 384 385 "Here's the deal we got - we got option A and option B. Option A is -" 'cause 386 He didn't - he didn't - just didn't wanna - didn't really 387 388 wanna go that route. So I said, "Here's the deal, option A, we're gonna go 389 meet your dad in Horseshoe Bend and have dinner and we're gonna talk about this. Or option B is I'm gonna handle this law enforcement-way I'm gonna -390 391 we're gonna go ahead and get an endangerment hold on ya." "No." Okay and 392 - I mean, as soon as I said that the guy I mean, literally turned in his seat and -393 and squared off with me and stuck his hand down by his gun. He says, "There 394 will be gunfire if - if we go that route." You know, I was like, "Okay let's go talk to your dad then." And - and he - and then he reiterated that there would 395 396 be gunfire if there's any law enforcement action whatsoever. Okay? I said, "So let's go talk to your dad." So he... 397 398 399 Q: Uh... 400 401 A: ...puts it in drive and... 402 403 Lemme - lemme pause you. I just wanna... Q: 404 405 Yeah. A:

| 406 |    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|-----|----|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 407 | Q: | he threatened you?                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 408 |    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 409 | A: | Oh yeah.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 410 |    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 411 | Q: | Okay.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| 412 |    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 413 | A: | And - and you - and any other cop                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 414 |    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 415 | Q: | Mm-hm.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 416 |    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 417 | A: | that has any - any law enforcement action towards him. It gets better, hold                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 418 |    | on. So at the - the second time he - he - he say, "Okay." And he puts it in drive                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 419 |    | and - and we're headin' to Horseshoe Bend from McCall. So I call his dad and                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| 420 |    | I said, "Get your ass to Horseshoe Bend now. We're o- we're en route from                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 421 |    | McCall." So his dad comes up and - and we meet at Horseshoe Bend and we                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 422 |    | talk. And he f- we, uh, basically just had a straightforward gut wrenching                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| 423 |    | intervention with him. And - and he broke down and he, uh, looked me - looks                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| 424 |    | - his dad's sittin' next to him and I'm sittin' across the table and he kinda                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 425 |    | looks at his dad and he looks at me and he goes - he goes, "I know I need                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 426 |    | help, I don't know what to do and I want you to tell me." He's pointin' at me.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 427 |    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 428 |    | "Okay." So from that point, um, w- we decide that - he                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 429 |    | - he's - he's back - he's back to bein' (Brian) I'm thinkin', but - so at that                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 430 |    | point we all decided in the morning that we're meetin' at his dad's house in                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| 431 |    | Boise, he's gonna go down to Boise and stay at his friend's house which is,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 432 |    | uh, (Dave Sorenson). He's gonna go stay at (Dave)'s that night and he's                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 433 |    | gonna meet at his mo- dad's the next mornin' and they're gonna pick me up in                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| 434 |    | Baker City, Oregon. Okay? So the next                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| 435 |    | mornin' he shows up there, there was a little misunderstanding between him                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| 436 |    | and his mother which, um, his da- he was sittin' in the truck ready to go and                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 437 |    | his dad came out and said the - somethin' to the effect of, "Hey go give your                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 438 |    | mom a hug." You know, type of thing. So he got out and went in the house,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 439 |    | well mom didn't want hi- (Brian) to see her cryin' about it, so she turned her                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 440 |    | back to him. Well he took that as rejection and went off and, um, went down                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 441 |    | the street a little ways and contemplated suicide again. And then - and finally -                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 442 |    | I finally got a hold of him again on the phone and - and told him, "Just go                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 443 |    | back to your dad's, get in the truck, let's go." So he did. He - he went back                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 444 |    | and got in the truck,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| 445 |    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 446 |    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 447 |    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 448 | Q: | So you guys took (Brian) up to see (unintelligible)?                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 449 |    | and the foundation and the first control of the fir |
| 450 | A: |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |

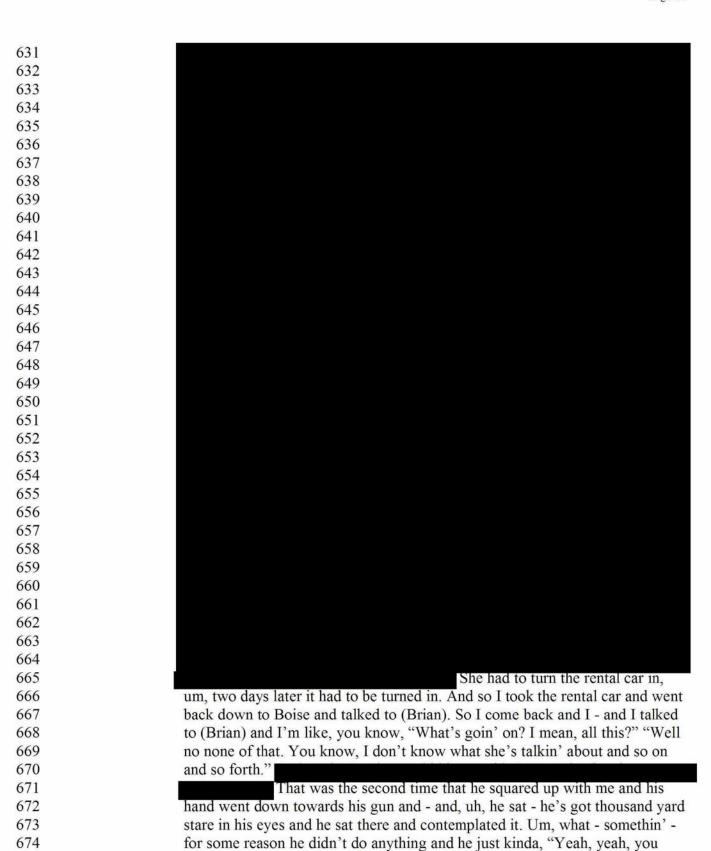

| 451 |      |                                                                               |
|-----|------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 452 | Q:   | What - when was this that you left?                                           |
| 453 |      |                                                                               |
| 454 | A:   | This was - so we got home New Year's Eve so this would been the day           |
| 455 |      | before that. So what is that the                                              |
| 456 |      |                                                                               |
| 457 | Q:   | 30th?                                                                         |
| 458 |      |                                                                               |
| 459 | Q1:  | 30th.                                                                         |
| 460 |      |                                                                               |
| 461 | A:   | 30th.                                                                         |
| 462 |      |                                                                               |
| 463 | Q:   | 30th.                                                                         |
| 464 |      |                                                                               |
| 465 | A:   | Yeah.                                                                         |
| 466 |      |                                                                               |
| 467 | Q:   | Okay.                                                                         |
| 468 |      |                                                                               |
| 469 | A:   | The day before we went                                                        |
| 470 |      |                                                                               |
| 471 | Q:   | So the 29th is the day that he threatened you?                                |
| 472 |      |                                                                               |
| 473 | A:   | Yeah.                                                                         |
| 474 |      |                                                                               |
| 475 | Q:   | The 30th                                                                      |
| 476 |      |                                                                               |
| 477 | A:   | That was                                                                      |
| 478 |      |                                                                        |
| 479 | Q:   |                                                                               |
| 480 |      |                                                                               |
| 481 | A:   | That was the first time he threatened me, was the 29th.                       |
| 482 |      |                                                                               |
| 483 | Q:   | Okay.                                                                         |
| 484 |      |                                                                               |
| 485 | A:   |                                                                               |
| 486 |      |                                                                               |
| 487 | Q:   | Can I - can I stop you just for a second?                                     |
| 488 |      |                                                                               |
| 489 | A:   | Absolutely.                                                                   |
| 490 | _    |                                                                               |
| 491 | Q:   | Hey Bob, can I step out just for one sec? I have - have - somethin's frickin' |
| 492 |      | goin' on - sort of back - it's just - so I can get refocused here.            |
| 493 |      |                                                                               |
| 494 | Man: | First one's (unintelligible).                                                 |
| 495 |      |                                                                               |

| 496497 | Man: | (Unintelligible).                                 |
|------------|------|---------------------------------------------------|
| 498499 | Man: | (Unintelligible).                                 |
| 500501 | Q:   | (Unintelligible).                                 |
| 502503 | Man: | Not my fault (unintelligible).                    |
| 504505 | Q:   | Sorry 'bout that.                                 |
| 506507 | A:   | That's all right.                                 |
| 508509 | Q:   | All right.                                        |
| 510511 | A:   | Here's a contact for you.                         |
| 512513 | Q:   | Thank you.                                        |
| 514515 | A:   | Yeah (unintelligible).                            |
| 516517 | Q:   |                                                   |
| 518519 | A:   | (unintelligible).                                 |
| 520521 | Q:   | Okay go ahead.                                    |
| 522523 | A:   | Um, so anyways we meet in Baker, they pick me up, |
| 524525 |      |                                                   |
| 526        |      |                                                   |
| 527        |      |                                                   |
| 528        |      |                                                   |
| 529530 |      |                                                   |
| 531        |      |                                                   |
| 532        |      |                                                   |
| 533        |      |                                                   |
| 534        |      |                                                   |
| 535        |      |                                                   |
| 536        |      |                                                   |
| 537        |      |                                                   |
| 538        |      |                                                   |
| 539540 |      |                                                   |
| 510        |      |                                                   |

| 541 |                                                                                   |
|-----|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 542 |                                                                                   |
| 543 |                                                                                   |
| 544 |                                                                                   |
| 545 |                                                                                   |
| 546 |                                                                                   |
| 547 |                                                                                   |
| 548 | So, um, we get in the truck and we come home, we come                             |
| 549 | back. Um, I had set it up that my wife was with (Mackenzie) at that time.         |
| 550 | When we left she had left and went up and was stayin' with (Mackenzie), just      |
| 551 | bein' a friend and, you know, someone - 'cause they don't have a lot of - they    |
| 552 | have a few friends, but not a whole - not a group that - they're pretty pick      |
| 553 | about who they - they lit into their lives type of thing. So (Mackenzie) drops -  |
| 554 | trusted my wife enough to, you know, to kind of, you know, be her - be the        |
| 555 | strong person and kinda help her, you know, support her.                          |
| 556 |                                                                                   |
| 557 |                                                                                   |
| 558 |                                                                                   |
| 559 |                                                                                   |
| 560 | So I spent, um, another                                                           |
| 561 | couple of days, I wanna say two - two more days, down here in Boise with          |
| 562 | him. He was back to, you know, thinkin' and - and makin' decisions and - and      |
| 563 | back - back to Brain.                                                             |
| 564 | And of course at this time I                                                      |
| 565 | have no idea what the issues are, but he seems to be, you know, back to - back    |
| 566 | to bein' (Brian). So anyways, um, you know, I told him, you know, I said,         |
| 567 | "I'm here. You know, if you - you need to talk or -                               |
| 568 | or whatever it is" I said, "You know, you can always call me and                  |
| 569 | - and - and, uh, you know, I - I'm here to help ya." "Okay." So I said, I know    |
| 570 | you don't wanna - I said, "You sure you don't wanna talk to (Mackenzie)?"         |
| 571 | He goes, "No I - I don't - I don't wanna do that." I go, "Okay." I said, "Now is  |
| 572 | there anything that's pending, like, a payment on something, you know, that -     |
| 573 | that (Mackenzie) needs to know about? Is there anything you want me to relay      |
| 574 | to her?" He's like, "Yeah there's - there's some - probably, you know, yeah       |
| 575 | there's probably some stuff." So there was, um, he wanted her to know he had      |
| 576 | some of the - some stuff, um - um, in case there was bills that - that she had to |
| 577 | pay. He had - he had a buncha the money, uh, cash, um, he wanted her to           |
| 578 | know that he had that and if she needed it to send him a message, he'd send       |
| 579 | her some money. Um, she probably gonna need to rent the car for another           |
| 580 | three weeks because, you know,                                                    |
| 581 | mate with the state of the state of                                               |
| 582 |                                                                                   |
| 583 | So he's like, "Yeah she probably needs to rent                                    |
| 584 | the car for another three weeks." You know, type of thing, "If - if she doesn't   |
| 885 | have money for that, let me know I'll - I'll send her some cash for it or         |
|     | mand money for that, let me know I in I in bent her being cush for it of          |

whatever." So there was a couple things on this list that he wanted me to relay to her and I said, "Okay." So, um, the girls had made it back to McCall and, um, I - and s- and so I left him down here in Boise a- at Dave's house and, um, I went - went to - for McCall. Okay? I get to Emmett, I get - I go from Eagle to Emmet and I decided better stop off at Emmet 'cause I need some fuel. And so I'm fuelin' up and, uh, (Libby) texts me and she goes, "(Brian) is texting (Mackenzie) wantin' to cha-talk." I thought, "Well that's freakin' odd, I've only been outta the house for 20 minutes. Well, maybe, you know, that's a good step. You know? He's gonna talk to his wife. Maybe they can start workin' stuff out." I said, "Well if she wants to talk to him, well, you know, let her talk to him." So, um, so by the time I got from Emmet to McCall is still on the phone with (Mackenzie) when I get there and my wife - I walk in the door of their little apartment and my wife looks at me and she goes, "You need to stop lookin' at this as a - as a friend helpin' a friend and start lookin' at this as a cop." I go, "What the hell you talkin' about?" She goes, "Well I'm not gonna tell ya" she goes, "I'm just tellin' ya, ya need to stop lookin' at this as - as a buddy helpin' a buddy or a - a fellow cop helpin' a fellow cop. You need to look at this as - as a cop." I'm like, "All right, whatever that's supposed to mean." So I heard her, she was upstairs and they have a - a balcony, uh, their bedroom's upstairs in their little apartment. And she had know, I - I won't - I wouldn't do that,

675

During this point

676 and time I've talked to (Josh Johnson) which is on your list. 677 678 Q: Okay. 679 680 (Josh Johnson) is a McCall PD officer and this is also a good friend of A: 681 (Brian)'s, has known him for wha- way more years than I have known him. Um, him and I af- after I got her outta the house and I went and talked to 682 (Josh) 'cause (Josh) knows him and, um, he had made comments about if - if 683 684 any officer approached him or anything that there'd be gunplay. So I went and talked to (Josh) and I said, you know, "Di-" 'cause I - 'cause I'm confused as 685 686 hell. By now I'm tired. I mean, I haven't slept - haven't slept in, like, three 687 days. So, um, I decided that - that if there was gonna be a - a call that the McCall PD guys, um, probably needed to be warned that this is not gonna be a 688 one officer call that they need to be prepared for it. So (Josh) and I talk and -689 690 and we fill him in and he's kinda like - well - and he says to me, he goes, 691 692 693 And - and so anyways he kinda talk and - and we're talkin' and (Josh) looks at me and he goes, "You know" 694 695 he says "he's startin' to fit the pattern of a sociopath." I go, "Fuck, I had not 696 really thought about that." So we started comparin' notes and we were, like, "Yeah that kinda - kinda does fit the pattern." So, um, the next - the next day 697 (Josh) goes to his chief and, um, his chief calls me and we talk about it for a 698 699 while and his chief's like, "Yeah he's - he fits the - the sociopath." And I know I'm forgettin' things through this story, but, um, he - he - he fits the 700 sociopath to a T from - from everything we know about him. And the s- the 701 chief just from talking to me and to (Josh) kinda goes, "This guy fits a 702 703 sociopath." So I - my understanding he had contacted someone in ISP about 704 gettin' (Brian) a counselor and slippin' it in under... 705 706 Q: That (Josh) told you this? 707 708 N- uh, no the chief. That - the chief, the McCall police chief. A: 709 710 Q: Oh okay. 711 712 A: ...had made a statement that - that he was gonna to contact ISP and see if can 713 get another counselor into him, 714 but slip it in pertaining to the shooting, just kind of a check up, "Hey 715 how's it goin'?" You know? And - and see if we can get 716 talk to him. Again, the chief, you know, was like, "Let's try to get this guy some help." Type of thing. And, um, I wrote a report and went to my Sheriff 717 718 and my Undersheriff about it. And, um... 719 720 Well lemme stop you right there. So you told this story, what you're telling all Q:

| 721 |     | of us, to (Ryan) and (Jeff)?                                                     |
|-----|-----|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 722 |     |                                                                                  |
| 723 | A:  | Yeah.                                                                            |
| 724 |     |                                                                                  |
| 725 | Q1: | And you wrote a report?                                                          |
| 726 |     | ,                                                                                |
| 727 | A:  | Yeah.                                                                            |
| 728 | 11. | 1 cuit.                                                                          |
| 729 | Q:  | Okay.                                                                            |
| 730 | Q.  | Okay.                                                                            |
| 731 | ۸.  | Vools I can tall you right now                                                   |
|     | A:  | Yeah. I can tell you right now                                                   |
| 732 | 0   |                                                                                  |
| 733 | Q:  | Go ahead because I - I                                                           |
| 734 |     |                                                                                  |
| 735 | A:  | Before you write that down, my Sheriff and Undersheriff, good guys, but          |
| 736 |     | don't have a fuckin' clue how to do their job. They're in way over their head    |
| 737 |     | and with this they have no clue what to do. I literally went in and I'm havin'   |
| 738 |     | the same conversation with them as I'm havin' with you right here. Okay?         |
| 739 |     | And there's a written report in front of 'em. Okay? Now this doesn't 100%        |
| 740 |     | detail, um, but it - it gives the gist of everything that's goin' on. Okay? And  |
| 741 |     | (Ryan) kinda                                                                     |
| 742 |     | ()                                                                               |
| 743 | Q:  | Okay.                                                                            |
| 744 | Q.  | Okuy.                                                                            |
| 745 | A:  | looked at me and says, "I'mma tell ya right now, I'm gonna fail ya 'cause I      |
| 746 | Λ.  | have no idea what to do about this." And that's                                  |
|     |     | have no idea what to do about this. And that s                                   |
| 747 | 0   | 01                                                                               |
| 748 | Q:  | Okay.                                                                            |
| 749 |     |                                                                                  |
| 750 | A:  | exactly what I got from my Sheriff.                                              |
| 751 |     |                                                                                  |
| 752 | Q:  | I - just so - just so you know I'm going to - I'm going to retrieve that report. |
| 753 |     |                                                                                  |
| 754 | A:  | Oh yeah I - I                                                                    |
| 755 |     |                                                                                  |
| 756 | Q:  | 'Cause - 'cause I need to make that - I need to make that, um, available to the  |
| 757 |     | Attorney General and the, uh                                                     |
| 758 |     |                                                                                  |
| 759 | A:  | Nope.                                                                            |
| 760 |     | riope.                                                                           |
| 761 | 0:  | the Assistant US Attorney.                                                       |
|     | Q:  | the Assistant OS Attorney.                                                       |
| 762 | ۸.  | Oh I understand                                                                  |
| 763 | A:  | Oh I understand.                                                                 |
| 764 | 0   |                                                                                  |
| 765 | Q:  | Okay. I just didn't want you feel                                                |
|     |     |                                                                                  |

| 766        |       |                                                                          |
|------------|-------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 767        | A:    | Nope.                                                                    |
| 768        |       |                                                                          |
| 769        | Q:    | like I'm                                                                 |
| 770        |       |                                                                          |
| 771        | A:    | Nope.                                                                    |
| 772        |       |                                                                          |
| 773        | Q:    | sneakin' behind your back                                                |
| 774        | A* |                                                                          |
| 775        | A:    | Nope.                                                                    |
| 776        | 0.    | and .                                                                    |
| 777        | Q:    | and                                                                      |
| 778779 | A:    | Nope, nope, nope. Um, I'm not too sure - I don't know what Valley County |
| 780        | Λ.    | has because during that conversation                                     |
| 781        |       | has occause during that conversation                                     |
| 782        | Q:    | I've - I've seen their - I've seen their report.                         |
| 783        | Q.    | i ve i ve seen then i ve seen then report.                               |
| 784        | A:    | The one that                                                             |
| 785        |       |                                                                          |
| 786        | Q:    | The one where you and, uh                                                |
| 787        |       |                                                                          |
| 788        | A:    | No, no                                                                   |
| 789        |       |                                                                          |
| 790        | Q:    | Where it was you and                                                     |
| 791        |       |                                                                          |
| 792        | A:    | the one that my                                                          |
| 793        | 4     |                                                                          |
| 794        | Q:    | Right.                                                                   |
| 795        |       |                                                                          |
| 796        | A:    | Sheriff gave them.                                                       |
| 797        | 0.    | N-                                                                       |
| 798799 | Q:    | No.                                                                      |
| 800        | A:    | Because they requested it too.                                           |
| 801        | A.    | Because they requested it too.                                           |
| 802        | Q:    | Oh your report?                                                          |
| 803        | Q.    | on your report.                                                          |
| 804        | A:    | Yeah.                                                                    |
| 805        |       |                                                                          |
| 806        | Q:    | Okay. So I don't - no.                                                   |
| 807        |       | y                                                                 |
| 808        | A:    | Okay.                                                                    |
| 809        |       |                                                                          |
| 810        | Q:    | I have not seen anything that Valley County has as far as your           |
|            |       |                                                                          |

| 811 |    |                                                                                     |
|-----|----|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 812 | A: | Okay.                                                                               |
| 813 |    |                                                                                     |
| 814 | Q: | (Unintelligible)                                                                    |
| 815 |    |                                                                                     |
| 816 | A: | I'm talkin' from the same report.                                                   |
| 817 |    | •                                                                                   |
| 818 | Q: | It is the same report?                                                              |
| 819 |    |                                                                                     |
| 820 | A: | Same report.                                                                        |
| 821 |    | Sum report                                                                          |
| 822 | Q: | Okay.                                                                               |
| 823 | Q. | Okdy.                                                                               |
| 824 | A: | Now I don't know if the Sheriff was gonna give them that actual report or if        |
|     | A. |                                                                                     |
| 825 |    | he was gonna redact some stuff out of it. Sheriff didn't think they needed to       |
| 826 |    | know all the specifics. So I left that to him. I said, "I'm not redactin' shit. Uh, |
| 827 |    | that's - I wrote it, that's the way it's stayin'. Whatever you do with it, Sheriff, |
| 828 |    | is - is - that's your business not mine. I - I could care less. Okay? I thought     |
| 829 |    | you guys needed to know what's goin' on and here it is. Okay?" During the           |
| 830 |    | conversation with my Sheriff, um, uh, again like I said, he says, "I don't know     |
| 831 |    | what to do." I said, "Well I suggest that you get a hold of McCall PD and you       |
| 832 |    | get a hold of Valley Cou- uh, (Patty)." And I said, "Probably not (Patty)           |
| 833 |    | 'cause her husband had just died."                                                  |
| 834 |    |                                                                                     |
| 835 | Q: | Right.                                                                              |
| 836 |    |                                                                                     |
| 837 | A: | "Probably the Undersheriff." And I said, "You three need to sit down and            |
| 838 |    | have a chat about it because it's gonna effect us all. And whether it happens in    |
| 839 |    | our county, if it happens in McCall, if it happens in Valley County, if we - if     |
| 840 |    | they end up havin' to deal with (Brian) it's gonna take all of us 'cause there's    |
| 841 |    | only one or two guys on shift in all of our agencies at one point in time           |
| 842 |    | anyways." So the Sheriff is like, "Oh I know. Yeah you're probably right." So       |
| 843 |    | he had called and left a message for the McCall Police Chief and - he was out.      |
| 844 |    | But he did get a hold of the Undersheriff for Valley County and we had a            |
| 845 |    | conversation and we kinda filled him in on what was goin' on. This is - this is     |
| 846 |    | before we've been - we - this - Okay? I went                                        |
| 847 |    |                                                                                     |
| 848 |    | to my Sheriff before - right - right when it happened, but before I took            |
|     |    | (Mackenzie) there. 'Cause she didn't - she didn't wanna - this whole time she       |
| 849 |    | s- she's protectin' him, she doesn't wanna ruin him, she doesn't wanna ruin         |
| 850 |    | his career or whatever. So we had a little talk, Valley County requested that       |
| 851 |    | report that I wrote. And, um, Sheriff was gonna send 'em somethin'. What -          |
| 852 |    | what he sent 'em, I don't know. So I left there, didn't - I went home my - my       |
| 853 |    | wife - now my wife was with me during that whole conversation. We went              |
| 854 |    | home and, um, (Brian)'s made it very clear that if he loses his guns there'll be    |
| 855 |    | gunplay. And he'll - whoever - whoever has facilitated that whether it's his        | wife or myself or whoever, um, you know, if he gets in trouble or he - he loses his job or loses his guns or whatever that - that he will them. Okay? So I go home, my wife and I pack a bag and we leave. 'Cause I live in the canyon, everything around me is high ground. It's the most untactful pos- place you could ever live in. Okay? My house is approachable from all sides and it's all uphill and, um, I - I don't know how much you guys know into (Brian)'s background, but he - he is an advanced, skilled, sniper. I mean, I sent him to the FBI academy, um, the - their advance sniper school and he came out top shot. This guy is freakin' good. Okay? And he's got some exceptional, um, probably the best on the market sniper equipment. Okay? Down to a $9,000 night vi- or, uh, night vision scope...
|     |    |                                                                                     |

867 868

869

871

872873

874

875

876

877

878

879

880

881 882

883

884

Mm-hm.

870 A:

Q:

...uh, mounted on one of 'em. I mean, this guy has got some equipment that's - that's pretty impressive. Okay? So I'm like, "I'm not -" told my bosses, I said, "One I'm exhausted, two I'm stressed out and three my house is 'bout the mo- most unsafe place to go." I said, "Me and my wife are leavin'." And so we left and went and just kinda hung out, um, with some family friends. The next morning - so while I'm down there he has a conversation which ww- the part of it that was odd was - is - for the following - the previous week I had been - he had me involved in - in every conversation he had. Whether it whether it was, um, texts with his wife or phone calls with was with this wife, he had it on speakerphone and I was listenin' to it and afterwards we'd talk about it. He gets up, he goes in the back bedroom and has a conversation w- apparently with his wife and he comes out, he's struttin' down the hall like General Patton and throws his phone - I mean, literally just - just - literally just walks in and throws his phone up on the (unintelligible) and goes, "We're gettin' back together tomorrow. I'm takin' my rental car back up to McCall." I'm like - I go, "What changed?" "Eh, don't worry about it, we're gettin' back together and everything's good, we're gonna work it out." "All right." My wife - or, uh - uh, um, (Libby) and my wife are gone so she wants to go home. So she takes her home and - and we go off. The next morning at, like, 5:40 in the mornin' she calls me. It'd been good for, like, two days and then on the third night sh- um, (Mackenzie) is - has woken up, uh, at times cryin'. Right? She's - she's pretty upset about what's goin' on and just just the stress of everything. So she'll wake up crying. She woke up cryin' and 901 902 903 she said, "All of the sudden somethin' snapped in him and he - and he sat up 904 and he just rolled over and went to sleep." Well she had an appointment to go 905 to Boise anyways next morning for her job, she's a real estate agent. And well 906 907 she called me when she left - when she left about 5:40 in the mornin' and t-908 told me about. And I said, "Well where are you at?" And she goes - she goes, "I'm just pullin' into Boise." And I said, "I am, you know, you - this is 909 910 911 912 913 914 915 916 917 918 919 Mm-hm. Q: 920 921 A: 922 923 924 925 926 927 What - what you got in re- or what you just gave us is in that Valley County Q: 928 report that I read. 929 930 A: Is it? Okay. 931 932 I mean, it's - it's - it sounded like... Q: 933 934 Q1: There's not a - there's not a whole lotta detail to it, but the - the facts are there. 935 936 The facts are there? A: 937 938 Yeah. Q: 939 940 A: Okay. 941 942 What you described. Q: 943 944 Q1: Mm-hm. 945

899 900

|     | co.     |                                                                               |
|-----|---------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 946 | A:      |                                                                               |
| 947 |         |                                                                               |
| 948 |         |                                                                               |
| 949 |         |                                                                               |
| 950 |         |                                                                               |
| 951 | Q:      | Okay.                                                                         |
| 952 |         | •                                                                             |
| 953 | A:      | Okay?                                                                         |
| 954 |         |                                                                               |
| 955 | Q:      | All right that makes sense and that's somethin' we didn't know.               |
| 956 | ζ.      |                                                                               |
| 957 | Q1:     | M- well that's - I think that's about the time we're getting phone calls from |
| 958 | Q1.     | (Coons).                                                                      |
| 959 |         | (Coolis).                                                                     |
| 960 | A:      | Y- you probably are.                                                          |
| 961 | Λ.      | 1 - you probably are.                                                         |
| 962 | 0:      | Yeah.                                                                         |
| 963 | Q:      | i can.                                                                        |
|     | ۸.      | Vool                                                                          |
| 964 | A:      | Yeah.                                                                         |
| 965 | 0.      |                                                                               |
| 966 | Q:      | So                                                                            |
| 967 |         | C M d                                                                         |
| 968 | A:      | So with that, um                                                              |
| 969 | _       | 77 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1                                        |
| 970 | Q:      | He's the under- uh, the Undersheriff (unintelligible)?                        |
| 971 | Acces - |                                                                               |
| 972 | A:      | The Undersheriff                                                              |
| 973 | 4       |                                                                               |
| 974 | Q:      | Yeah, okay.                                                                   |
| 975 |         |                                                                               |
| 976 | A:      |                                                                               |
| 977 |         |                                                                               |
| 978 |         |                                                                               |
| 979 |         |                                                                               |
| 980 | Q:      | Yeah.                                                                         |
| 981 | _       |                                                                               |
| 982 | A:      |                                                                               |
| 983 |         |                                                                               |
| 984 |         |                                                                               |
| 985 |         |                                                                               |
| 986 |         |                                                                               |
| 987 |         |                                                                               |
| 988 |         |                                                                               |
| 989 | Q:      | Mm-hm.                                                                        |
| 990 |         |                                                                               |
|     |         |                                                                               |

| 991 A: Um 992 993 Q: East Valley County Sherriff's Sergeant? 994                 |                |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------|
| 993 Q: East Valley County Sherriff's Sergeant?                                   |                |
|                                                                                  |                |
|                                                                                  |                |
| 995 A: No, no. (Josh Johnson) is a - a McCall PD officer.                        |                |
| 996                                                                              |                |
| 997 Q: No, (Josh)'s dad I meant.                                                 |                |
| 998                                                                              |                |
| 999 A: Is - no he is a Lieutenant for Idaho County. He lives in Kamiah.          | I don't have a |
| number for him, but                                                              |                |
| 1001                                                                             |                |
| 1002 Q: Okay. That's fine.                                                       |                |
| 1003                                                                             |                |
| 1004 A:                                                                          |                |
| 1005                                                                             |                |
| 1006                                                                             |                |
| 1007                                                                             |                |
| 1008                                                                             |                |
| 1009                                                                             |                |
| 1010                                                                             |                |
| 1011                                                                             |                |
| 1012                                                                             |                |
| 1013                                                                             |                |
| 1014                                                                             |                |
| 1015                                                                             |                |
| 1016                                                                             |                |
| 1017                                                                             |                |
| 1018                                                                             |                |
| 1019                                                                             |                |
| 1020 Q: Mm-hm.                                                                   |                |
| 1021                                                                             |                |
| 1022 A: It's - it's for officers, is what it is. It's - I think it's 1-800-SAFEC | CALL, but      |
| basically what it is is - is officer (unintelligible) stress from the jo         | ob, the        |
| officers can call or their spouses can call and these guys will get              |                |
| 1025 counseling and get 'em, like, into a 30-day program or somethin'            |                |
| Right? So they - they kinda help 'em from losin' their careers and               |                |
| back on track.                                                                   | 139            |
| 1028                                                                             |                |
| 1029 Q: Okay.                                                                    |                |
| 1030                                                                             |                |
| 1031 A:                                                                          |                |
| 1032                                                                             |                |
| 1033                                                                             |                |
| 1034 Q:                                                                          |                |
| 1035                                                                             |                |

| 1036 | A: | No.                                                                                |
|------|----|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1037 |    |                                                                                    |
| 1038 | Q: | Okay.                                                                              |
| 1039 |    |                                                                                    |
| 1040 | A: | s the                                                                              |
| 1041 |    |                                                                                    |
| 1042 | Q: | Oh, oh                                                                             |
| 1043 |    |                                                                                    |
| 1044 | A: |                                                                                    |
| 1045 |    |                                                                                    |
| 1046 | Q: | oh got ya, got ya, got ya, okay.                                                   |
| 1047 |    |                                                                                    |
| 1048 | A: | He had given her that number for - for the Safe Call.                              |
| 1049 |    |                                                                                    |
| 1050 | Q: | Okay, all right.                                                                   |
| 1051 |    |                                                                                    |
| 1052 | A: |                                                                                    |
| 1053 |    |                                                                                    |
| 1054 |    |                                                                                    |
| 1055 |    |                                                                                    |
| 1056 | Q: | Nice.                                                                              |
| 1057 |    |                                                                                    |
| 1058 | A: |                                                                                    |
| 1059 |    |                                                                                    |
| 1060 |    |                                                                                    |
| 1061 |    |                                                                                    |
| 1062 | Q: | Well yeah.                                                                         |
| 1063 |    |                                                                                    |
| 1064 | A: | gal and this gal's                                                                 |
| 1065 |    |                                                                                    |
| 1066 | Q: | (Unintelligible).                                                                  |
| 1067 |    |                                                                                    |
| 1068 | A: | sendin' her right back. You know? So finally we get to Kamiah and - and            |
| 1069 |    | Sam had called me and said, "Hey here's the deal, she wants to go back to          |
| 1070 |    | (Brian)." And I'm like, you know, I'm to the point I'm done. You know, I'm         |
| 1071 |    | just - I'm pissed I - I've had enough of it. And so anyways I call this call, at   |
| 1072 |    | sa- at Safe Call I got, "I don't know what the hell you're fuckin' tellin' this    |
| 1073 |    | gal, but knock it off." You know? I go, "Why are you tellin' her to go back?       |
| 1074 |    |                                                                                    |
| 1075 |    | W- w- why are you tellin' -" "Cause - well that's not                              |
| 1076 |    | what she's tellin' me." So her and I have a conversation on the - on the phone     |
| 1077 |    | about this and she's like, "Oh shit, you're right. You know, this is - this is not |
| 1078 |    | what (Mackenzie) was paintin' a picture of." So I finally get this gal on the -    |
| 1079 |    | on our (unintelligible) and she calls (Mackenzie) back and says - 'cause she's     |
| 1080 |    | tellin' (Mackenzie), "Don't listen to your friends, you need to go back." You      |
|      |    |                                                                                    |

| 10811082    | know, and all that so I'm fin- she finally - I finally lay it on the line with this gal, "Look this is what's goin' on." And she goes, "Okay." So she calls |
|-----------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 10831084    |                                                                                                                                                             |
| 1085            |                                                                                                                                                             |
| 1086            |                                                                                                                                                             |
| 1087            | So we get her finally calmed                                                                                                                                |
| 1088            | down, she's gonna stay up there in Kamiah. Okay? At - so my wife and I                                                                                      |
| 1089            | leave and we're comin' home and we get to Midvale and - and, uh, um, (Sam)                                                                                  |
| 1090            | calls me. He says, "(Mackenzie)'s left and she's headed back." I'm like, "Are                                                                               |
| 1091            | you - are you f- frickin' kidding me? You know?" So anyways he goes, "Well                                                                                  |
| 1092            | she says she's not goin' back to him, but she's got, like, his coat and - and                                                                               |
| 1093            | stuff like that." And during this period of time somewhere along this he has                                                                                |
| 1094            | threatened to kill the dogs and the - they have a herd of yaks.                                                                                             |
| 1095            | TI                                                                                                                                                          |
| 1096 Q:1097 | Hm.                                                                                                                                                         |
| 10971098 A: |                                                                                                                                                             |
| 1098 A.1099 |                                                                                                                                                             |
| 1100            |                                                                                                                                                             |
| 1101            |                                                                                                                                                             |
| 1102            |                                                                                                                                                             |
| 1103            |                                                                                                                                                             |
| 1104            |                                                                                                                                                             |
| 1105            |                                                                                                                                                             |
| 1106            |                                                                                                                                                             |
| 1107            |                                                                                                                                                             |
| 1108            |                                                                                                                                                             |
| 1109            |                                                                                                                                                             |
| 1110            |                                                                                                                                                             |
| 1111            |                                                                                                                                                             |
| 1112 Q:         | Yeah.                                                                                                                                                       |
| 1113            |                                                                                                                                                             |
| 1114 A:         | out of it. Okay?                                                                                                                                            |
| 1115            | I and it                                                                                                                                                    |
| 1116 Q:1117 | I got it.                                                                                                                                                   |
| 11171118 A: | So up until yesterday - up unt- up until yesterday I'm gettin' bits and pieces.                                                                             |
| 1118 A.1119 | Okay? I'm a - I'm gettin' bits and pieces from - from different people. Has the                                                                             |
| 1120            | name (Steve Wood) come up yet, (Brian)'s dad?                                                                                                               |
| 1121            | mand (oters in ode) come up jus, (briain) o dad.                                                                                                            |
| 1122 Q:         | Yeah.                                                                                                                                                       |
| 1123            |                                                                                                                                                             |
| 1124 A:         | I'mma tell ya right now I'm pretty sure he's a sociopath too. I'm pretty sure                                                                               |
| 1125            | Okay? He -                                                                                                                                                  |

| 112611271128112911301131113211331134 |     | this guy's - the whole time is sittin' back, he's arranging things, he's use- he's - he's usin' people where he can and i- i- but yet he - he's - he's twistin' shit. He's - he's not - he's not tellin' everybody the full story and - and blah, blah, blah. But anyways that's a whole other story. So yesterday - so I - like I said, I - I - tryin' to wash my hands - not really wash my hands of it, but I kinda backed out of it until yesterday. Yesterday I get a phone call - crap I left, um, I get a phone call from - tryin' to remember the gal's name. It is (Brian)'s mother's sister who lives in Salem I believe, Salem, Oregon. |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1135                                                                 | Q:  | Okay.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 11361137                                                         | A:  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 1137                                                                 | A.  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 1139                                                                 |     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 1140                                                                 |     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 1141                                                                 |     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 1142                                                                 |     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 1143                                                                 |     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 1144                                                                 | Q:  | Mm-hm.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 1145                                                                 | -   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 1146                                                                 | A:  | There's two sisters, (Jacqueline)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 1147                                                                 |     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 1148                                                                 | Q:  | There's                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| 1149                                                                 |     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 1150                                                                 | A:  | and (Catherine). Her sister (Catherine), their aunt - I can't remember, I had                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 1151                                                                 |     | it wrote down, but it's on the other piece of paper at home. Um, their aunt and                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 1152                                                                 |     | uncle from Salem came over and (Mackenzie)'s father, (Jay) all have some                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 1153                                                                 |     | sort of intervention thing.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 11541155                                                         | 0.  | With (Brian)?                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 1156                                                                 | Q:  | With (Brian)?                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 1157                                                                 | A:  | With (Brian) and (Mackenzie) and - and - down here in Boise.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 1158                                                                 |     | with (Brian) and (Mackenzie) and and down here in Boise.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 1159                                                                 | Q:  | But they're all - so (Brian) and (Mackenzie) were together during this?                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| 1160                                                                 | ζ.  | Law mey to man to (Limin) and (Liminously) were to getter during time.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 1161                                                                 | A:  | I - that - I'm a little fuzzy on that.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 1162                                                                 |     | •                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 1163                                                                 | Q:  | Okay.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 1164                                                                 | 250 | 750 C                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 1165                                                                 | A:  | I - I don't know. At one point in time I - I assume they are, but at one point in                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 1166                                                                 |     | time there's somethin' about - there's somethin' and I can't - and I - I don't                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| 1167                                                                 |     | wanna be quoted about it because I really don't know that.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 1168                                                                 |     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 1169                                                                 | Q:  | That's fine.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 1170                                                                 |     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |

| 11711172117311741175 | A: | Something about them locked in a back room in this hou- in - in the house and - and literally gun in hand because they're so scared. And - when this intervention goin' on in the hou- in the house, but they're in the back bedroom somewhere. I don't know exactly how it all played out. |
|--------------------------------------|----|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 117511761177                 | Q: | That who's in the back room?                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 11781179                         | A: | (Mackenzie), um                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 11801181                         | Q: | And (Catherine)?                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| 11821183                         | A: | Maybe (Catherine) and maybe this aunt.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 11841185                         | Q: | Okay.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 11861187                         | A: | Um                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| 11881189                         | Q: | While they're talkin' to (Brian)? While he's (unintelligible)                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 11901191                         | A: |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 119211931194                 | Q: | And this is somethin' that's happened in the last                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 11951196                         | A: | That's                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 11971198                         | Q: | 48 hours?                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| 11991200                         | A: | Not in the last 48 hours, but I would say in the last three days maybe.                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| 12011202                         | Q: | Okay, okay.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 12031204                         | A: | Okay? 'Cause I think they've been on the road for, like, a day and a half.                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 12051206                         | Q: | Oh.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 1207120812091210         | A: |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 121112111212                 | Q: | Okay.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 1212121312141215         | A: | somewhere in there. So unless - unless maybe day three, day four from here. Um, lemme see if I can message this gal just texted me. So here - here's the number, two, uh, no wait a minute and this is the aunt.                                                                            |

| 1216         |     |                                                                                     |
|--------------|-----|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1217         | Q:  | That's (Brian)'s aunt?                                                              |
| 1218         |     |                                                                                     |
| 1219         | A:  | (Brian)'s aunt, which would be (Brian)'s mother's sister.                           |
| 1220         |     |                                                                                     |
| 1221         | Q:  | From Salem?                                                                         |
| 1222         |     |                                                                                     |
| 1223         | A:  | Yes. Or the Salem area, uh, I - I think it's Salem.                                 |
| 1224         |     |                                                                                     |
| 1225         | Q:  | Okay. Um, she's feedin' me information now because somewhere along the              |
| 1226         |     | lines she - she - I guess (Mackenzie) told (unintelligible) trust me, I don't       |
| 1227         |     | know, but she's been aware of me and (Catherine), who's with her, is feeding        |
| 1228         |     | information to the aunt who's feedin' it back to us.                                |
| 1229         |     |                                                                                     |
| 1230         | Q:  | Okay.                                                                               |
| 1231         | 100 |                                                                                     |
| 1232         | A:  | Now this story's just gonna start gettin' weirder. So anyways this - this aunt      |
| 1233         |     | calls me and - and s- tells me kinda in this a- and she's borderline hysterical,    |
| 1234         |     | upset and scared at this point. She's scared for her sister she's scared for        |
| 1235         |     | (Mackenzie), she's scared for her safety and her husband's safety. Um, and -        |
| 1236         |     | so she rambles and she - i- i- it's kinda hard to put it all in a timeline 'cause   |
| 1237         |     | she's just - she's all over the place. But she tells me about this - kinda this     |
| 1238         |     | intervention they have and somethin' about bein' in a room, but anyways it all      |
| 1239         |     | gets over and done with.                                                            |
| 1240         |     |                                                                                     |
| 12411242 |     |                                                                                     |
| 1242         | Q:  | Okay.                                                                               |
| 1243         | Q.  | Okay.                                                                               |
| 1245         | A:  | And Ca- now (Catherine) is a                                                        |
| 1246         | A.  | And Ca- now (Catherine) is a                                                        |
| 1247         |     | from what I understand. I don't have the details, but so (Catherine)'s talkin' to   |
| 1248         |     | her and - and they're tryin' to, you know, convince her that this is - I mean,      |
| 1249         |     | she's still havin' doubts that this is the right thing to do and - and so on and so |
| 1250         |     | forth. So (Catherine) calls me and her ba- her basic thing that she's wants to      |
| 1251         |     | tell me is that me and my wife and in danger, (Josh) and his family are in          |
| 1252         |     | danger, she's scared for (Kimber) - is in danger, her and her husband,              |
| 1253         |     | (Catherine) and the little daughter (Jacqueline). Um, apparently - and I don't      |
| 1254         |     | know who said it, when it was said, what - apparently (Brian) has made, uh,         |
| 1255         |     | again the comment of, you know, if he gets in trouble or - or they come after       |
| 1256         |     | his guns or - or any of that stuff that - that he's gonna start takin' care of      |
| 1257         |     | people. Then there was a side comment made about - from (Steve) which is            |
| 1258         |     | (Brian)'s dad that if (Brian) didn't get it done, he would get it done or have a    |
| 1259         |     | hired gun. Yeah. So the aunt s- tells me that - that - that (Steve) - is that sh-   |
| 1260         |     | she has - and that,                                                                 |
|              |     |                                                                                     |

| 1261         |        | um                                                                                   |
|--------------|--------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1262         |        |                                                                                      |
| 1263         | Woman: | Go anywhere                                                                          |
| 1264         |        |                                                                                      |
| 1265         | A:     | Steve has a pretty sketchy past. She says he's been to prison I - I don't            |
| 1266         |        | know, I don't know that. Um, I looked on our depository, I don't see anything        |
| 1267         |        | on there. But she swears up and down it is. You might get more information           |
| 1268         |        | outta her about that, but - so after that                                            |
| 1269         |        |                                                                                      |
| 1270         | Q:     | You don't know (Brian)'s aunt's name?                                                |
| 1271         |        |                                                                                      |
| 1272         | A:     | No I don't.                                                                          |
| 1273         |        |                                                                                      |
| 1274         | Q:     | Okay, okay.                                                                          |
| 1275         |        |                                                                                      |
| 1276         | A:     | She did - she didn't even really wanna tell me. She was                              |
| 1277         |        | •                                                                                    |
| 1278         | Q:     | Okay.                                                                                |
| 1279         |        | *   PM • 17                                                                          |
| 1280         | A:     | Lemme look through some of her texts she sent me, she's been sendin' me a            |
| 1281         |        | pile of 'em. So it's, like, the one - so - oh there she is again. Um, so this is the |
| 1282         |        | one she sent me this morning, "The people (Mackenzie) are - the people were          |
| 1283         |        | (Mackenzie) is are very concerned about her safety as well as their own.             |
| 1284         |        | They're, uh, there is a small connection that could lead him there. The man -        |
| 1285         |        | the man a - at - the man asks that he be kept up with (Brian)'s whereabouts so       |
| 1286         |        | that he knows the threat level. Are there any people you can contact who will        |
| 1287         |        | keep you updated on his comings and goings? Anything else I can do here?"            |
| 1288         |        | Um - um, so I mean, i- it's goin' back - I guess I was lookin' for her name.         |
| 1289         |        | Um, it's goin' back and for about, you know, now - now this aunt is - is totally     |
| 1290         |        | scared for her and her husband 'cause now they're involved. Um, this last text       |
| 1291         |        | that just came in at - so I guess (Steve) is - has sent an e-mail - so I guess that  |
| 1292         |        | they - there's a bigger conne- she says,                                             |
| 1293         |        | they there is a digger come she says,                                                |
| 1294         |        | demanding that                                                                       |
| 1295         |        | (Mackenzie) pay him back those $3,000 or somethin' like that. Anyways, um,          |
| 1296         |        | I'm not sure what her name was                                                       |
| 1297         |        | I in not sure what her name was                                                      |
| 1298         | Q:     | That's okay                                                                          |
| 1299         | Q.     | That's okay                                                                          |
| 1300         | A:     |                                                                                      |
| 1300         | Λ.     |                                                                                      |
|              | 0.     | don't vyorry about it                                                                |
| 13021303 | Q:     | don't worry about it.                                                                |
| 1303         | A:     | (Brian) (unintelligible). Um, so after this - she lives                              |
|              | A.     |                                                                                      |
| 1305         |        | in Lane County Oregon.                                                               |

| 1306 | _      |                                                                                   |
|------|--------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1307 | Q:     | It's okay. I, uh                                                                  |
| 1308 |        |                                                                                   |
| 1309 | A:     | Yeah (unintelligible).                                                            |
| 1310 |        |                                                                                   |
| 1311 | Q:     | I have, uh, I have the phone number.                                              |
| 1312 | ***    | *                                                                                 |
| 1313 | A:     | Yeah. She - she probably fill ya in on - on most of it. So questions? I'm at the  |
| 1314 |        | point now - I'm - I'm lookin' to relocate. As a matter of fact when I leave       |
| 1315 |        | here, I'm going to look at another job right now. Um, I know enough about         |
| 1316 |        | (Brian)'s abilities that I'm not gonna take - I'm not takin' any chances with it. |
| 1317 |        | Do I think he'll - when he finds out what - about my report or any law            |
| 1317 |        | enforcement action, absolutely I - I believe he'll do somethin' about it. So,     |
|      |        |                                                                                   |
| 1319 |        | um, that's - that's where I'm headed from here. I was comin' through here         |
| 1320 |        | anyways.                                                                          |
| 1321 | 0      |                                                                                   |
| 1322 | Q:     | Okay. I'm gonna give ya nu- uh, I - this is gonna kill you. Um, I'm gonna give    |
| 1323 |        | you the number to (Kat Fergeson) with Ada County.                                 |
| 1324 |        |                                                                                   |
| 1325 | A:     | Right.                                                                            |
| 1326 |        |                                                                                   |
| 1327 | Q:     | Uh, I'm gonna give her - actually give you her cell phone. So                     |
| 1328 |        |                                                                                   |
| 1329 | A:     | Okay.                                                                             |
| 1330 |        |                                                                                   |
| 1331 | Q:     | (Kat)'s gonna wanna hear this                                                     |
| 1332 |        |                                                                                   |
| 1333 | A:     | Okay.                                                                             |
| 1334 |        |                                                                                   |
| 1335 | Q:     | as well.                                                                          |
| 1336 |        |                                                                                   |
| 1337 | A:     | All right.                                                                        |
| 1338 | (0.00) |                                                                                   |
| 1339 | Q:     | Um, I think for (Kat) it's gonna be more just - let's focus on                    |
| 1340 | Q.     | you know, I don't think you have to get into as much detail                       |
| 1341 |        | about (Brian) being, um, threatening.                                             |
| 1342 |        | about (Brian) being, um, threatening.                                             |
| 1342 | A:     | Mm-hm.                                                                            |
| 1344 | л.     | Willi-IIII.                                                                       |
|      | 0:     | And and and I maan towards like you an towards law anforcement                    |
| 1345 | Q:     | And - and - and I mean, towards, like, you or towards law enforcement             |
| 1346 |        | etcetera, etcetera. Um, as - as much. You know what I mean? Just - just -         |
| 1347 |        | (Kat)'s just gonna wanna hear it from your mouth.                                 |
| 1348 |        |                                                                                   |
| 1349 | A:     | Okay.                                                                             |
| 1350 |        |                                                                                   |

| 13511352 | Q: | 'Cause she's gonna be drivin' that car, she's gonna be the one that is working with                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|--------------|----|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1353         |    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1354         | A: | Valley.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 1355         |    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1356         | Q: | Valley.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 1357         |    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1358         | A: | Okay.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 1359         |    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1360         | Q: | to - with the new information and - and moving the ball forward.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 1361         |    | CONTROL OF |
| 1362         | A: | Okay.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 1363         |    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1364         | Q: | Okay? So her - her number                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| 1365         | ζ. |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1366         | A: | Got a pen?                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 1367         |    | Cot a pen.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 1368         | Q: | Yes. Her cell number is                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 1369         | Q. | res. Her cen number is                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 1370         | A: |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1370         | Λ. |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|              | 0. |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1372         | Q: |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1373         | ۸. |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1374         | A: |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1375         | 0  | V.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| 1376         | Q: | Yup,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| 1377         | A  | 01                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| 1378         | A: | Okay.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 1379         | •  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1380         | Q: | *                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 1381         |    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1382         | A: | Okay.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 1383         |    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1384         | Q: | Call her before you leave the valley.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 1385         |    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1386         | A: | Okay.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 1387         |    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1388         | Q: | Um, she's great. A- a- Kat a- she's good, good people.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 1389         |    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1390         | A: | Okay.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 1391         |    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1392         | Q: | Um, do you have any questions Bob?                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| 1393         |    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1394         | A: | Questions, suggestions, sarcasm, I'll take anything.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| 1395         |    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|              |    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |

| 1396139713981399                                                                                                         | Q:       | No, no, no, you know, I - I - I'm - I'm a little - I'm a little surprised, you know, I - I gotta be honest man I - I'm - I'm sorry that I didn't reach out to you sooner. I didn't think in my wildest dreams that                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 14001401                                                                                                                         | A:       | This would go                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 140214031404                                                                                                                 | Q:       | this was a situation where you actually have relayed this information to (Jeff) and (Brian) - I'm sorry, (Ryan) and, uh, (Jeff).                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 14051406                                                                                                                         | A:       | (Jeff).                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 140714081409                                                                                                                 | Q:       | Um, I'm a little shocked - perplexed by that, but, um, you know, i- it - it sucks that you've kind of been runnin' - runnin', you know, solo                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 14101411                                                                                                                         | Q1:      | Oh you've been                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 14121413                                                                                                                         | Q:       | in this for a little bit.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 14141415                                                                                                                         | Q1:      | busitn' your ass tryin' to help him.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 141614171418                                                                                                                 | Q:       | And, uh, you know, y- I mean, you made the comment that you're lookin' at relocating. Y- you take his threats seriously.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| 14191420                                                                                                                         | A:       | Hell yeah I do.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| 142114221423                                                                                                                 | Q:       | W- why - why do you - I mean, why do you think he's serious about whackin' people as opposed to just talkin' shit?                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 14241425142614271428142914301431143214331434143514361437143814391440 | A:O: | 'Cause I bel- uh, I seriously believe a- and - and after (Josh) and I had a conversation I went and - and started doin' a little - a little reading on sociopath, he fits it to a frickin' T, every frickin' section of it. He fits it to a T. Um, he is, um, w- another comment (Sam) had made too, um, early on in this was - was - early on in this (Sam) had a made a comment to me, we were just talkin' about - (Sam)'s known him clear back since almost high school I think, or maybe it was high school. But he says there's a picture out there of - of Wood back in - in, like, his high school days or right outta high school where he's standin' there in a black trench coat, holdin' two, um - um, assault rifles with a ring of fire around him. And he s- and the comment that - that (Sam) makes is, "All of his friends were shocked when he became a cop because up until then he hated cops." He also made the comment that when he worked for - for - when he - this is the timeframe he made it Sam that when he went to McCall that he made a comment to Sam that, "If anything ever went bad I already have a plan, I can take out the whole department." |
| 1440                                                                                                                                 | Q:       | He said that to Sam?                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |

1441 1442 A: Mm-hm. So knowing him - knowing the (Brian) I knew, um... 1443 1444 O: Well you know - you're - you're - right now you're about to talk about the 1445 (Brian) (Brian) allowed everyone else to see. 1446 1447 A: To kn- to see, exactly. So the - the - the (Brian) I knew in the beginning, you know, he, um, y- you know, I mean, I - I know his training, um, we've 1448 1449 had many conversations - you guys don't know my background, but before I came to work for Adams County I spent, uh, five years, uh, workin' for the 1450 1451 government and I was deployed to the Middle East on a counter, um, a 1452 Counter Terrorism Team. Okay? I spend - I spent 4 1/2 years in the Middle East all over the Middle East on a 10-man team. Okay? I am not - I'm not -1453 I'm not braggin', but I am not one that is easily intimidated by somebody or -1454 1455 or any of that. I - I've literally kicked doors in around the frickin' world. 1456 Okay? I'm takin' (Brian) seriously, I'm not frickin' jokin' and I'm not playin' around with him. And - and I've - I've made it clear to my uppers, um, that -1457 1458 that, you know, I - I'm older than I was before, I've been shot twice, been 1459 blown up six times, I don't move like I used. I'm - I'm tellin' ya, I don't know if I could beat (Brian) in a gun fight, he's young, he's fast. I mean, the guy is 1460 1461 freakin' good. I'm a USPSA, um, shooter - competition shooter. Last year at 1462 Nationals I took 11th and I'm tellin' ya I don't think I can beat him. And that's why - that's why I think it was important that Valley County and - and -1463 and McCall knew about this. This is not a one person thing, this is - this is - if 1464 we get a call to deal with (Brian) in a law enforcement manner, y- we best 1465 take it freakin' seriously. Okay? He's got explosives, he's got guns out the 1466 ass, I mean, e- everywhere from long-range stuff to - to - to - to 1467 1468 (unintelligible) stuff. Okay? I mean, the k- the kid is no joke. I've always 1469 made a joke here in the last four years that he wants to be Jason Bourne. And I 1470 seriously think - his dad laughed his ass off when I said that. He says sir., 1471 "Man I've been sayin' that for years." I mean, the last school he went to was lock picking. This guy can pick a lock like nobody's business. E- he's just - he 1472 1473 - he's one of those guys that if he goes off his rocker, he's gonna be a -1474 somethin' to handle. 1475 1476 Q: Yeah, you don't - you don't hafta convince me. 1477 1478 You know... 1479 1480 O: Uh... 1481 1482 ...a- and that's - and I mean, I'm - I'm answerin' your question that - that am I A: 1483 - am I reclo- tryin' to relocate? Abso-freakin-loutely I am. I mean, I've 1484 already made a call to this other department and I've had - my Sheriff made a call and said, "Yeah he's not jokin', he needs to relocate." My Sheriff has 1485

| 1486148714881489149014911492149314941495149614971498 |                  | absolutely no idea what to do about this. And to be perfectly honest I think he's more worried about gettin' re-elected than what's goin' on in his department and that's my personal opinion. And i- the guy is just over his head. Okay? And - and, you know, y- y- you can talk to my wife, she'll tell ya the same thing. She sat in on the thing, she walked outta there she goes, "Well those two are freakin' useless." You know? And now here, you know, I - I step out and - and try help one of my friend and my whole career is down the drain - down the drain. You know, I mean, I gotta give up bein' a lieutenant and everything I've worked for to go back to bein', you know, a deputy somewhere. And I gotta do it a- and leave my friends and family and - and go start somewhere else and I can't go tell 'em why. You know, I can't go spreadin' it - that I moved to here because now I just gave up my location. And - and my Sheriff literally just, "I don't know what to tell ya." You know? |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 14991500                                                                                         | Q:               | Will you con- will you please keep in contact with me?                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 1501                                                                                                 | ζ.               | wan you can wan you proude most an continue with the                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| 1502                                                                                                 | A:               | Absolutely.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| 1503                                                                                                 |                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 1504                                                                                                 | Q:               | Okay.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 1505                                                                                                 |                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 1506                                                                                                 | A:               | Absolutely, absolutely. I don't mind tellin' you where I'm at                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| 1507                                                                                                 |                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 1508                                                                                                 | Q:               | 'Cause - 'cause                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 1509                                                                                                 | 400              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 1510                                                                                                 | A:               | but you can get a hold of me.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| 1511                                                                                                 | 0                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 1512                                                                                                 | Q:               | the - the - yeah the deal is we're - we're gonna end up - we're gonna end up                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 1513                                                                                                 |                  | at some point needing you. You know, I mean, this is - this is your - your                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 1514                                                                                                 |                  | important to the character of (Brian).                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 1515                                                                                                 | ۸.               | V1-                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 1516                                                                                                 | A:               | Yeah.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 15171518                                                                                         | 0.               | I man this stary is not folling an doof ages haliaya ma Vay dan't hafta                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 1519                                                                                                 | Q:               | I mean, this story is not falling on deaf ears, believe me. You don't hafta convince us man.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 1520                                                                                                 |                  | convince us man.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 1521                                                                                                 | A:               | Yeah.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 1521                                                                                                 | A.               | i can.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 1523                                                                                                 | Q:               | If y- if you're worried that we're not gonna take this                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 1524                                                                                                 | Q.               | if y- if you re worried that we re not going take this                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 1525                                                                                                 | A:               | Well                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| 1526                                                                                                 | 11.              | H CH                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| 1527                                                                                                 | Q:               | or you seriously, you're wrong. I mean                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 1528                                                                                                 | χ.               | jou oemousj, jou se mound.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 1529                                                                                                 | A:               | He- here's                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 1530                                                                                                 | ১ না নীতি |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
|                                                                                                      |                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |

| 1531 | Q:    | we've been - we've been seeing the smoke on the hills since the 1st.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|------|-------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1532 |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1533 | A:    | Yeah.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 1534 |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1535 | Q:    | You know, we know there's fire so                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 1536 |       | STORY WORK STORY OF THE STORY |
| 1537 | A:    | Yeah.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 1538 |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1539 | Q:    | (unintelligible).                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 1540 |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1541 | A:    | We, um, so my wife works for Idaho Power down the canyon and, uh, I went                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 1542 | 2.4.  | and pulled her outta work and I told her a- her boss and - and his boss which is                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 1543 |       | from Boise happened to be in the office and I said, "Here's the deal, um, I've                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 1544 |       | been involved in somethin' in my - in my agency work-wise." And I said,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 1545 |       | "You know, there's been some threats against us." And I said, "(Libby) and I                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 1546 |       | are leavin' for a while, um, you know, there's no threats again Idaho Power."                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 1547 |       | There's no - I mean, if he went down there he - he wouldn't - I - he has no                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| 1548 |       | reason to go off on - on any of them. Um, if he goes down there he'd be                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 1549 |       | strictly lookin' for me. And so anyways I didn't - I didn't tell 'em anything, as                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 1550 |       | far as I'm concerned it's none of their damn business. And - so someone said                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 1551 |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|      |       | somethin' - or her boss said somethin' to somebody, who knows what. But                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 1552 |       | anyways, one of the other guys got it and it c- instead of callin' me he goes to                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 1553 |       | Boise to the Security Department, gets them all wound up and calls my Sheriff                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 1554 |       | and my Sheriff basically told him, "It's - it's none of your business." You                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| 1555 |       | know? But anyways they briefed ASO. He took it upon himself to spread the                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| 1556 |       | rumor with everybody in Idaho Power down there. Well half of 'em live in                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 1557 |       | Cambridge which are half related to people in our county and within a day it's                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 1558 |       | already got back to me from people in our county goin', "Hey what's goin'                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| 1559 |       | on?" You know?                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 1560 | 12121 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1561 | Man:  | Yeah.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 1562 |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1563 | A:    | I'm like, "How in the fuck did you hear?" Well so and so form - got told by so                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 1564 |       | and so from Idaho Power." And so it's to the point where this is already                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 1565 |       | gettin' out that I - that I've gone, you know, n- gone the legal way about                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 1566 |       | this. You know, talked to th- th- to other cops and stuff about it. So a- and,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 1567 |       | you know, I mean, it's a matter of - of minutes before he finds out about it.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 1568 |       | You know? A- and, no                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| 1569 |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1570 | Q:    | Well - well you're                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| 1571 |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1572 | A:    | and - and I'm being serious.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 1573 |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1574 | Q:    | Y- I g- I get that. A- uh, re- um, who did you say in Ada County you talked to                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 1575 |       | again?                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
|      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |

| 1576 |        |                                                                                 |
|------|--------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1577 | A:     | I talked to - (Chip) called him, um, (Cliff Gone) with Ada County.              |
| 1578 |        |                                                                                 |
| 1579 | Woman: | the other day.                                                                  |
| 1580 |        |                                                                                 |
| 1581 | A:     |                                                                                 |
| 1582 |        |                                                                                 |
| 1583 | Woman: | That's cool. Yeah it's kinda cool.                                              |
| 1584 |        |                                                                                 |
| 1585 | Q:     | Mm-hm.                                                                          |
| 1586 |        |                                                                                 |
| 1587 | A:     | And then, uh, And he was the deputy that responded.                             |
| 1588 |        |                                                                                 |
| 1589 | Q:     | Yeah they, um, so they released a officer safety bulletin about (Brian), you're |
| 1590 | 2      | - you're aware of that. Right?                                                  |
| 1591 |        |                                                                                 |
| 1592 | A:     | No I wasn't.                                                                    |
| 1593 |        |                                                                                 |
| 1594 | Q:     | Okay. That - that got released today.                                           |
| 1595 | -      |                                                                                 |
| 1596 | A:     | Okay.                                                                           |
| 1597 |        | *-                                                                              |
| 1598 | Q:     | And it's based off of (unintelligible)                                          |
| 1599 |        |                                                                                 |
| 1600 | Q1:    | A culmination of all of it. It's - it's                                         |
| 1601 |        |                                                                                 |
| 1602 | A:     | All of this?                                                                    |
| 1603 |        |                                                                                 |
| 1604 | Q1:    | Yeah. Uh, Ada County - Ada County kicked it out, um, just so everybody in       |
| 1605 |        | the valley understands                                                          |
| 1606 |        |                                                                                 |
| 1607 | A:     | Yeah.                                                                           |
| 1608 |        |                                                                                 |
| 1609 | Q1:    | this is what we're dealin' with.                                                |
| 1610 |        |                                                                                 |
| 1611 | A:     | Yeah.                                                                           |
| 1612 |        |                                                                                 |
| 1613 | Q1:    | So the word - the word's out, it's probably gonna get back to him fairly        |
| 1614 |        | quickly.                                                                        |
| 1615 |        |                                                                                 |
| 1616 | Q:     | Yeah without question.                                                          |
| 1617 |        |                                                                                 |
| 1618 | Q1:    | But I would much rather he learn about it than some officer comin' up on        |
| 1619 |        | him                                                                             |
| 1620 |        |                                                                                 |
|      |        |                                                                                 |

| 1621 | A:          | Yeah.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|------|-------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1622 | 01.         | Conding and the hand areas                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 1623 | Q1:         | findin' out the hard way.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| 1624 | A 55 | V 1                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 1625 | A:          | Yeah.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 1626 | _           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1627 | Q:          | Right, exactly.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1628 |             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1629 | A:          | Yeah.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 1630 | 22.53       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1631 | Q1:         | So                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| 1632 |             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1633 | A:          | Yup.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| 1634 |             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1635 | Q1:         | I mean, that's our - that's our stance.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 1636 |             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1637 | A:          | Yeah. Um, take this number down. 'Cause if I relocate, I won't have the                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 1638 |             | number you called me on.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 1639 |             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1640 | Q:          | All right.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 1641 |             | 7                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 1642 | A:          | So it's                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 1643 |             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1644 | Q:          | Okay.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 1645 |             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1646 | A:          | That's my - my personal cell.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 1647 |             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1648 | Q:          | All right this is the one I'll keep for you.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 1649 |             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1650 | A:          | So - and - and I'll probably be gettin' rid of this and I'll - I'll send ya a                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 1651 |             | number and let you know what the new one is.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 1652 |             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1653 | Q:          | Okay.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 1654 |             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1655 | A:          | But, uh, yeah it's                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| 1656 |             | AND CHARGE CORE OF THE CHARGE CONTROL |
| 1657 | Q:          | Very well.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 1658 |             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1659 | A:          | i- it's a frickin' mess.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 1660 |             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 1661 | Q:          | Call - please call (Kat).                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| 1662 |             | 1 ————————————————————————————————————                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 1663 | A:          | Okay.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 1664 |             | *                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 1665 | Q:          | Like I said, before ya take off here today. 'Cause                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
|      |             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |

| 1666 |      |                                                                                     |
|------|------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1667 | A:   | Yup.                                                                                |
| 1668 |      |                                                                                     |
| 1669 | Q:   | she's gonna wanna talk to you and even if you guys don't talk today, you            |
| 1670 |      | know, set it up another time where you guys can - can do that. So                   |
| 1671 |      |                                                                                     |
| 1672 | A:   | Okay.                                                                               |
| 1673 |      |                                                                                     |
| 1674 | Q:   | We appreciate you comin' in.                                                        |
| 1675 |      |                                                                                     |
| 1676 | A:   | Yeah no problem.                                                                    |
| 1677 |      |                                                                                     |
| 1678 | Q:   | Appreciate you talkin' to us                                                        |
| 1679 |      |                                                                                     |
| 1680 | A:   | No problem.                                                                         |
| 1681 |      |                                                                                     |
| 1682 | Q:   | About - thank you very much for talkin' to us                                       |
| 1683 |      |                                                                                     |
| 1684 | A:   | (Unintelligible).                                                                   |
| 1685 |      |                                                                                     |
| 1686 | Q:   | and - and again, I really wanna stay in contact because if - if for no other        |
| 1687 |      | reason, you know, just to, uh, just to know that if we become aware of              |
| 1688 |      | something that is important for you'll - you and your safety                        |
| 1689 |      |                                                                                     |
| 1690 | Man: | Soundss good.                                                                       |
| 1691 |      |                                                                                     |
| 1692 | Q:   | I wanna be able to pass that on to you.                                             |
| 1693 |      |                                                                                     |
| 1694 | A:   | And - and I - and I'll - and like I said, with the information, like, with the aunt |
| 1695 |      | is - is comin' with, you know, like, if there's threats or anything I'll let ya     |
| 1696 |      | know.                                                                               |
| 1697 |      |                                                                                     |
| 1698 | Q:   | Okay.                                                                               |
| 1699 |      |                                                                                     |
| 1700 | A:   | But - yeah.                                                                         |
| 1701 |      |                                                                                     |
| 1702 | Q:   | I'll walk ya out.                                                                   |
| 1703 |      |                                                                                     |
| 1704 | A:   | (Unintelligible).                                                                   |
| 1705 |      |                                                                                     |
| 1706 | Man: | I'm sure there'll be a couple transports leavin' (unintelligible).                  |
| 1707 |      |                                                                                     |
| 1708 | Man: | Good?                                                                               |
| 1709 |      |                                                                                     |
| 1710 | Man: | Yeah I can handle that. (Unintelligible).                                           |
|      |      |                                                                                     |

| 1711         |       |                                                      |
|--------------|-------|------------------------------------------------------|
| 1712         | Man:  | (Unintelligible).                                    |
| 1713         |       |                                                      |
| 1714         | Man:  | (Unintelligible).                                    |
| 1715         | Man   | (III-:                                               |
| 17161717 | Man:  | (Unintelligible).                                    |
| 1718         | Man:  | (Unintelligible).                                    |
| 1719         |       | (chimenglose).                                       |
| 1720         | Man:  | Well at least (unintelligible).                      |
| 1721         |       |                                                      |
| 1722         | Man:  | (Unintelligible) from Adams County (unintelligible)? |
| 1723         |       | 1 // 1 - W W W A                                     |
| 1724         | Man:  | Yeah (unintelligible).                               |
| 1725         | Mani  | (Uluintallialla)                                     |
| 17261727 | Man:  | (Unintelligible).                                    |
| 1727         | Man:  | That's one of my best (unintelligible).              |
| 1729         | Man.  | That's one of my best (unintenigible).               |
| 1730         | Man:  | (Unintelligible).                                    |
| 1731         |       |                                                      |
| 1732         | Man:  | So, um, (unintelligible).                            |
| 1733         |       |                                                      |
| 1734         | Man:  | I mean, (unintelligible).                            |
| 1735         |       |                                                      |
| 1736         | Man:  | I'm (unintelligible).                                |
| 17371738 | Man:  | Vanh I'm good                                        |
| 1739         | Man.  | Yeah, I'm good.                                      |
| 1740         | Man:  | All right I (unintelligible).                        |
| 1741         |       | Till Tight I (uninteringleise).                      |
| 1742         | Man:  | All right.                                           |
| 1743         |       |                                                      |
| 1744         | Man:  | Yeah I didn't even (unintelligible).                 |
| 1745         |       |                                                      |
| 1746         | Man:  | I think (unintelligible).                            |
| 1747         | 16    | (TT-'11'- '1-1-)                                     |
| 17481749 | Man:  | (Unintelligible).                                    |
| 1750         | Man:  | (Unintelligible), okay, (unintelligible).            |
| 1751         | Maii. | (Offinite inglote), okay, (uninteringlote).          |
| 1752         | Man:  | (Unintelligible).                                    |
| 1753         |       |                                                      |
| 1754         | Man:  | (Unintelligible).                                    |
| 1755         |       |                                                      |
|              |       |                                                      |

| 1756                 | Man:                  | Yeah pretty much, yup.                                                             |
|----------------------|-----------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 175717581759 | Man:                  | Yeah so we might've (unintelligible) might have to come in there (unintelligible). |
| 176017611762 | Man:                  | Well how are we                                                                    |
| 17631764         | Man:                  | Not (unintelligible).                                                              |
| 17651766         | Man:                  | early to you guys (unintelligible).                                                |
| 17671768         | Man:                  | (Unintelligible).                                                                  |
| 17691770         | Man:                  | Oh yeah (unintelligible).                                                          |
| 17711772         | Man:                  | (Unintelligible).                                                                  |
| 17731774         | Man:                  | (Unintelligible).                                                                  |
| 17751776         |                       | as been reviewed with the audio recording submitted and it is an accurate          |
| 17771778         | transcription. Signed |                                                                                    |

From: Gray, Hetty

Sent: Wednesday, November 4, 2015 6:54 PM

To: Horst, Jason

Subject: msg

Detailed History for Police Event #W15076530 As of 11/04/2015 18:52:26

Output for: 3632

Priority: 4 Type: INFO - Info for Officer

Location: INFO FOR 990

Created: 11/04/2015 18:49:50 IR0302 3632 Entered: 11/04/2015 18:51:53 IR0302 3632

ICUnit: PrimeUnit: Dispo: Type:INFO - Info for Officer RCC:RCCW Group:ME1(n/a) County:(n/a) Area: []Detail

18:49:50 CREATE 3632/IR0302

Location: INFO FOR 990 Type: INFO

Name:LORI EDWARDS Phone:

TypeDesc:Info for Officer

Priority: 4 LocType: 0

Group:None-->ME1 RCC:None-->RCCW

Comment:LIVES IN COUNCIL, HAS THE

18:51:53 ENTRY NAME OF SOMEONE WHO MAY HAVE WITNESSED THE ADAMS COUNTY

INCIDENT

18:51:53-NPREMS Comment: (none)

18:52:12 SELECT 3638/IR0303

18:52:19 HOLD

CONTACT INFO:

| Name         | Phone | RPaddr | RPSIGN | BLKAGE | DRG/ALC | WPNS |
|--------------|-------|--------|--------|--------|---------|------|
| LORI EDWARDS |       |        |        |        |         |      |

Hetty Gray Idaho State Police Sr. RCO-RCCS CONFIDENTIALITY NOTICE: This e-mail is intended only for the personal and confidential use of the individual(s) named as recipients (or the employee or agent responsible to deliver it to the intended recipient) and is covered by the Electronic Communications Privacy Act, 18 U.S.C. §§ 2510-2521. It may contain information that is privileged, confidential and/or protected from disclosure under applicable law including, but not limited to, the attorney client privilege and/or work product doctrine. If you are not the intended recipient of this transmission, please notify the sender immediately by telephone. Do not deliver, distribute or copy this transmission, disclose its contents or take any action in reliance on the information it contains.

| On November 23, 2015, Idaho State Police Detective Gates initiated employment history and training verification on Cody W. Roland.                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| On November 23, 2015, I initiated employment history and training verification on Cody W. Roland. Roland's law enforcement employment history is as follows:                                                                                                                                                         |
| He was employed by the Canyon County Sheriff's Office as a detention deputy from April 12, 2001 to October 3, 2001.                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| He was employed by Wilder Police Department as a reserve patrol officer from March 12, 2001 to December 17, 2003.                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| He was employed by Parma Police Department as a patrol officer from October 4, 2001 to August 26, 2004.                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| He was employed by Gooding Police Department as a patrol officer from August 30, 2004 to August 14, 2005.                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| He was employed by Valley County Sheriff's Office from August 19, 2005 to July 8, 2008, as a patrol officer; from July 8, 2008 to December 2, 2009, as a reserve patrol officer; from December 3, 2009 to January 6, 2011, as a patrol officer; and from January 7, 2011 to January 16, 2012, as a detention deputy. |
| He has been employed by Adams County Sheriff's Office as a patrol deputy since August 21, 2014.                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Roland's law enforcement training is as follows:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| POST Basic Patrol academy completed on June 7, 2002.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |

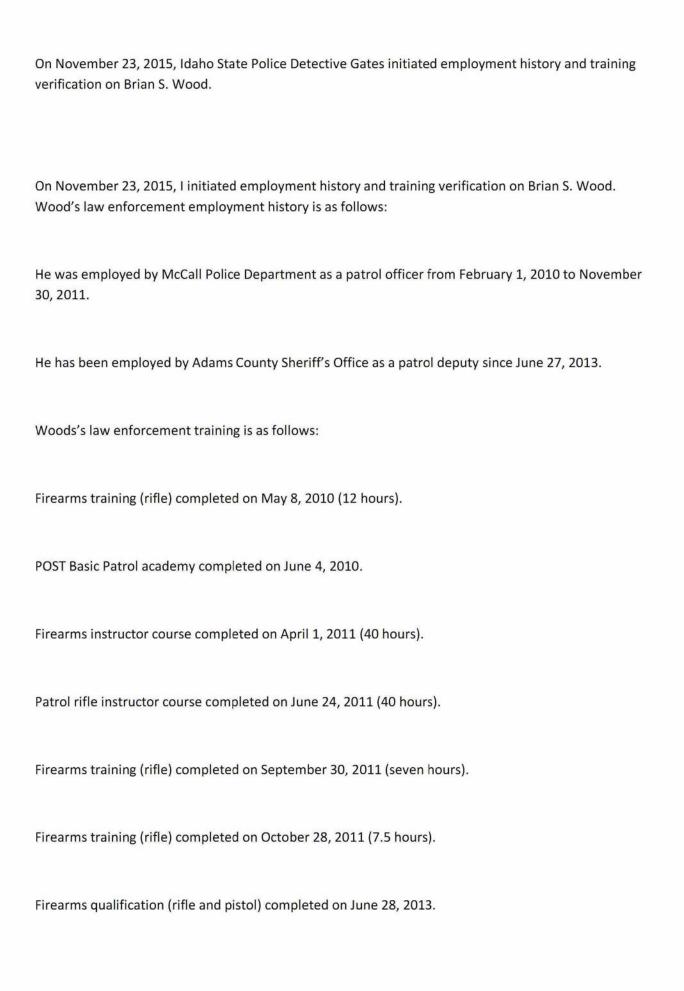

| Firearms qualification completed on September 7, 2004 (two hours).                            |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Tactical team operations/Active shooter training completed on September 17, 2004 (six hours). |
| Firearms training completed on January 7, 2005 (three hours).                                 |
| Arrest techniques training completed on April 10, 2005 (eight hours).                         |
| Crisis Response Team (CRT)/School response training completed on May 17, 2015 (two hours).    |
| CRT/Range target assessment training completed on May 26, 2005 (two hours).                   |
| Weapons of mass destruction training completed on June 11, 2005 (six hours).                  |
| CRT/School response training completed on July 8, 2005 (two hours).                           |
| Tactical team operations/Active shooter training completed on June 12, 2007 (16 hours).       |
| Firearms training completed on August 18, 2007 (five hours).                                  |
| Tactical team operations/Active shooter training complete on November 28, 2007 (eight hours). |
| Tactical team operations/Active shooter training complete on March 26, 2008 (16 hours).       |
|                                                                                               |

Tactical team operations/Active shooter training complete on May 19, 2010 (five hours).

Arrest techniques training completed on May 25, 2010 (four hours).

Tactical team operations/Active shooter training complete on April 22, 2011 (four hours).

| Arrest techniques training completed on July 13, 2014 (four hours).                                                     |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Firearms qualification (rifle and pistol) completed on November 20, 2014.                                               |
| Firearms qualification (rifle) completed on January 21, 2015.                                                           |
| Additional firearms training attended by Wood is as follows:                                                            |
| Entry-level handgun training, provided by Liberty University Police Department, completed on November 14, 2003.         |
| Legal aspects of deadly force training, provided by Ada County Sheriff's Office, completed on January 12, 2005.         |
| Select fire M-16 training course, provided by Front Sight Firearms Training Institute, completed on May 13, 2005.       |
| Defensive handgun training course, provided by Front Sight Firearms Training Institute, completed on May 22, 2006.      |
| Advanced handgun training course, provided by Front Sight Firearms Training Institute, completed on June 12, 2006.      |
| Advanced handgun training course, provided by Front Sight Firearms Training Institute, completed on September 18, 2006. |

Weapons of mass destruction, provided by Front Sight Firearms Training Institute, completed on August 7, 2007.

High angle precision rifle course, provided by Rifles Only Training, completed on May 19, 2011.

Rifle instructor course, provided by National Rifle Association, with unknown completion date.

During Wood's tenure as a law enforcement officer he received the following disciplinary actions:

On November 4, 2011, an Internal Affairs (IA) investigation was initiated against Wood, which was the result of an Idaho Fish and Game violation investigation inquiry. On November 7, 2011, Wood was placed on unpaid administrative leave. Following the IA investigation, Wood was found to have violated the following provisions:

Idaho Code 36-401 - Hunting and killing an Elk without the proper permit/valid license;

Idaho Code 36-502(b) - Possession of unlawfully taken wildlife;

Idaho Code 36-1202(a)(2) – Wasteful destruction of Wildlife;

Idaho Administrative Procedures Act 13.01.08.410.04 – Shooting Elk with a short range weapon;

Idaho Code 36-1401(2)(R) – Failure to leave evidence of sex attached as required on game animals;

Law Enforcement Code of Ethics;

McCall Police Department Police 1053.1 – Conduct unbecoming an employee that brings disrepute upon the employees;

McCall Police Department Police 1053.3 – Failure to maintain level of moral conduct in keeping with standards of law enforcement profession;

City of McCall Personnel Policy V(C)(16) - Engaging in criminal conduct of any kind while on duty or off.

Wood was subsequently convicted of Idaho Code 36-502(B) – possession of unlawfully taken wildlife, and Idaho Code 36-409(C) – No appropriate game tag. Judgment was withheld for both charges, and later dismissed.

On November 30, 2011, Wood's employment with the McCall Police Department was terminated.

On December 5, 2011, the Idaho Peace Officer Standards and Training (POST) Office of Professional Responsibility (OPR) initiated an investigation to determine whether Wood should be decertified as an Idaho peace officer. On December 19, 2012, the POST OPR agreed to a stipulation to dismiss the decertification complaint with prejudice, and the case was closed.

On June 30, 2015, Wood was placed on probation for four months as a result of repeatedly submitting late reports.

Significant incidents are as follows:

On July 6, 2011, Wood was involved in a use of force incident where Rodney Whaley was arrested and charged with resisting and obstructing. On or about August 23, 2011, Whaley filed a tort claim against Wood and the City of McCall.

From: Bacon, Kenia

Sent: Monday, November 2, 2015 6:30 PM

To: Horst, Jason
Cc: Grothaus, Kirk

Subject: Phone message reg. incident in Adams County

Detailed History for Police Event #W15076159 As of 11/02/2015 18:28:32

Output for: 3683

Priority:4 Type:INFO - Info for Officer

Location:WITNESS REF ADAMS COUNTY SHOOTING

Created: 11/02/2015 18:21:28 IR0315 3413 Entered: 11/02/2015 18:24:46 IR0315 3413

ICUnit: PrimeUnit: Dispo: Type:INFO - Info for Officer RCC:RCCW Group:ME1(n/a) County:(n/a) Area: []Detail

18:21:28 CREATE 3413/IR0315

Location: WITNESS REF ADAMS COUNTY SHOOTING

Type: INFO Name: CONRAD EVANOW Phone:

TypeDesc:Info for Officer Priority:4

LocType:0

Group:None-->ME1 RCC:None-->RCCW Comment:RP

STATES HE AND HIS WIFE TAMMY WERE PULLED OVER

AND SAW THIS / WHAT HE SAW IS NOT WHAT IS BEING REPORTED ON SCENE /

18:24:46-NPREMS Comment: (none)

18:28:28 MISC 3683/IR0302 Comment: PER 565, 990 IS THE LEAD INVESTIGATOR

// EMAIL THIS INFORMATION TO HIM

CONTACT INFO:

18:24:46 ENTRY

| Name          | Phone | RPaddr | RPSIGN | BLKAGE | DRG/ALC | WPNS |
|---------------|-------|--------|--------|--------|---------|------|
| CONRAD EVANOW |       |        |        |        |         |      |

SR RCO Kenia Bacon Idaho State Police RCCS

CONFIDENTIALITY NOTICE: This e-mail is intended only for the personal and confidential use of the individual(s) names as recipients (or the employee or agent responsible to deliver it to the intended recipient) and is covered by the Electronic Communications Privacy Act, 18 U.S.C. 2510-2521. It may contain information that is privileged, confidential and/or protected from disclosure under applicable law including, but not limited to, the attorney client privilege and/or work product doctrine. If you are not the intended recipient of this transmission, please notify the sender immediately by telephone. Do not deliver, distribute or copy this transmission, disclose its contents or take any action in reliance on the information it contains.

From: Horst, Jason

Sent: Wednesday, January 13, 2016 10:04 AM

To: 'Draper, Rodney O. (SU) (FBI)' Subject: RE: Lab Exam on section of roadway

I'll pop in before lunch then. I'm scheduled to meet the AG at 10:30am

CONFIDENTIALITY NOTICE: This e-mail is intended only for the personal and confidential use of the individual(s) named as recipients (or the employee or agent responsible to deliver it to the intended recipient) and is covered by the Electronic Communications Privacy Act, 18 U.S.C. §§ 2510-2521. It may contain information that is privileged, confidential and/or protected from disclosure under applicable law including, but not limited to, the attorney client privilege and/or work product doctrine. If you are not the intended recipient of this transmission, please notify the sender immediately by telephone. Do not deliver, distribute or copy this transmission, disclose its contents or take any action in reliance on the information it contains.

From: Draper, Rodney O. (SU) (FBI) [mailto

Sent: Wednesday, January 13, 2016 10:01 AM

To: Horst, Jason

Subject: RE: Lab Exam on section of roadway

Yep. The only thing I've got right now where I have to be away is 1330-1430 ish with US Attorney.

From: Horst, Jason [mailto

Sent: Wednesday, January 13, 2016 9:45 AM

To: Draper, Rodney O. (SU) (FBI)

Subject: RE: Lab Exam on section of roadway

Thanks Rod. Can I bring an update disc to you tomorrow?

CONFIDENTIALITY NOTICE: This e-mail is intended only for the personal and confidential use of the individual(s) named as recipients (or the employee or agent responsible to deliver it to the intended recipient) and is covered by the Electronic Communications Privacy Act, 18 U.S.C. §§ 2510-2521. It may contain information that is privileged, confidential and/or protected from disclosure under applicable law including, but not limited to, the attorney client privilege and/or work product doctrine. If you are not the intended recipient of this transmission, please notify the sender immediately by telephone. Do not deliver, distribute or copy this transmission, disclose its contents or take any action in reliance on the information it contains.

From: Draper, Rodney O. (SU) (FBI) [mailto

Sent: Wednesday, January 13, 2016 9:25 AM

To: Horst, Jason

Subject: Lab Exam on section of roadway

Jason,

On 12/17/2015, I contacted the FBI Lab about sending in evidence for examination. In particular, we discussed the asphalt/roadway that was removed from Highway 93 near Council, ID. I spoke with John Webb, a supervisor at the Firearms and Toolmarks Unit who advised me that it was possible to determine the direction of the round, depending upon several factors. Prior to sending in the very large section of asphalt/roadway, Mr. Webb asked me to send him photographs that included an overhead with scale and an oblique angle.

At the Lab's direction, on 12/17/2015, I emailed the FBI Laboratory four digital photographs of the asphalt/roadway that was removed from the scene near Council, ID. The four photographs I emailed were: MG 0029.JPG, MG 0030.JPG, MG_0031.JPG and MG_0036.JPG. I subsequently spoke to Mr. Webb about the photographs I sent to him and the possibility of examining the section of road to determine the travel of the round that struck it. Mr. Webb advised that they would not be able to determine the direction of travel.

This morning (01/13/2016) on our internal e-mail I received the following summary from Mr. Webb which I'm sharing with you for your documentation:

Because the Lab never examined the actual evidence, we cannot issue an official report. For documentation purposes, this email must suffice.

Extrapolating a trajectory requires two points in space, or in simple jargon, two bullet holes. A single impact can be used if there is another point of reference. Occasionally an impact bears enough information for general directionality to be discerned. The images sent exhibited an elongated defect in the asphalt that did not appear to be defined well enough to accurately determine directionality. Compounding the issue is the heterogeneous nature of the material, and the influence of possible intervening objects such as a body. Considering all of these factors, accurate determination of the origin of the bullet that created the defect would not be possible. We would have processed the asphalt the same way it was already done, testing for lead and copper to determine if residues consistent with a bullet impact are present.

If you have any questions please let me know.

Respectfully,

Rod Draper FBI – Boise Resident Agency From: Draper, Rodney O. (SU) (FBI)

Sent: Wednesday, January 13, 2016 10:01 AM

To: Horst, Jason

Subject: RE: Lab Exam on section of roadway

Yep. The only thing I've got right now where I have to be away is 1330-1430 ish with US Attorney.

From: Horst, Jason [mailto]

Sent: Wednesday, January 13, 2016 9:45 AM

To: Draper, Rodney O. (SU) (FBI)

Subject: RE: Lab Exam on section of roadway

Thanks Rod. Can I bring an update disc to you tomorrow?

CONFIDENTIALITY NOTICE: This e-mail is intended only for the personal and confidential use of the individual(s) named as recipients (or the employee or agent responsible to deliver it to the intended recipient) and is covered by the Electronic Communications Privacy Act, 18 U.S.C. §§ 2510-2521. It may contain information that is privileged, confidential and/or protected from disclosure under applicable law including, but not limited to, the attorney client privilege and/or work product doctrine. If you are not the intended recipient of this transmission, please notify the sender immediately by telephone. Do not deliver, distribute or copy this transmission, disclose its contents or take any action in reliance on the information it contains.

From: Draper, Rodney O. (SU) (FBI) [mailto:

Sent: Wednesday, January 13, 2016 9:25 AM

To: Horst, Jason

Subject: Lab Exam on section of roadway

Jason,

On 12/17/2015, I contacted the FBI Lab about sending in evidence for examination. In particular, we discussed the asphalt/roadway that was removed from Highway 93 near Council, ID. I spoke with John Webb, a supervisor at the Firearms and Toolmarks Unit who advised me that it was possible to determine the direction of the round, depending upon several factors. Prior to sending in the very large section of asphalt/roadway, Mr. Webb asked me to send him photographs that included an overhead with scale and an oblique angle.

At the Lab's direction, on 12/17/2015, I emailed the FBI Laboratory four digital photographs of the asphalt/roadway that was removed from the scene near Council, ID. The four photographs I emailed were: MG_0029.JPG, MG_0030.JPG, MG_0031.JPG and MG_0036.JPG. I subsequently spoke to Mr. Webb about the photographs I sent to him and the possibility of examining the section of road to determine the travel of the round that struck it. Mr. Webb advised that they would not be able to determine the direction of travel.

This morning (01/13/2016) on our internal e-mail I received the following summary from Mr. Webb which I'm sharing with you for your documentation:

Because the Lab never examined the actual evidence, we cannot issue an official report. For documentation purposes, this email must suffice.

Extrapolating a trajectory requires two points in space, or in simple jargon, two bullet holes. A single impact can be used if there is another point of reference. Occasionally an impact bears enough information for general directionality to be discerned. The images sent exhibited an elongated defect in the asphalt that did not appear to be defined well enough to accurately determine directionality. Compounding the issue is the heterogeneous nature of the material, and the influence of possible intervening objects such as a body. Considering all of these factors, accurate determination of the origin of the bullet that created the defect would not be possible. We would have processed the asphalt the same way it was already done, testing for lead and copper to determine if residues consistent with a bullet impact are present.

If you have any questions please let me know.

Respectfully,

Rod Draper FBI – Boise Resident Agency From: Horst, Jason

Sent: Monday, January 4, 2016 12:28 PM

To: Hendershot, Danielle

Subject: RE: M15-140 Evidence Status

As always thanks for the help and keeping me on track

CONFIDENTIALITY NOTICE: This e-mail is intended only for the personal and confidential use of the individual(s) named as recipients (or the employee or agent responsible to deliver it to the intended recipient) and is covered by the Electronic Communications Privacy Act, 18 U.S.C. §§ 2510-2521. It may contain information that is privileged, confidential and/or protected from disclosure under applicable law including, but not limited to, the attorney client privilege and/or work product doctrine. If you are not the intended recipient of this transmission, please notify the sender immediately by telephone. Do not deliver, distribute or copy this transmission, disclose its contents or take any action in reliance on the information it contains.

From: Hendershot, Danielle

Sent: Monday, January 04, 2016 10:07 AM

To: Horst, Jason

Subject: FW: M15-140 Evidence Status

From: Hendershot, Danielle

Sent: Thursday, November 12, 2015 1:38 PM

To: Horst, Jason

Subject: M15-140 Evidence Status

Items that have been sent to a lab, and what lab:

150002830-3 Ruger M77 .204 Rifle- ATF trace has also been started. (currently delayed by ATF)

Photos of ASP- FBI picked up from Angelie (confirmed) tool mark testing

150002847-1 Cody Roland's ASP- FBI

150002830-9 Small deformed projectile (204 round)- measure and weight to confirm 204 or 223, FBI

150002761-20 Cody Roland's Duty Belt-FBI

150002830-5 (2) Unfired Hornady .204 cal rounds-FBI

150002902-1 bullet from wound- FBI

150002849-4 Axon bodycam SN:X78021462- Taser (manufacturer) estimated 8

weeks until return

150002974-1 (1) swab from 150002830-9- Meridian lab for DNA testing

150002806-17 Jack Yantis's Blood-Meridian lab for DNA testing

Evidence we are waiting on:

150002902-2 metal fragments from wound- from bull, unknown possible testing 150002902-3 nasal contents and possible bullet fragments- from bull, unknown possible testing

Round ejection testing/recording- To be done by District 3 Investigators 150002806-4, 5, 6, 7 Yantis' clothing from his upper body- (ballistics) RJ Lee Group 150002761-25, 26 Roland's Uniform- RJ Lee Group 150002761-1, 16 and 150002830-3- Ballistic testing for clothing, possible trajectory on Rifle- RJ Lee group

This is where we stand right now. Let me know if you have any thoughts on this or want anything changed.

Testing that is finished:

150002830-3 Ruger M77- function and trigger weight testing

150002761-1 Lewis Machine & Tool Defender Rifle- function testing

150002761-16 Roland's Glock Model 30- function testing

150002882-1 pavement from state highway- test for lead/copper? To verify bullet ricochet

150002761-25 Roland's Uniform Shirt- RJ Lee Group lab GSR testing

150002761-26 Roland's Uniform Pants- RJ Lee Group lab GSR testing

150002806-16 GSR Kit- RJ Lee Group lab GSR testing

150002761-5 Blood kit from Brian Wood - Meridian lab Alcohol testing

150002761-24 Cody Roland's Blood Kit- Meridian lab Alcohol testing

150002761-4 Urine kit from Brian Wood- CDA lab Toxicology testing

150002761-23 Cody Roland's Urine Kit- CDA lab Toxicology testing

150002830-9 Small deformed projectile (204 round)- Meridian lab for BIO testing

From: DeBie, Troy

Sent: Wednesday, November 18, 2015 1:12 PM

To: Hendershot, Danielle

Cc: Horst, Jason

Subject: RE: M15-140 Evidence Status

From the necropsy we have things that may need to be analyzed:

150002902-1 bullet from wound

150002902-2 metal fragments from wound

150002902-4 nasal contents and possible bullet fragments

From: Horst, Jason

Sent: Thursday, November 12, 2015 6:57 PM

To: Hendershot, Danielle; Walker, Sean; DeBie, Troy

Subject: RE: M15-140 Evidence Status

Guys please get with Danielle on the Bovine stuff for info to add to this list Also in the future please make sure you make her aware of evidence actions to add to this list

Thanks for all the hard work

CONFIDENTIALITY NOTICE: This e-mail is intended only for the personal and confidential use of the individual(s) named as recipients (or the employee or agent responsible to deliver it to the intended recipient) and is covered by the Electronic Communications Privacy Act, 18 U.S.C. §§ 2510-2521. It may contain information that is privileged, confidential and/or protected from disclosure under applicable law including, but not limited to, the attorney client privilege and/or work product doctrine. If you are not the intended recipient of this transmission, please notify the sender immediately by telephone. Do not deliver, distribute or copy this transmission, disclose its contents or take any action in reliance on the information it contains.

From: Hendershot, Danielle

Sent: Thursday, November 12, 2015 1:38 PM

To: Horst, Jason

Subject: M15-140 Evidence Status

Items that have been sent to a lab, and what lab:

150002761-4 Urine kit from Brian Wood- CDA lab Toxicology testing

150002761-5 Blood kit from Brian Wood - Meridian lab Alcohol testing

150002761-23 Cody Roland's Urine Kit- CDA lab Toxicology testing

150002761-24 Cody Roland's Blood Kit- Meridian lab Alcohol testing

150002761-25 Roland's Uniform Shirt- RJ Lee Group lab GSR testing

150002761-26 Roland's Uniform Pants- RJ Lee Group lab GSR testing

150002806-16 GSR Kit- RJ Lee Group lab GSR testing

150002830-9 Small deformed projectile (204 round)- Meridian lab for BIO testing

Photos of ASP- FBI picked up from Angelie (confirmed) tool mark testing 150002830-3 Ruger M77 .204 Rifle- Meridian lab (pending call to scientist) for Fingerprinting- ATF trace has also been started.

Evidence we are waiting on:

150002847-1 Cody Roland's ASP- lead or copper testing
150002830-3 Ruger M77- function and trigger weight testing
150002761-1 Lewis Machine & Tool Defender Rifle- function testing
150002761-16 Roland's Glock Model 30- function testing
150002830-9 Small deformed projectile (204 round)- measure and weight to confirm 204 or 223

This is where we stand right now. Let me know if you have any thoughts on this or want anything changed.

March 7, 2016

Det. Jason Horst Idaho State Police 700 S. Stratford Drive Meridian, ID 83642

RE: Final Report (CFH1039003-1_F1)

Distance Determination Analysis

Case Number: M15000140

Victim: YANTIS, Jack Subject: ROLAND, Cody

RJ Lee Group Work Order Number: CFH1039003-1

INTRODUCTION

Six items of clothing, three firearms and four boxes of ammunition were received at RJ Lee Group from the Idaho State Police on January 14, 2016, for distance determination analysis by modified Griess and sodium rhodizonate testing. Additional evidentiary items: "Broken Front Stock and "3 CDs with Photographs" were received at RJ Lee Group from the Idaho State Police on January 21, 2016 for further analysis. The samples were identified as follows:

| Client Sample ID                            | Date Received | RJLG Sample Number |
|---------------------------------------------|---------------|--------------------|
| Roland Uniform Shirt                        | 01-14-16      | 10349323           |
| Roland Uniform Pants                        | 01-14-16      | 10349324           |
| 2761-1 Lewis Machine & Tool Defender Rifle  | 01-14-16      | 10356162           |
| 2761-16 Glock Model 30 Handgun              | 01-14-16      | 10356163           |
| Yantis 2806-4 Down Vest                     | 01-14-16      | 10356166           |
| Yantis 2806-5 Down Jacket                   | 01-14-16      | 10356167           |
| Yantis 2806-6 White Long-John Shirt         | 01-14-16      | 10356168           |
| Yantis 2806-7 Blue Shirt                    | 01-14-16      | 10356169           |
| 2830-3 Ruger M77 .204 Cal                   | 01-14-16      | 10356170           |
| Box of Winchester .45 Ammunition            | 01-14-16      | 10356171           |
| Box of Hornady 204 Ruger Ammunition (32gr)  | 01-14-16      | 10356172           |
| Box of Hornady 204 Ruger Ammunition (40 gr) | 01-14-16      | 10356173           |
| Box of Speer Gold Dot 223 Ammunition        | 01-14-16      | 10356174           |
| Broken Front Stock                          | 01-21-16      | 10356544           |
| 3 CDs with Photographs                      | 01-21-16      | 10356545           |

WWW.RJLG.COM

MACROSCOPIC & MICROSCOPIC ANALYSIS

Roland Uniform Shirt (RJLG Sample Number 10349323)

Roland Uniform Shirt (RJLG Sample Number 10349323) was examined for the presence of holes. No holes were observed. An area of discoloration, ~21.0 cm from the bottom of the shirt and ~24.0 cm triangulated from the right underarm/torso seam was observed.

The front and rear of the shirt were screened using the Spex Crimescope CS16-500 between 455, 475, "CSS", 495, and 515 nm using orange and red barrier glasses. Several items fluoresced but they were not organized and had misshapen, fiber-like appearances.

The shirt was also examined microscopically. Fine, fractured, gray-like particles were observed at the approximate center of shirt to right of the midline. The particles were observed at ~30.0 cm from the bottom of the shirt and ~27.0 cm triangulated from the right underarm/torso seam.

Roland Uniform Pants (RJLG Sample Number 10349324)

Roland Uniform Pants (RJLG Sample Number 10349324) were examined for the presence of holes. No holes were observed.

The front and rear of the pants were screened using the Spex Crimescope CS16-500 between 455, 475, "CSS", 495, and 515 nm using orange and red barrier glasses. Several items fluoresced but they were not organized and had misshapen, fiber-like appearances.

The pants were also examined microscopically. In the area where the pinpoint fluorescent particles were found, numerous, small white-clear particles were observed without having any real shape. Some were apparently flat but microscopically did not appear consistent with gun powder.

2761-1 Lewis Machine & Tool Defender Rifle (RJLG Sample Number 10356162)

This item is a "Lewis Machine & Tool Company" firearm, 5.56mm Nato caliber, model: Defender 2000 rifle. The serial number is LMT35830 and it has multiple accessories. A zip-tie was observed through the ejection port and magazine well. The rifle is capable of discharging 223 Remington caliber cartridges.

2761-16 Glock Model 30 Handgun (RJLG Sample Number 10356163)

This item is a 45 Auto caliber Glock model 30 firearm. The serial number is DKY931US. No magazine present. Zip-ties were observed through the ejection port and magazine well.

Yantis 2806-4 Down Vest (RJLG Sample Number 10356166)

Yantis 2806-4 Down Vest (RJLG Sample Number 10356166) was examined for the presence of holes. Several apparent bullet holes were observed on the vest. One particular hole observed on the right side of the vest is in the approximate area of HOLE M and HOLE N on "Yantis 2806-5 Down Jacket (RJLG Sample Number 10356167) which is discussed below. An additional hole on the lower left panel of the vest was in the approximate area of HOLE R on "Yantis 2806-5 Down Jacket". There were multiple areas of grey/black discoloration and pinpoint holes near this hole which appear to be consistent with a fragmented bullet.

Yantis 2806-5 Down Jacket (RJLG Sample Number 10356167)

Yantis 2806-5 Down Jacket (RJLG Sample Number 10356167) was examined for the presence of holes. There were multiple areas of fabric separation observed on the jacket. These areas were visually consistent with the passage of bullets:

- Twelve (12) areas on the front right sleeve as worn.
- Four (4) areas on the front right panel as worn.
- Two (2) areas on the front left panel as worn.
- One (1) area on the front left sleeve as worn.
- Four (4) areas on the back right sleeve as worn.
- Two (2) areas on the back left sleeve as worn.

The holes were arbitrarily labeled A through Y. Approximate locations of Holes A-Y are as follows:

- HOLE A: ~2.5cm above right sleeve cuff (front) and ~13.5cm above right underarm seam (front). Length ~3.5cm and width ~2.3cm.
- HOLE B: ~1.4cm above right sleeve cuff (front) and ~11.0cm above right underarm seam (front). Length ~1.4cm and width ~0.8cm.
- HOLE C: Exactly on the right sleeve cuff (front) and ~9.5cm above right underarm seam (front). Length ~1.6cm and width ~0.6cm.
- HOLE D: ~5.1cm above right sleeve cuff (front) and ~1.5cm above right underarm seam (front)._Length ~2.3cm and width ~0.9cm.
- HOLE E: ~13.0cm to the center from above right sleeve cuff (front) and ~4.5cm above right underarm seam (front). Length ~7.9cm and width ~0.8cm.
- HOLE F: ~26.3cm above right sleeve cuff (front) and ~16.5cm above right underarm seam (front). Length ~1.0cm and width ~0.3cm.
- HOLE G: ~27.7cm above right sleeve cuff (front) and ~18.0cm above right underarm seam (front). Length ~0.5cm and width ~0.3cm.
- HOLE H: ~29.0cm above right sleeve cuff (front) and ~3.6cm above right underarm seam (front). Length ~4.2cm and width ~2.1cm.
- HOLE I: ~33.3cm above right sleeve cuff (front) and ~20.8cm above right underarm seam (front). Length ~0.3cm and width ~0.3cm.

- HOLE J: ~37.7cm above right sleeve cuff (front) and ~21.5cm above right underarm seam (front). Length ~0.4cm and width ~0.3cm.
- HOLE K: ~43.1cm above right sleeve cuff (front) and ~21.2cm above right underarm seam (front). Length ~1.0cm and width ~1.0cm.
- HOLE L: ~51.3cm above right sleeve cuff (front) and ~20.8cm above right underarm seam (front). Length ~3.9cm and width ~0.6cm.
- HOLE M: ~58.0cm from bottom (front) and ~20.7cm from button edge of right panel (front). Length ~2.1cm and width ~0.3cm.
- HOLE N: ~63.0cm from bottom (front) and right on button edge of right panel (front).
   Length ~2.0cm and width ~0.6cm.
- HOLE O: ~47.5cm from bottom (front) and ~12.3cm from button edge of right panel (front). Length ~1.4cm and width ~0.2cm.
- HOLE P: ~38.2cm from bottom (front) and ~20.0cm from button edge of right panel (front). Length ~1.4cm and width ~0.8cm.
- HOLE Q: ~46.0cm from bottom (front) and ~22.2cm from button edge of left panel (front). Length ~2.1cm and width ~1.1cm.
- HOLE R: ~23.4cm from bottom (front) and ~8.6cm from button edge of left panel (front). Length ~2.3cm and width ~1.8cm.
- HOLE S: ~27.2cm above left sleeve cuff (front) and ~14.1cm above left underarm seam (front). Length ~1.4cm and width ~0.9cm.
- HOLE T: ~24.9cm above right sleeve cuff (back) and on left underarm seam (back).
   Length ~4.0cm and width ~2.0cm.
- HOLE U: ~42.7cm above right sleeve cuff (back) and ~21.1cm above right underarm seam (back). Length ~1.1cm and width ~0.4cm.
- HOLE V: ~46.4cm above right sleeve cuff (back) and ~16.5cm above right underarm seam (back). Length ~0.6cm and width ~0.3cm.
- HOLE W: ~54.3cm above right sleeve cuff (back) and ~16.5cm above right underarm seam (back). Length ~1.8cm and width ~0.5cm.
- HOLE X: ~29.0cm above left sleeve cuff (back) and ~19.5cm above left underarm seam (back). Length ~4.0cm and width ~1.6cm.
- HOLE Y: ~54.4cm above left sleeve cuff (back) and ~18.8cm above left underarm seam (back). Length ~1.2cm and width ~0.2cm.

The jacket was screened using the Spex Crime Scope CS16-500 between 455, 475, "CSS", 495, and 515nm using orange barrier goggles. No concentrated areas of fluorescent material were observed around any holes on the back of the item. An area of sporadic, sparsely concentrated pinpoint-like fluorescence around the approximate area of HOLE H was observed. Another area of pinpoint-like fluorescence in the area of HOLE R was also observed. The fluorescent material is sparsely concentrated and not well organized.

The jacket was also examined microscopically. In the area of HOLE H, one (1) apparent metallic gray, flattened ball particle was observed slightly to the right of the hole. Above and to the left of HOLE H, a cluster of approximately five (5) off-white to metallic gray particles were observed. In the area of HOLE E, above the hole, approximately six (6) off-white to metallic gray particles were observed. One (1) off-white to metallic gray particle was observed to the left of HOLE L. One (1) copper fragment was observed in the upper right chest area near HOLE M. The fragment was removed and preserved. One (1) off-white to metallic gray particle was observed below and to the left of HOLE P. Approximately four (4) off-white to metallic gray particles were observed in area of HOLE R: three (3) above the hole and one (1) below it.

Yantis 2806-6 White Long-John Shirt (RJLG Sample Number 10356168)

Yantis 2806-6 White Long-John Shirt (RJLG Sample Number 10356168) was examined for the presence of holes. There were holes on the chest area of the shirt that appear to be consistent with those on "Yantis 2806-5 Down Jacket" (RJLG Sample Number 10356167) and "Yantis 2806-4 Down Vest (RJLG Sample Number 10356166). This item was not chemically processed.

Yantis 2806-7 Blue Shirt (RJLG Sample Number 10356169)

Yantis 2806-7 Blue Shirt (RJLG Sample Number 10356169) was examined for the presence of holes. There were multiple holes on the shirt:

- Six (6) holes on the right sleeve and armpit area.
- Five (5) holes on the right front panel.
- Five (5) holes on the left front panel.
- Two (2) holes on the front and back of the left sleeve.

All of these holes were relatively consistent with holes on "Yantis 2806-5 Down Jacket" (RJLG Sample Number 10356167).

Two (2) additional torn holes in relatively close proximity were observed on the right front panel of the shirt. Their relative location is consistent with HOLE N on the jacket. There is a greyish discoloration around the holes. The holes together measure ~67.0 cm up from the bottom of the shirt and ~4.5 cm to the right of the right panel button edge and are ~3.0 cm long and 2.3 cm wide.

The shirt was also examined microscopically. There was no particulate or observations of note.

2830-3 Ruger M77 .204 Cal (RJLG Sample Number 10356170)

This item is a 204 Ruger caliber Ruger, model: M77 Mark II rifle. The serial number is 790-97365. Zip-ties were observed holding the firearm in place and holding the bolt action back. Biological staining was observed on the butt of the stock. Apparent damage was observed to the scope of the rifle and the forend was partially missing. An apparent ricochet mark was observed on the front upper right side of the scope. The major and minor axes of the ricochet mark were measured and determined to be approximately 4.0cm and 0.7cm, respectively. The incident angle of the ricochet mark was calculated using the measured major and minor axes. The incident angle of the ricochet mark on the front right of the scope is approximately 10 degrees. The origin of the projectile that made the mark is from a position that is forward and to the right of the scope. A shoulder strap and ammunition sleeve were also received with the Ruger.

Broken Front Stock (RJLG Sample Number 10356544)

Broken Front Stock (RJLG Sample Number 10356544) was used to piece together the Ruger M77 rifle's stock and forend. A channel was observed that goes through the forend and is consistent with a projectile path. Damage to the forend makes determining directionality difficult with any degree of certainty.

SAMPLE PREP & ANALYSIS

2761-16 Glock Model 30 Handgun (RJLG Sample Number 10356163) and Box of Winchester .45 Ammunition (RJLG Sample Number10356171)

Thirteen (13) cartridges from "Box of Winchester .45 Ammunition" (RJLG Sample Number 10356171) were used to test fire the "2761-16 Glock Model 30 Handgun" (RJLG Sample Number 10356163). Nine (9) of the cartridges (referred to as Cartridge 1 through Cartridge 9) were used on 01-24-2016 for test firing at distances of contact, 6", 12", 18", 24", 36", 48", 60" and 72" respectively. Four (4) additional cartridges (referred to as Cartridges 10-13) were used for a second test fire on 02-10-2016 in which the Glock was discharged four times in succession. The hands of the shooter were then wiped on cloth fabric pieces. All samples resulting from these test fires were identified as follows:

| Client Sample ID                       | Date Created | RJLG Sample Number |
|----------------------------------------|--------------|--------------------|
| Cartridge 1 – Contact Target           | 01-24-16     | 10356171A          |
| Cartridge 2 – 6" Target                | 01-24-16     | 10356171B          |
| Cartridge 3 – 12" Target               | 01-24-16     | 10356171C          |
| Cartridge 4 – 18" Target               | 01-24-16     | 10356171D          |
| Cartridge 5 – 24" Target               | 01-24-16     | 10356171E          |
| Cartridge 6 – 36" Target               | 01-24-16     | 10356171F          |
| Cartridge 7 – 48" Target               | 01-24-16     | 10356171G          |
| Cartridge 8 – 60" Target               | 01-24-16     | 10356171H          |
| Cartridge 9 – 72" Target               | 01-24-16     | 103561711          |
| Cartridge 10–13 Right Hand Swipe Cloth | 02-10-16     | 10356171J          |
| Cartridge 10-13 Left Hand Swipe Cloth  | 02-10-16     | 10356171K          |

2830-3 Ruger M77 .204 Cal (RJLG Sample Number 10356170) and Hornady 204 Ruger Ammunition (32gr) (RJLG Sample Number 10356172)

Seventeen (17) cartridges from the "Box of Hornady 204 Ruger Ammunition (32gr)" (RJLG Sample Number 10356172) were used to test fire the "2830-3 Ruger M77 .204 Cal" (RJLG Sample Number 10356170). Ten (10) of the cartridges (referred to as Cartridge 1 through Cartridge 10) were used on 01-24-2016 for test firing at distances of contact, 6", 12", 18", 24", 36", 48", 60", 72" and 60" respectively. (An additional shot was taken at 60" as the first 60" shot was off-center).

Seven (7) additional cartridges (referred to as Cartridge 11 through Cartridge 17) were used for a second set of test fires on 02-10-2016 using the Ruger rifle. The difference between this set and the test fires conducted on 01-24-16 was that the targets were situated parallel to the bore of the Ruger rife.

The first four (4) cartridges (referred to as Cartridge 11 through Cartridge 14) were discharged with the cloth targets placed at distances of near contact, 1", 3", and 6" from the side of the barrel, respectively. The remaining three (3) cartridges (referred to as Cartridge 15 through Cartridge 17) were discharged with the cloth targets placed five (5) feet ahead of the muzzle and at distances of near contact, ~3", and ~6" from the trajectory of the fired bullet, respectively.

All samples resulting from these test fires were identified as follows:

| Client Sample ID                                                 | DateCreated | RJLG SampleNumber |
|------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------|-----------------------|
| Cartridge 1 – Contact Target                                     | 01-24-16        | 10356172A             |
| Cartridge 2 – 6" Target                                          | 01-24-16        | 10356172B             |
| Cartridge 3 – 12" Target                                         | 01-24-16        | 10356172C             |
| Cartridge 4 – 18" Target                                         | 01-24-16        | 10356172D             |
| Cartridge 5 – 24" Target                                         | 01-24-16        | 10356172E             |
| Cartridge 6 – 36" Target                                         | 01-24-16        | 10356172F             |
| Cartridge 7 – 48" Target                                         | 01-24-16        | 10356172G             |
| Cartridge 8 – 60" Target                                         | 01-24-16        | 10356172H             |
| Cartridge 9 – 72" Target                                         | 01-24-16        | 103561721             |
| Cartridge 10 – 60" Target B                                      | 01-24-16        | 10356172J             |
| Cartridge 11 – Near Contact Side Target (Muzzle by Target)       | 02-10-16        | 10356172K             |
| Cartridge 12 – 1" Side Target (Muzzle by Target)                 | 02-10-16        | 10356172L             |
| Cartridge 13 – 3" Side Target (Muzzle by Target)                 | 02-10-16        | 10356172M             |
| Cartridge 14 – 6" Side Target (Muzzle by Target)                 | 02-10-16        | 10356172N             |
| Cartridge 15 – Near Contact Side Target (Muzzle 5ft from Target) | 02-10-16        | 103561720             |
| Cartridge 16 - ~3" Side Target (Muzzle 5ft from Target)          | 02-10-16        | 10356172P             |
| Cartridge 17 - ~6" Side Target (Muzzle 5ft from Target)          | 02-10-16        | 10356172Q             |

2761-1 Lewis Machine & Tool Defender Rifle (RJLG Sample Number 10356162) and Speer Gold Dot 223 Ammunition (RJLG Sample Number 10356174)

Nine (9) cartridges from the "Box of Speer Gold Dot 223 Ammunition" (RJLG Sample Number 10356174) were used to test fire the "2761-1 Lewis Machine & Tool Defender Rifle" (RJLG Sample Number 10356162). The cartridges (referred to as Cartridge 1 through Cartridge 9) were used on 01-24-2016 for test firing at distances of contact, 6", 12", 18", 24", 36", 48", 60" and 72" respectively. All samples resulting from these test fires were identified as follows:

| Client Sample ID             | Date Created | RJLG SampleNumber |
|------------------------------|--------------|-----------------------|
| Cartridge 1 – Contact Target | 01-24-16     | 10356174A             |
| Cartridge 2 – 6" Target      | 01-24-16     | 10356174B             |
| Cartridge 3 – 12" Target     | 01-24-16     | 10356174C             |
| Cartridge 4 – 18" Target     | 01-24-16     | 10356174D             |
| Cartridge 5 – 24" Target     | 01-24-16     | 10356174E             |
| Cartridge 6 – 36" Target     | 01-24-16     | 10356174F             |
| Cartridge 7 – 48" Target     | 01-24-16     | 10356174G             |
| Cartridge 8 – 60" Target     | 01-24-16     | 10356174H             |
| Cartridge 9 – 72" Target     | 01-24-16     | 103561741             |

CHEMICAL ANALYSIS

Selected items were chemically processed for the presence of nitrites using the direct application method for the modified Griess test. In addition, these items were then chemically processed for the presence of lead using the transfer method for the sodium rhodizonate test.

Roland Uniform Shirt (RJLG Sample Number 10349323)

Roland Uniform Shirt (RJLG Sample Number 10349323) did not possess a visually apparent bullet hole. As noted in the "Macroscopic & Microscopic Analysis" section on page 2, an area of discoloration was observed on the shirt. The direct application technique of the Modified Griess test was applied from the approximate right armpit area to the bottom of the shirt and from the approximate midline of the shirt to the right front edge encompassing the area of discoloration. No reactions were observed.

The transfer method of the sodium rhodizonate test for lead was then performed in the area of the discoloration. No reaction was observed. The entire front right side of the shirt was then processed using the direct application technique of the sodium rhodizonate test. A faint, irregularly shaped purple-in-color reaction was observed on the lower right side of the shirt. It was approximately 1.5cm by 1.0 cm and approximately 31.0cm above the bottom of the shirt and 17.5cm triangulated from the right underarm/torso seam.

Yantis 2806-4 Down Vest (RJLG Sample Number 10356166)

A hole on the front left panel of the vest is consistent in position with HOLE R on "Yantis 2806-5 Down Jacket" (RJLG Sample Number 10356167) and was processed for the presence of nitrites using the direct application method of the modified Griess test. A positive, ring-like reaction was observed immediately around the edges of the hole.

RJ Lee Group Report Number CFH1039003-1_F1 Page 9 of 11

This area was also processed for the presence of lead using the transfer method of the sodium rhodizonate test. A positive, ring-like reaction was observed immediately around the edges of the hole.

Yantis 2806-5 Down Jacket (RJLG Sample Number 10356167)

The areas surrounding the holes on the jacket were processed for the presence of the nitrites using the direct application method of the modified Griess test. Clusters of positive, pinpoint-like reactions were observed in the areas of HOLES F, G, H, I and J and separately in the area of HOLES K and L. Three pinpoint-like reactions in the area of HOLE M and also separately in the area of HOLE R were observed. Additional pinpoint-like reactions were observed in the areas of HOLES O and P and separately in the area of HOLE Y.

The areas surrounding the holes were also processed for the presence of lead using the transfer method of the sodium rhodizonate test. Every area exhibited positive reactions for the presence of lead. The reactions varied from large cloud-like reactions, to larger irregularly shaped reactions to small pinpoint-like reactions of varying sizes and apparent concentrations.

Yantis 2806-7 Blue Shirt (RJLG Sample Number 10356169)

The area surrounding a hole on the front left panel is consistent in position with HOLE R on "Yantis 2806-5 Down Jacket" (RJLG Sample Number 10356167) and was processed for the presence of the nitrites using the direct application method of the modified Griess test. No reaction was observed.

The area surrounding the hole was also processed for the presence of lead using the transfer method of the sodium rhodizonate test. A positive, ring-like reaction was observed immediately around the edges of the hole.

Broken Front Stock (RJLG Sample Number 10356544)

The broken front stock was reassembled and fitted onto the "2830-3 Ruger M77 .204 Cal" rifle (RJ Lee Group Sample Number 10356170). Two holes defining the previously mentioned channel in the "Macroscopic & Microscopic Analysis" section on page 6 were observed on the right side and bottom of the broken front stock. Both holes were processed for the presence of lead using the transfer method of the sodium rhodizonate test. Positive reactions for the presence of lead were observed encircling both holes and extending into the areas surrounding both holes.

Test Fired Targets

Selected test fired targets from test fires of the "2830-3 Ruger M77 .204 Cal" rifle (RJ Lee Group Sample Numbers 10356170), the "2761-1 Lewis Machine & Tool Defender Rifle (RJ Lee Group Sample Numbers 10356162), and the "2761-16 Glock Model 30 Handgun" (RJ Lee Group Sample Numbers 10356163) were processed for nitrites using the direct application method of the modified Griess test and for the presence of lead using the sodium rhodizonate test. The direct application method or transfer method of the sodium rhodizonate test were selected based on which item of evidence the test fired targets were being compared to and how the sodium rhodizonate test was applied on that item.

CONCLUSIONS

Roland Uniform Shirt (RJLG Sample Number 10349323)

Due to the fact that the faint positive lead reaction on the shirt was unlike any of the reactions on the test fired targets from the 204 Ruger caliber Ruger rifle (RJLG Sample Numbers 10356172A-10355672G, 10356172J, and 10356172L-10356172Q) or the hand swipe targets from the Glock pistol (RJLG Sample Numbers 10356171J and 10356171K), the results of the testing with respect to "Roland Uniform Shirt" (RJLG Sample Number 10349323) are inconclusive based on these comparisons.

Yantis 2806-5 Down Jacket (RJLG Sample Number 10356167)

The positive, pinpoint-like reactions observed as a result of the modified Griess test on the jacket are indicative of the presence of nitrites. No clearly defined patterns of nitrite reactions around any given hole were observed. All of the varying positive reactions observed as a result of the sodium rhodizonate test on the jacket are indicative of the presence of lead. Cloud-like reactions such as the reactions observed around several of the holes on the jacket can be indicative of vaporous lead. Vaporous lead can be present in the area of a firearm when it is discharged or when a projectile has fragmented after striking another object creating a phenomenon known as lead splash. Due to the large number of holes in relatively close proximity and the clear evidence of fragmented projectiles in the area of the jacket, a definitive muzzle-to-garment range determination cannot be made.

Yantis 2806-4 Down Vest (RJLG Sample Number 10356166) and Yantis 2806-7 Blue Shirt (RJLG Sample Number 10356169)

The vest and blue shirt were worn under "Yantis 2806-5 Down Jacket" (RJLG Sample Number 10356167) The positive reaction observed as a result of the modified Griess test on the vest and the positive sodium rhodizonate reactions observed on both the vest and the blue shirt confirm that the holes are consistent with the passage of a bullet. It does not appear that these garments had been exposed to a contact shot.

Test Fire Using 2761-16 Glock Model 30 Handgun (RJLG Sample Number 10356163) and Box of Winchester 45 Caliber Ammunition (RJLG Sample Number 10356171)

Based upon the results of the chemical testing performed on selected test powder patterns produced using the Glock pistol and Winchester ammunition (RJLG Sample Numbers 10356171C-10356171I), the maximum gun powder pattern deposition range which resulted is approximately 36 to 72 inches.

The hand swipe tests (RJ Lee Group Sample Numbers 10356171J and 10356171K) performed after discharging the Glock pistol four consecutive times did not yield results that were consistent with the result observed on "Roland Uniform Shirt" (RJLG Sample Number 10349323). The results of the hand swipe tests are therefore inconclusive.

RJ Lee Group Report Number CFH1039003-1_F1 Page 11 of 11

Test Fire Using 2761-1 Lewis Mcahine & Tool Defender Rifle (RJLG Sample Number 10356162) and Box of Speer Gold Dot 223 Ammunition (RJLG Sample Number 10356174)

Based upon the results of the chemical testing performed on selected test powder patterns produced using the 223 Rifle Speer Gold Dot 223 ammunition (RJLG Sample Numbers 10356174B-10356171I), the maximum gun powder pattern deposition range which resulted is approximately 36 to 72 inches.

Test Fire Using 2830-3 Ruger M77 .204 Cal (RJLG Sample Number 10356170) and Box of Hornady 204 Ruger Ammunition (32gr) (RJLG Sample Number 10356172)

Based upon the results of the chemical testing performed on selected test powder patterns produced using the Ruger Rifle and Hornady 204 ammunition (RJLG Sample Numbers 10356172A-10356172G and 10356172J) , the maximum gun powder pattern deposition which resulted is approximately 36 to 60 inches.

Regarding the targets that were parallel to the barrel at the time of discharge (RJLG Sample Numbers 10356172L-10356172Q), visual residues dissipated at distances between 1 and 3 inches from the barrel when the muzzle of the rifle was near the target material. No conclusions can be made when comparing the side targets visually or using the chemical processing results to the evidence at this time.

These results are submitted pursuant to RJ Lee Group's current terms and conditions of sale, including the company's standard warranty and limitation of liability provisions. No responsibility or liability is assumed for the manner in which the results are used or interpreted. The submitted items are being retained at RJ Lee Group until further instructed.

Thomas M. Morgan

Forensic Firearms Consultant

James M. Margan

Forensic Science Department

AN ASCLD/LAB-International ACCREDITED LABORATORY SINCE March 19, 2013

RJ LEE GROUP EVD RTN Idaho State Police

Administrative Information

M15000140

Supplement No

700 S. Stratford Drive Meridian, ID 83642 Phone (208)884-7000 Reported Date 03/15/2016
Rpt/Incident Typ
OFFICR ICI
Member#/Dept ID#
HENDERSHOT, DANIELLE

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | ase No                                                           | Supplement No                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Reported Date                             |                                                   | Reported Time                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Status                          |             |                 |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------|-------------|-----------------|
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | 115000140                                                        | 0066                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | 03/15/2                                   | 500-50-710-60-00-00-00-00-00-00-00-00-00-00-00-00 | 09:47                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | Inves                           | stigate     |                 |
| Rpt/Incident Typ OFFICER INVOLVED CRITI                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | CAT. INCID                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | Member#/Dept ID#3543/HEN              |                                                   | דואבת יים                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | ET.T.E                          | 52          |                 |
| Assignment Assignment                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | Albert Albert Charles Inggreen                                   | red By                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | Assignment Assignment                     | DERSII                                            | OI, DANI                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | عبيت                            | RMS T       | ransfer         |
| INVESTIGATIVE AIDE DIS                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | INVESTI                                   | GATTV                                             | E ATDE                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | DIST 3                          |             | cessful         |
| Prop Trans Stat   Property?   Report Tit                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | Approving Offi                            |                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                 | oroval Date | CCDDIGI         |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | EE GROUP E                                                       | EVD RTN                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | 2495                                      |                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                 | 3/18/201    | 16              |
| Approval Time                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                           |                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                 |             | 10000           |
| 09:51:48                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                           |                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                 |             |                 |
| Summary Narrative                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                           |                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                 |             |                 |
| On March 14th, 2016 I Danielle                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | Hendeshot                                                        | received tw                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | o package                                 | s of evi                                          | idence fro                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | m the R                         | J Lee Gro   | oup.            |
| SUSPECT 1: YANTIS.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | JACK                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                           |                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                 |             |                 |
| Involvement Invl No Type                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Name                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                           |                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                 |             |                 |
| SUSPECT 1 Individ                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | ual YANT                                                         | IS, JACK                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                           |                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                 |             |                 |
| MNI Race Sex                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | DOB                                                              | Age E                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | thnicity                                  | Juvenile?                                         | Height                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | Weight                          | Hair Color  | Eye Color       |
| 731953 White Male                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                  | 63 t                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Jnknown                                   | No                                                | 5'07"                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | 180#                            | Brown       | Brown           |
| Res Status OFN_INVL Vic/Ofnd Age                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                           |                                                   | 7                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | **                              |             |                 |
| Resident 1 63                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                           |                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                 |             |                 |
| Type ID No                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | OLS                                       |                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                 |             |                 |
| Operator License                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | IDAHC                                     | )                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                 |             |                 |
| Property                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                           |                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                 |             |                 |
| Prop# Involvement                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | Invl Date                                                        | In Custo                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                           | Tag No                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | em No                           |             |                 |
| 1 EVIDENCE-Non-Drug                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | 03/15/2                                                          | 016 Ye                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | s No                                      | 16000                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                 |             |                 |
| Description                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | 1 6 11-                                                          | - t - D                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                           | 3                                                 | Тур                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Cat                             |             | - T             |
| Copper fragment remove                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                           |                                                   | A A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Equip                           | ment/to     | ols             |
| Article                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | Other                                                            | Entered Date 03/15/2                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | 1.7777777                                 |                                                   | MS Transfer                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | c 1                             |             |                 |
| Explosives/Bullet/Ammo                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | Other                                                            | 03/15/2                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | 016 09                                    | :50 2                                             | Successi                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Lul                             |             |                 |
| 3543 0317160804                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                           |                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                 |             |                 |
| Link Involvement InvI No Name                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                           |                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                 |             | Race Sex        |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | S, JACK                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                           |                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                 |             | W M             |
| DOB                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                           |                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                 |             |                 |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                           |                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                 |             |                 |
| Bron # I Involvement                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Invl Date                                                        | In Custo                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | ody?   Security                           | Tag No                                            | 11                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | em No                           |             |                 |
| Prop# Involvement                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                           |                                                   | 110                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                 |             |                 |
| 2 EVIDENCE-Non-Drug                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | 03/15/2                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                           | 16000                                             | and the second s |                                 |             |                 |
| The state of the s | 03/15/2                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                           |                                                   | and the second s | 2                               |             |                 |
| 2 EVIDENCE-Non-Drug                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | 03/15/2                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                           |                                                   | 0810 2                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | 2Cat                        | ment/to     | ols             |
| 2 EVIDENCE-Non-Drug Description Bullet Pull Article                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | IBRS Type                                                        | 016 Ye                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | s No                                      | 16000                                             | 00810 2TypAMS Transfer                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | CatEquip                    | ment/to     | ols             |
| 2 EVIDENCE-Non-Drug Description Bullet Pull Article Explosives/Bullet/Ammo                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | IBRS Type                                                        | 016 Ye                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | s No                                      | 16000                                             | 0810 2TypA                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | CatEquip                    | ment/to     | ols             |
| 2 EVIDENCE-Non-Drug  Description  Bullet Pull  Article  Explosives/Bullet/Ammo                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | IBRS Type                                                        | 016 Ye                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | s No                                      | 16000                                             | 00810 2TypAMS Transfer                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | CatEquip                    | ment/to     | ols             |
| 2 EVIDENCE-Non-Drug  Description  Bullet Pull  Article  Explosives/Bullet/Ammod  Control  3543 0317160804                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | IBRS Type                                                        | 016 Ye                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | s No                                      | 16000                                             | 00810 2TypAMS Transfer                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | CatEquip                    | ment/to     |                 |
| 2   EVIDENCE-Non-Drug   Description                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | BRSTypeOther                                                 | 016 Ye                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | s No                                      | 16000                                             | 00810 2TypAMS Transfer                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | CatEquip                    | ment/to     | Race Sex        |
| 2         EVIDENCE-Non-Drug           Description         Bullet Pull           Article         Explosives/Bullet/Ammod           Control         3543         0317160804           Link         Involvement   Invl No   Name           OTH   SUS   1         YANTI                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | IBRS Type                                                        | 016 Ye                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | s No                                      | 16000                                             | 00810 2TypAMS Transfer                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | CatEquip                    | ment/to     |                 |
| 2   EVIDENCE-Non-Drug   Description                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | BRSTypeOther                                                 | 016 Ye                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | s No                                      | 16000                                             | 00810 2TypAMS Transfer                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | CatEquip                    | ment/to     | Race Sex        |
| 2 EVIDENCE-Non-Drug  Description  Bullet Pull  Article  Explosives/Bullet/Ammod  Control  3543 0317160804  Link Involvement Invi No Name  OTH SUS 1 YANTI                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | o Other S, JACK                                                  | 016 Ye                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | s No Entere                               | 16000ed Time R: 28 S                      | 00810 2 Typ A MS Transfer Success:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | 2CatEquipful | ment/to     | Race Sex        |
| 2 EVIDENCE-Non-Drug  Description  Bullet Pull  Article  Explosives/Bullet/Ammod  Control  3543 0317160804  Link Involvement Invl No Name  OTH SUS 1 YANTI                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | o IBRS Type Other S, JACK Invi Date                              | 016 Ye  Entered Date  03/15/2                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | s No  Entere  016 10                      | 16000ed Time R: 28 S                      | 00810 2 Typ A MS Transfer Success:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | Cat Equip                       | ment/to     | Race Sex        |
| 2 EVIDENCE-Non-Drug  Description  Bullet Pull  Article  Explosives/Bullet/Ammod  Control  3543 0317160804  Link Involvement Invl No Name  OTH SUS 1 YANTI:  DOB  Prop# Involvement  3 EVIDENCE-Non-Drug                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | o Other S, JACK                                                  | 016 Ye  Entered Date  03/15/2                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | S No  Entere  016 10                      | 16000ed Time R: 28 S                      | MS Transfer Successi                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Cat Equip Ful                   |             | Race SexW M |
| 2 EVIDENCE-Non-Drug  Description  Bullet Pull  Article  Explosives/Bullet/Ammod  Control  3543 0317160804  Link Involvement Invl No Name  OTH SUS 1 YANTI  DOB  Prop# Involvement  3 EVIDENCE-Non-Drug  Description                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | o IBRSType Other S, JACK Invi Date 03/15/2                       | 016 Ye  Entered Date 03/15/2                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | s No  Entere  016 10                      | 16000ed Time R: 28 S                      | MS Transfer Successi                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Cat Equip Ful  em No 3 Cat      | Article     | Race Sex W M    |
| Description Bullet Pull Article Explosives/Bullet/Ammod 3543 0317160804 Link Involvement Invl No Name OTH SUS 1 YANTI DOB Prop# Involvement SUS EVIDENCE-Non-Drug Description Cloth Target-Ruger tess                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | o IBRSType Other S, JACK Invi Date 03/15/2                       | 016 Ye  Entered Date 03/15/2                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | s No  Entere  016 10                      | 16000ed Time R: 28 S                      | MS Transfer Successi                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Cat Equip Ful                   |             | Race Sex W M    |
| 2 EVIDENCE-Non-Drug  Description  Bullet Pull  Article  Explosives/Bullet/Ammod  Control  3543 0317160804  Link Involvement Invl No Name  OTH SUS 1 YANTI  DOB  Prop# Involvement  3 EVIDENCE-Non-Drug  Description  Cloth Target-Ruger tes  Entered Date Entered Time RMS                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | o Other  S, JACK  Invi Date 03/15/2 st fire Pr                   | Entered Date 03/15/2  016 Yes  one of the content o | s No  Entere  016 10                      | 16000ed Time R: 28 S                      | MS Transfer Successi                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Cat Equip Ful  em No 3 Cat      | Article     | Race Sex W M    |
| Description Bullet Pull Article Explosives/Bullet/Ammo Control 3543 0317160804 Link Involvement Invi No Name OTH SUS 1 YANTI DOB Prop# Involvement 3 EVIDENCE-Non-Drug Description Cloth Target-Ruger tes Entered Date Entered Time RMS                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | IBRSType Other  S, JACK  Invi Date 03/15/2 st fire Pr Transfer   | Entered Date 03/15/2                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | S No  Entered  016 10  ody? Security S No | 16000ed Time R: 28 S                      | MS Transfer Successi                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Cat Equip Ful  em No 3 Cat      | Article     | Race Sex W M    |
| Description Bullet Pull Article Explosives/Bullet/Ammod Control 3543 0317160804 Link Involvement Involvement OTH SUS 1 YANTI DOB  Prop# Involvement 3 EVIDENCE-Non-Drug Description Cloth Target-Ruger tes Entered Date Entered Time RMS                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | IBRSType Other  S, JACK  Invi Date 03/15/2 st fire Pr Transfer   | Entered Date 03/15/2                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | S No  Entered  016 10  ody? Security S No | 16000ed Time R: 28 S                      | MS Transfer Successi                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Cat Equip Ful  em No 3 Cat      | Article     | Race Sex W M    |
| Description Bullet Pull Article Explosives/Bullet/Ammod Control 3543 0317160804 Link Involvement Involvement OTH SUS 1 YANTI DOB Prop# Involvement 3 EVIDENCE-Non-Drug Description Cloth Target-Ruger tes Entered Date Entered Time RMS                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | IBRSType Other  S, JACK  Invi Date 03/15/2 st fire Pr Transfer   | Entered Date 03/15/2                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | S No  Entered  016 10  ody? Security S No | 16000ed Time R: 28 S                      | MS Transfer Successi                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Cat Equip Ful  em No 3 Cat      | Article     | Race Sex W M    |
| 2 EVIDENCE-Non-Drug  Description  Bullet Pull  Article  Explosives/Bullet/Ammod  Control  3543 0317160804  Link Involvement Invl No Name  OTH SUS 1 YANTI  DOB  Prop# Involvement  3 EVIDENCE-Non-Drug  Description  Cloth Target-Ruger tes  Entered Date Entered Time RMS                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | o Other  S,JACK  Invi Date 03/15/2  St fire Pr Transfer Ccessful | Entered Date 03/15/2                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | S No  Entered  016 10  ody? Security S No | 16000ed Time R: 28 S                          | MS Transfer Success:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Cat Equip Ful em No 3 Cat Other | Article     | Race Sex W M    |

M15000140

Supplement No 0066

RJ LEE GROUP EVD RTN

Idaho State Police

| OTH OB                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | SUS                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | 1                                                                                                                      | YAI                                                                  | NTIS,                                                                         | JACK                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                      |                                               |                                   |       |                 |                                             |                      | W                    | M                                       |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------|-------|-----------------|---------------------------------------------|----------------------|----------------------|-----------------------------------------|
| N.B                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                        |                                                                      |                                                                               |                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                      |                                               |                                   |       |                 |                                             |                      |                      |                                         |
| - 100                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | Involvement                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                        |                                                                      |                                                                               | Invi Date                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | In Custody?                                                          | Security                                      | Tag No                            |       | l               | tem No                                      |                      |                      |                                         |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | EVIDEN                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | CE-Nor                                                                                                                 | n-Dr                                                                 | rug                                                                           | 03/15/                                                                                                                                | 2016                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Yes                                                                  | No                                            | 16000                             |       |                 | 4                                           |                      |                      |                                         |
| Description                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | at-rif                                                                                                                 | Fla                                                                  | tost                                                                          | fire P                                                                                                                                | roges                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | cod                                                                  |                                               |                                   |       | ТурА | CatOther                                | TARGE!               |                      | S Type:her                          |
| Entered (                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Entered                                                                                                                |                                                                      | RMS Tran                                                                      |                                                                                                                                       | Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | sea                                                                  |                                               |                                   |       | A               | Other                                       | IARGE                | . 0                  | ner                                     |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | 5/2016                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | 10:                                                                                                                    | 100000000000000000000000000000000000000                              |                                                                               | essful                                                                                                                                | 3543                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | 0                                                                    | 31716                                         | 0804                              |       |                 |                                             |                      |                      |                                         |
| Link                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | Involvement                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                        | Name                                                                 |                                                                               |                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                      |                                               |                                   |       |                 |                                             |                      | Race                 | 250000                                  |
| OTH DOB                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | SUS                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | 1                                                                                                                      | YAI                                                                  | NTIS,                                                                         | JACK                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                      |                                               |                                   |       |                 |                                             |                      | W                    | M                                       |
| БОВ                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | T.                                                                                                                     |                                                                      |                                                                               |                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                      |                                               |                                   |       |                 |                                             |                      |                      |                                         |
| Prop#                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | Involvement                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                        |                                                                      |                                                                               | Invl Date                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | In Custody?                                                          | Security                                      | Tag No                            |       | 1               | tem No                                      |                      |                      |                                         |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | EVIDEN                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | CE-Nor                                                                                                                 | n-Dr                                                                 | rug                                                                           | 03/15/                                                                                                                                | 2016                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Yes                                                                  | No                                            | 16000                             | 00810 |                 | 5                                           |                      |                      |                                         |
| Description                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | - + D                                                                                                                  |                                                                      |                                                                               | £:                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                      | ,                                             |                                   |       | Тур             |                                             | Article              | 27000                | S Type                                  |
| Entered [                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                        |                                                                      | RMS Tran                                                                      | fire n                                                                                                                                | Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | ocessec                                                              | 1                                             |                                   |       | Α               | Other                                       | TARGE                | . 01                 | her                                     |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | 5/2016                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | 10:                                                                                                                    | 725 State 1                                                          |                                                                               | essful                                                                                                                                | 3543                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | 0                                                                    | 31716                                         | 0804                              |       |                 |                                             |                      |                      |                                         |
| ink                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Involvement                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                        | Name                                                                 |                                                                               |                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                      |                                               |                                   |       |                 |                                             |                      | Race                 | 100000000000000000000000000000000000000 |
| OTH                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | SUS                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | 1                                                                                                                      | YAI                                                                  | NTIS,                                                                         | JACK                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                      |                                               |                                   |       |                 |                                             |                      | W                    | M                                       |
| DOB                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | -3                                                                                                                     |                                                                      |                                                                               |                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                      |                                               |                                   |       |                 |                                             |                      |                      |                                         |
| Prop#                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | Involvement                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                        |                                                                      |                                                                               | Invl Date                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | In Custody?                                                          | Security                                      | Tag No                            |       | I               | tem No                                      |                      |                      |                                         |
| 0.000                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | EVIDEN                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | CE-Nor                                                                                                                 | n-Dr                                                                 | rug                                                                           | 03/15/                                                                                                                                | 2016                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Yes                                                                  | No                                            | 16000                             | 00810 | 1 19            | 6                                           |                      |                      |                                         |
| Description                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | on                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | 720% PRES                                                                                                              |                                                                      |                                                                               | CATE IN                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                      | _                                             |                                   |       | Тур             | Cat                                         | Article              |                      | S Type                                  |
| ClotEntered (                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                        |                                                                      | RMS Tran                                                                      | e shots                                                                                                                               | Control                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | swipes                                                               | Proce                                         | es.                               |       | Α               | Other                                       | TARGE                | : Ot                 | her                                     |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | 5/2016                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | 10:                                                                                                                    | 200000                                                               |                                                                               | essful                                                                                                                                | 3543                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | 3 0                                                                  | 31716                                         | 0804                              |       |                 |                                             |                      |                      |                                         |
| Link                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | Involvement                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                        |                                                                      |                                                                               |                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                      |                                               |                                   |       |                 |                                             |                      |                      |                                         |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | III VOIV CITICITE                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | Invi No                                                                                                                | Name                                                                 | 9                                                                             |                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                      |                                               | 0004                              |       |                 |                                             |                      | Race                 | Sex                                     |
| OTH                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | SUS                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | 1                                                                                                                      | 100000000000000000000000000000000000000                              | NTIS,                                                                         |                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                      |                                               | 2004                              |       |                 |                                             |                      | RaceW     | SexM                                |
| OTH                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                        | 100000000000000000000000000000000000000                              |                                                                               |                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                      |                                               | F0004                             |       |                 |                                             |                      | 75000                | 20,740                                  |
| OTHDOB                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | SUS                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                        | 100000000000000000000000000000000000000                              |                                                                               | JACK                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                      |                                               |                                   |       | 1 6             | tom No                                      |                      | 75000                | 20,740                                  |
| OTHDOBProp#                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | SUS                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | 1                                                                                                                      | YAI                                                                  | NTIS,                                                                         | JACKInvi Date                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | In Custody?                                                          | SecurityNo                         | Tag No 16000                      | 00810 | 1 23            | tem No                                      |                      | 75000                | 20,740                                  |
| OTH DOB Prop# 7 Description                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | SUS Involvement EVIDEN                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | 1CE-Nor                                                                                                            | YAI                                                                  | nTIS,                                                                         | JACK Invi Date 03/15/                                                                                                                 | 2016                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | In Custody?                                                          | Security                                      | Tag No                            |       |                 | 7Cat                             | Article              | W                    | MS Type                             |
| OTH DOB Prop# 7 Description                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | SUS Involvement EVIDEN on modifi                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | 1CE-Nor                                                                                                            | YAN                                                                  | rugPro                                                                    | JACK Invi Date 03/15/                                                                                                                 | 2016Paper                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | In Custody?                                                          | Security                                      | Tag No                            |       |                 | 7                                           | Article OTHER        | W                    | М                                       |
| OTH DOB Prop# 7 Description All Entered [                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | SUS Involvement EVIDEN on modifi                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | 1CE-Nored Gri                                                                                                  | YAI                                                                  | rug  RMS Tran                                                                 | Invi Date 03/15/                                                                                                                      | 2016 Paper                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | In Custody? Yes                                                      | SecurityNo                                | Tag No1600 0           |       | Тур             | 7Cat                             | - CO 100 Marin 100 C | W                    | MS Type                             |
| Prop# 7 Descriptic All Entered [                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | SUS Involvement EVIDEN on modifi                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | CE-Normal Entered 10:                                                                                                  | YAI                                                                  | rug  Proc  RMS Trar  Succ                                                     | JACK Invi Date 03/15/                                                                                                                 | 2016Paper                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | In Custody? Yes                                                      | Security                                      | Tag No1600 0           |       | Тур             | 7Cat                             | - CO 100 Marin 100 C | W                    | MS Typether                     |
| OTH DOB Prop# 7 Description All Entered I 03/1 Link OTH                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | Involvement EVIDEN on modifi Date .5/2016                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | CE-Normal Entered 10:                                                                                                  | n-Driess Time 42                                                     | rug  Proc  RMS Trar  Succ                                                     | Invi Date 03/15/                                                                                                                      | 2016 Paper                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | In Custody? Yes                                                      | SecurityNo                                | Tag No1600 0           |       | Тур             | 7Cat                             | - CO 100 Marin 100 C | IBR Ot               | MS Type                             |
| OTH DOB Prop# 7 Description All Entered I 03/1 Link OTH                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | Involvement EVIDEN on modifi Date 5/2016 Involvement                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | CE-Nored Gri                                                                                                           | n-Driess Time 42                                                     | rug  Proc  RMS Trar  Succ                                                     | Invi Date 03/15/                                                                                                                      | 2016 Paper                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | In Custody? Yes                                                      | SecurityNo                                | Tag No1600 0           |       | Тур             | 7Cat                             | - CO 100 Marin 100 C | IBR Ot               | M S Type cher                           |
| OTH DOB Prop# 7 Description A11 Entered I 03/1 Link OTH DOB                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | Involvement EVIDEN on modifi Date 5/2016 Involvement SUS                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | CE-Nored Gri                                                                                                           | n-Driess Time 42                                                     | rug  Proc  RMS Trar  Succ                                                     | Invi Date 03/15/cessed insfer essful                                                                                                  | 2016 Paper                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | In Custody? Yes s                                                    | SecurityNo                                | Tag No16000                   |       | Тур             | 7CatOther                           | - CO 100 Marin 100 C | IBR Ot               | M S Type cher                           |
| OTH  Prop# 7 Description A11 Entered I 03/1 Link OTH DOB                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | Involvement EVIDEN on modifi Date 5/2016 Involvement SUS                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | CE-Normal Entered 10:4 Invi No 1                                                                                       | YAI n-Dr iess Time 42 Name YAI                                       | rug  s Prog  RMS Trat  Succe  NTIS,                                           | Invi Date 03/15/ cessed nsfer essful JACK                                                                                             | 2016  Paper   Control   3543                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | In Custody? Yes s In Custody?                                        | Security No                                   | Tag No 16000                      |       | Typ A           | Cat Other                                   | - CO 100 Marin 100 C | IBR Ot               | M S Type cher                           |
| Prop# 7 Description All Entered IO O3/1 Link OTH DOB                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | Involvement EVIDEN on modifi Date 5/2016 Involvement SUS Involvement EVIDEN                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | CE-Normal Entered 10:4 Invi No 1                                                                                       | YAI n-Dr iess Time 42 Name YAI                                       | rug  s Prog  RMS Trat  Succe  NTIS,                                           | Invi Date 03/15/cessed insfer essful                                                                                                  | 2016  Paper   Control   3543                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | In Custody? Yes s                                                    | SecurityNo                                | Tag No16000                   | 00810 | Typ A           | 7CatOther                           | - CO 100 Marin 100 C | IBR Ot               | M S Type cher                           |
| Prop# 7 Description A11 Entered I 03/1 Link OTH DOB Prop# 8 Description                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | Involvement EVIDEN on modifi Date 5/2016 Involvement SUS Involvement EVIDEN on Sodium                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | CE-Nor                                                                                                                 | YAN n-Dr iess Time 42 Name YAN                                       | rug  S Programmer Succes NTIS,                                                | Invi Date 03/15/2 cessed essful JACK                                                                                                  | 2016 Paper Control 3543 2016                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | In Custody? Yes  In Custody? Yes                                     | Security No                                   | Tag No 16000                      | 00810 | A        | Cat Other                                   | OTHER                | IBR Ot IBR           | M S Type cher                           |
| Prop# 7 Description A11 Entered I 03/1 Link OTH DOB Prop# 8 Description A11 Entered I                                                                                                                                                                                                   | Involvement EVIDEN on modifi 5/2016 Involvement SUS Involvement EVIDEN on Sodium Date                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | CE-Nor  ed Gri Entered 10: Invi No 1  CE-Nor Rhodi Entered                                                             | YAN n-Dr iess Time 42 Name YAN n-Dr                                  | rug  RMS Trat Succe NTIS,                                                     | Invi Date 03/15/2 cessed essful JACK                                                                                                  | 2016 Paper Control 3543 2016 ed pa                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | In Custody? Yes  In Custody? Yes  In Custody? Yes  pers              | Security No 31716 Security No                 | Tag No 16000                      | 00810 | A        | Cat Other tem No 8 Cat                      | OTHER                | IBR Ot IBR           | S Type cher                             |
| Prop# 7 Description A11 Entered I 03/1 Link OTH DOB Prop# 8 Description A11 Entered I 03/1 A11                                                                                                                                                                                          | Involvement EVIDEN on modifi 5/2016 Involvement SUS Involvement EVIDEN on Sodium Date 5/2016                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | CE-Nor  Entered 10: Invi No 1  CE-Nor  Rhodi Entered 10:                                                               | YAI n-Dr iless Time 42 Name YAI n-Dr iless Time 43                   | rug  RMS Trat Succe NTIS,  rug  ate ]  RMS Trat Succe                         | Invi Date 03/15/2 cessed essful JACK                                                                                                  | 2016 Paper Control 3543 2016                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | In Custody? Yes  In Custody? Yes  In Custody? Yes  pers              | Security No                                   | Tag No 16000                      | 00810 | A        | Cat Other tem No 8 Cat                      | OTHER                | Race W               | M S Type Ther Sex M                     |
| Prop# 7 Description A11 Entered I 03/1 Link OTH DOB Prop# 8 Description A11 Entered I 03/1 Link Link Link Link Link Link Link Link                                                                                                                                                      | Involvement EVIDEN on modifi 5/2016 Involvement SUS Involvement EVIDEN on Sodium Date                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | CE-Nor  Entered 10: Invi No 1  CE-Nor  Rhodi Entered 10:                                                               | YAI  n-Dr  i.ess Time 42 Name YAI  n-Dr  i.zon Time 43               | rug  Proc RMS Tran Succe NTIS,  rug  RMS Tran Succe Succe RMS Tran Succe      | Invi Date 03/15/2 cessed inser essful JACK                                                                                            | 2016 Paper   Control   3543                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | In Custody? Yes  In Custody? Yes  In Custody? Yes  pers              | Security No 31716 Security No                 | Tag No 16000                      | 00810 | A        | Cat Other tem No 8 Cat                      | OTHER                | IBR Ot IBR           | M S Type Ther Sex M                     |
| OTH TOP                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | Involvement EVIDEN on modifi 5/2016 Involvement SUS  Involvement EVIDEN on Sodium Date 5/2016 Involvement                                                                                                                                                                                                        | CE-Nor  Entered 10: Invi No 1  CE-Nor  Rhodi Entered 10: Invi No                                                       | YAI  n-Dr  i.ess Time 42 Name YAI  n-Dr  i.zon Time 43               | rug  RMS Trat Succe NTIS,  rug  ate ]  RMS Trat Succe                         | Invi Date 03/15/2 cessed inser essful JACK                                                                                            | 2016 Paper   Control   3543                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | In Custody? Yes  In Custody? Yes  In Custody? Yes  pers              | Security No 31716 Security No                 | Tag No 16000                      | 00810 | A        | Cat Other tem No 8 Cat                      | OTHER                | IBR Ot IBR Ot Race   | M S Type Cher Sex M S Type Cher         |
| Prop# 7 Description A11 Entered I 03/1 Link OTH DOB Prop# 8 Description A11 Entered I 03/1 Link OTH DOB                                                                                                                                                                                 | Involvement EVIDEN on modifi Date 5/2016 Involvement SUS  Involvement EVIDEN on Sodium Date 5/2016 Involvement SUS                                                                                                                                                                                               | CE-Nor  Entered 10: Invi No 1  CE-Nor  Rhodi Entered 10: Invi No                                                       | YAI  n-Dr  i.ess Time 42 Name YAI  n-Dr  i.zon Time 43               | rug  Proc RMS Tran Succe NTIS,  rug  RMS Tran Succe Succe RMS Tran Succe      | Invi Date 03/15/ cessed insfer essful JACK  Invi Date 03/15/ processinsfer essful JACK                                                | 2016 Paper   Control   3543                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | In Custody? Yes  In Custody? Yes  In Custody? Yes  pers  0           | Security No 31716 Security No                 | Tag No 16000                      | 00810 | Typ A           | Cat Other  Cat Other  Cat Other             | OTHER                | IBR Ot IBR Ot Race   | M S Type Cher Sex M S Type Cher         |
| Prop# 7 Description All Entered [ O3/1 Link OTH DOB Prop# 8 Description All Entered [ O3/1 Link OTH DOB Prop# 8 Description                                                         | Involvement EVIDEN on modifi Date 5/2016 Involvement SUS  Involvement EVIDEN on Sodium Date 5/2016 Involvement SUS                                                                                                                                                                                               | CE-Nor  ed Gri Entered 10: Invi No 1  CE-Nor Rhodi Entered 10: Invi No 1                                               | YAI  n-Dr  i.ess Time 42 Name YAI  n-Dr  i.zon Time 43 Name YAI      | rug  S Proc RMS Tran Succ NTIS, rug nate j RMS Tran Succ                      | Invi Date 03/15/ cessed insfer essful JACK Invi Date 03/15/ process insfer essful JACK                                                | 2016 Paper   Control   3543  2016 ed par   Control   3543                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | In Custody? Yes  In Custody? Yes  In Custody? Yes  Pers  In Custody? | Security No Security No 31716                 | Tag No 16000                      | 00810 | Тур А           | Cat Other  tem No 8 Cat Other               | OTHER                | IBR Ot IBR Ot Race   | M S Type Cher Sex M S Type Cher         |
| Prop# 7 Description All Entered [ O3/1 Link OTH DOB Prop# 8 Description All Entered [ O3/1 Link OTH DOB Prop# 8 Description Prop# 9                                                                                                                                                     | Involvement EVIDEN on modifi Date 5/2016 Involvement SUS  Involvement EVIDEN on Sodium Date 5/2016 Involvement SUS                                                                                                                                                                                               | CE-Nor  ed Gri Entered 10: Invi No 1  CE-Nor Rhodi Entered 10: Invi No 1                                               | YAI  n-Dr  i.ess Time 42 Name YAI  n-Dr  i.zon Time 43 Name YAI      | rug  S Proc RMS Tran Succ NTIS, rug nate j RMS Tran Succ                      | Invi Date 03/15/ cessed insfer essful JACK  Invi Date 03/15/ processinsfer essful JACK                                                | 2016 Paper   Control   3543  2016 ed par   Control   3543                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | In Custody? Yes  In Custody? Yes  In Custody? Yes  pers  0           | Security No 31716 Security No                 | Tag No 16000                      | 00810 | Тур А           | Cat Other  tem No 8 Cat Other               | OTHER  Article OTHER | IBR Ot IBR Ot Race W | M S Type Cher Sex M S Type Cher         |
| Prop# 7 Description Prop# 8 Description | Involvement EVIDEN on modifi Date 5/2016 Involvement SUS  Involvement EVIDEN on Sodium Date 5/2016 Involvement SUS                                                                                                                                                                                               | CE-Nor  Rhodi Entered 10: Invi No 1  CE-Nor  Rhodi Entered 10: Invi No 1                                               | YAI  n-Dr  iess Time 42 Name YAI  n-Dr  izon Time 43 Name YAI        | rug  s Proc RMS Trar Succe NTIS, rug  ate j RMS Trar Succe NTIS,              | Invi Date 03/15/ cessed insfer essful JACK Invi Date 03/15/ process insfer essful JACK Invi Date 03/15/                               | 2016 Paper Control 3543  2016 ed pa Control 3543                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | In Custody? Yes  In Custody? Yes  pers  In Custody? Yes              | Security No Security No Security No           | Tag No 16000                      | 00810 | Тур А    | Cat Other  tem No 8 Cat Other               | OTHER                | IBR Ot IBR Ot IBR    | M S Type Cher Sex M S Type Cher         |
| Prop# 7 Description DOB Prop# 7 Description DOB Prop# 8 Description All Entered I O3/1 Link OTH DOB Prop# 8 Description C1ot Entered I C1ot Entered I C1ot Entered I C1ot Entered I C1ot                                                                                                | Involvement EVIDEN on modifi 5/2016 Involvement SUS  Involvement EVIDEN on Sodium Date 5/2016 Involvement SUS                                                                                                                                                                                                    | CE-Nor  Rhodi Entered 10: Invi No 1  CE-Nor  Rhodi Entered 10: Invi No 1  Entered 10: Invi No 1  Entered 10: Invi No 1 | Name YAI   rug  Processor  RMS Trans  Successor  NTIS,  rug  RMS Trans  Successor  NTIS, | Invi Date 03/15/ cessed insfer essful JACK  Invi Date 03/15/ process insfer essful JACK  Invi Date 03/15/ process insfer essful JACK  | 2016 Paper   Control   3543   2016   Control   3543   Control   2016   Proce   Control   Control | In Custody? Yes  In Custody? Yes  pers  In Custody? Yes  essed a     | Security No  Security No  Security No  And no | Tag No 16000 16000 16000 16000 ot | 00810 | Тур А    | Cat Other  tem No 8 Cat Other  tem No 9 Cat | Article OTHER        | IBR Ot IBR Ot IBR    | M S Type Cher Sex M S Type Cher         |
| Prop# 7 Description DOB Prop# 7 Description DOB Prop# 8 Description All Link OTH DOB Prop# 8 Description C1ot Entered [03/1] Link OTH DOB                                                                                                                                               | Involvement EVIDEN on modific 5/2016 Involvement SUS  Involvement SUS  Involvement Sodium Date 5/2016 Involvement SUS   CE-Nor  Rhodi Entered 10: Invi No 1  CE-Nor  Rhodi Entered 10: Invi No 1  Entered 10: Invi No 1                        | Name YAI  Name YAI  Name YAI  Name YAI  Name YAI  Name YAI           | rug  Processor  RMS Trans  Successor  NTIS,  rug  RMS Trans  Successor  NTIS, | Invi Date 03/15/ cessed insfer essful JACK  Invi Date 03/15/ processinger essful JACK  Invi Date 03/15/ processinger essful JACK      | 2016 Paper Control 3543  2016 ed pa Control 3543                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | In Custody? Yes  In Custody? Yes  pers  In Custody? Yes  essed a     | Security No Security No Security No           | Tag No 16000 16000 16000 16000 ot | 00810 | Тур А    | Cat Other  tem No 8 Cat Other  tem No 9 Cat | Article OTHER        | IBR Ot Race W        | S Type cher                             |
| Prop# 7 Description DOB Prop# 7 Description DOB Prop# 8 Description All Entered I O3/1 Link OTH DOB Prop# 8 Description C1ot Entered I C1ot Entered I C1ot Entered I C1ot Entered I C1ot                                                                                                | Involvement EVIDEN on modifi 5/2016 Involvement SUS  Involvement EVIDEN on Sodium Date 5/2016 Involvement SUS                                                                                                                                                                                                    | CE-Nor  Rhodi Entered 10: Invi No 1  CE-Nor  Rhodi Entered 10: Invi No 1  Entered 10: Invi No 1                        | Name YAI  I - Dr  I con Time 43 Name YAI  Name YAI                   | rug  Processor  RMS Trans  Successor  NTIS,  rug  RMS Trans  Successor  NTIS, | Invi Date 03/15/2 cessed insfer essful JACK  Invi Date 03/15/2 processinsfer essful JACK  Invi Date 03/15/2 processinsfer essful JACK | 2016 Paper   Control   3543   2016   Control   3543   Control   2016   Proce   Control   Control | In Custody? Yes  In Custody? Yes  pers  In Custody? Yes  essed a     | Security No  Security No  Security No  And no | Tag No 16000 16000 16000 16000 ot | 00810 | Тур А    | Cat Other  tem No 8 Cat Other  tem No 9 Cat | Article OTHER        | IBR Ot IBR Ot IBR    | S Type cher                             |

| Report Officer            | Printed At       |             |
|---------------------------|------------------|-------------|
| 3543/HENDERSHOT, DANIELLE | 03/22/2016 09:56 | Page 2 of 4 |

RJ LEE GROUP EVD RTN

Idaho State Police

| rop#10            | Involvement EVIDENC                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | E-Nor           | -Drug                                   | Invl Date 03/15/20 | 016                                     | In Custody? Yes | SecurityNo | Tag No          | 000810      |                 | tem No10          |          |           |          |
|-----------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------|-----------------------------------------|--------------------|-----------------------------------------|-----------------|----------------|-----------------|-------------|-----------------|-----------------------|----------|-----------|----------|
| scrip                 | tion                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                 |                                         |                    |                                         |                 |                |                 |             | Тур             | Cat                   | Article  | - 10      | S Type   |
| tered                 | tion of 1                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | Entered         | Time RMS Tra                            | nsfer              | Control                                 |                 |                |                 |             | Α               | Other                 | TARGET   | Ut        | her      |
| 3/nk              | 15/2016Involvement Ir                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | 10:4            | 44 Succ                                 | essful             | 3543                                    | 3 0             | 31716          | 0804            |             |                 |                       | Т        | Race      | Sex      |
| TH                    | The state of the s | L               | YANTIS,                                 | JACK               |                                         |                 |                |                 |             |                 |                       |          | W         | M        |
| ЮВ                    | 20                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | ı               |                                         |                    |                                         |                 |                |                 |             |                 |                       |          |           |          |
| rop#                  | The second secon |                 |                                         | Invl Date          |                                         | In Custody?     | Security       | Tag No          |             |                 | tem No                |          |           |          |
| 11Descrip         | EVIDENCI                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | E-Nor           | -Drug                                   | 03/15/20           | 016                                     | Yes             | No             | 160             | 000810      | Тур             | 11Cat             | Article  | IBR       | S Type   |
| Sec                   | tion of 1                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                 |                                         |                    |                                         |                 |                |                 |             | A               | Other                 | CLOTHI   | 5773-2    | her      |
| ntered                | Date15/2016                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | Entered10:  | 000000000000000000000000000000000000000 | 17077              | Control 3543                     | 3 0:            | 31716          | 0804            |             |                 |                       |          |           |          |
| ink                   | Involvement In                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | IVI No          | Name                                    | TACE               |                                         |                 |                |                 |             |                 |                       |          | Race      |          |
| OTHOB             | SUS 3                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | L.              | YANTIS,                                 | JACK               |                                         |                 |                |                 |             |                 |                       |          | W         | M        |
|                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                 |                                         |                    |                                         |                 |                |                 |             | _               |                       |          |           |          |
| 12                    | InvolvementEVIDENCI                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | E-Nor           | -Drug                                   | Invi Date 03/15/20 | 016                                     | In Custody?     | SecurityNo | Tag No160   | 000810      |                 | tem No12          |          |           |          |
| Descrip               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                 |                                         |                    |                                         |                 |                |                 |             | Тур             | Cat                   | on+/+    | 1.0       |          |
| rticle                | St. St. St. But Holy Co. Let The Company I come.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                 |                                         | IBRS Type          | Entered                                 | d Date          |                | ed Time         | RMS Transfe |                 |                       | ent/too  | TS        |          |
| Exp                   | losives/                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Bulle           | t/Ammo                                  | Other              | 03/                                     | 15/2016         | 5   10         | :45             | Succe       | SS              | ful                   |          |           |          |
| 354                   | 3 03:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | 17160           |                                         |                    |                                         |                 |                |                 |             |                 |                       | - 12     |           |          |
| inkOTH            | Involvement In                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | ivl NoL     | YANTIS,                                 | JACK               |                                         |                 |                |                 |             |                 |                       |          | RaceW | SexM |
| ОВ                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                 | 1111(110)                               | 011011             |                                         |                 |                |                 |             |                 |                       |          | - 55      |          |
| Prop#                 | Involvement                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                 |                                         | Invi Date          |                                         | In Custody?     | Security       | Tag No          |             |                 | tem No                |          |           |          |
| 13                    | EVIDENC                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | E-Nor           | -Drug                                   | 03/15/20           | 016                                     | Yes             | No             |                 | 000810      |                 | 13                    |          |           |          |
| DescripHor | tionnady .204                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | 4 Ruc           | ret ammu                                | nition 4           | o ar                                    | ain             |                |                 |             | ТурА | CatEquipm         | ent/too  | ls        |          |
| Article               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                 |                                         | IBRS Type          | Entered                                 | d Date          |                | red Time        | RMS Transfe |                 |                       | - |           |          |
| Control               | losives/                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | outte           | c/Ammo                                  | Other              | 03/                                     | 15/2016         | 5   10         | :47             | Succe       | SS              | IUI                   |          |           |          |
| 354.ink           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | 17160IVI No | 804Name                             |                    |                                         |                 |                |                 |             |                 |                       | 1        | Race      | Sex      |
| HTC                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                 | YANTIS,                                 | JACK               |                                         |                 |                |                 |             |                 |                       |          | W         | M        |
| ЮВ                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                 | -                                       |                    |                                         |                 |                |                 |             |                 |                       |          |           | *        |
| Prop#                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                 |                                         | Invl Date          |                                         | In Custody?     | Security       | Tag No          |             | 1 2             | tem No                |          |           |          |
| 14Descrip         | EVIDENC                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | E-Nor           | -Drug                                   | 03/15/20           | 016                                     | Yes             | No             | 160             | 000810      |                 | 14 Cat         |          |           |          |
| Hor                   | nady 204                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Ruge            | r ammun                                 |                    |                                         |                 |                |                 |             | A               |                       | ent/too  | ls        |          |
| Article Exp           | losives/1                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | 3ulle           | t/Ammo                                  | IBRS Type Other    | Entered03/                          | Date15/2016 |                | ed Time: 47 | Succe       |                 | ful                   |          |           |          |
| Control               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                 |                                         | 3 3.1.01           | 201                                     |                 |                | . According     |             |                 | and the second second |          |           |          |
| 354Link           | 3 03:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | 17160IVI No | Name                                    |                    |                                         |                 |                |                 |             |                 |                       |          | Race      | Sex      |
| OTH                   | SUS 3                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | L               | YANTIS,                                 | JACK               |                                         |                 |                |                 |             |                 |                       |          | W         | M        |
| DOB                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                 |                                         |                    |                                         |                 |                |                 |             |                 |                       |          |           |          |
|                       | Involvement                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                 | D                                       | Invi Date          | 21.0                                    | In Custody?     | Security       | Tag No          |             |                 | tem No                |          |           |          |
| 15Descrip         | EVIDENC:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | -Non            | -Drug                                   | 03/15/20           | 716                                     | Yes             | No             | 160             | 000810      |                 | 15 Cat         | - Con    |           |          |
| Spe                   | er gold o                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | dot .           | 223 amm                                 |                    | Law :                                   |                 |                | ad Time         |             | A               |                       | ent/too  | ls        |          |
| Article  Exp          | losives/                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Bulle           | t/Ammo                                  | Other              | 100000000000000000000000000000000000000 | Date15/2016 |                | ed Time         | Succe       |                 | ful                   |          |           |          |
| Control               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                 |                                         |                    |                                         |                 |                |                 |             |                 |                       |          |           |          |
| 354_ink           | Involvement In                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | 17160M No   | Name                                    |                    |                                         |                 |                |                 |             |                 |                       |          | Race      | Sex      |
| OTHDOB            | SUS 3                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | L               | YANTIS,                                 | JACK               |                                         |                 |                |                 |             |                 |                       |          | W         | M        |
| NO.                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                 |                                         |                    |                                         |                 |                |                 |             |                 |                       |          |           |          |
| Report                | The state of the s |                 |                                         |                    |                                         | 1.733           | rinted At      |                 | - Carren    |                 |                       | 20       | GE.       |          |
| 354                   | 3/HENDER                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | SHOT,           | DANIELL                                 | E                  |                                         | C               | 3/22           | 2016            | 09:56       | 5               | Pa                    | ge 3 of  | 4         |          |

M15000140

Supplement No 0066

RJ LEE GROUP EVD RTN Idaho State Police

Narrative

On March 14th, 2016 I Danielle Hendershot received 2 packages from the RJ Lee Group. The packages contained evidence and ammunition that was sent to the RJ Lee Group for lab testing on January 20th, 2016. Also included in the packages sent by the RJ Lee Group were various exhibits that were created as a result of their testing. The exhibits are listed below with the description that was given to them by the RJ Lee Group.

- 1-Copper fragment removed from Down Jacket
- 2-Bullet Pull
- 3-Cloth targets. Ruger test fire. Processed
- 4-Cloth targets. Rifle test fire. Processed
- 5-Cloth targets. Ruger test fire. Targets 60"A and 72" not processed
- 6-Cloth targets. Ruger side target shots and hand swipes. Processed
- 7-All modified Griess. Processed papers
- 8-All sodium rhodizonate. Processed papers
- 9-Cloth targets. Glock test fire. Processed and unprocessed 6" contact
- 10-Section of Ruger contact target
- 11-Section of Roland's uniform shirt.

I packaged these exhibits according to the Idaho State Police Policy and they will be stored in the District 3 evidence room.

| Report Officer            | Printed At       | 1 22 - 7-   |  |
|---------------------------|------------------|-------------|--|
| 3543/HENDERSHOT, DANIELLE | 03/22/2016 09:56 | Page 4 of 4 |  |

FBI RETURN EVIDENCE Idaho State Police

M15000140

Supplement No 0067

700 S. Stratford Drive Meridian, ID 83642 (208) 884-7000

Reported Date 04/12/2016 Rpt/Incident Typ OFFICR ICI Member#/Dept ID# HENDERSHOT, DANIELLE

|                            |               | _         |                                |               |                   |               |              |          |              |
|----------------------------|---------------|-----------|--------------------------------|---------------|-------------------|---------------|--------------|----------|--------------|
| Administrative Information |               |           |                                |               |                   |               |              |          |              |
| Agency                     |               | Case No   | T                              | Supplement No | Reported Date     | Reported Time |              |          |              |
| Idaho State                | Police        | M1500     | 15000140 0067 04/12/2016 09:44 |               |                   |               |              |          |              |
| Rpt/Incident Typ           |               |           |                                |               |                   |               |              |          |              |
| OFFICER INV                | OLVED CR      | ITICAL    | INCIDE                         | NT            |                   |               |              |          |              |
| Location                   |               |           |                                |               |                   |               |              | T        | City         |
| 700 S. STRA                | TFORD         |           |                                |               |                   |               |              |          | MERIDIAN     |
| ZIP Code                   | County        |           | Member#/Dept                   |               |                   |               |              |          |              |
| 83642                      | 1A1           | В3        | 3543/HI                        | ENDERSHO      | T, DANIELLE       |               |              |          |              |
| Assignment                 |               |           | Entered                        | Ву            | Assignment        | SAC AMARKS 7  | 311517300300 | 2020     | RMS Transfer |
| INVESTIGATI                | VE AIDE       | DIST 3    | 354                            | 3             | INVESTIGATI       | VE AIDE       | DIST         | 3        | Successful   |
| Prop Trans Stat            | Property? Rep | ort Title |                                |               | Approving Officer |               | 100          | Approval |              |
| Successful                 | Yes FI        | 3I RETU   | RN EVI                         | DENCE         | 2495              |               |              | 04/1     | 2/2016       |
| Approval Time              |               |           |                                |               |                   |               |              |          |              |
| 11:07:38                   |               |           |                                |               |                   |               |              |          |              |
| C                          | lamating.     |           |                                |               |                   |               |              |          |              |

Summary Narrative

On April 5, 2016, I Danielle Hendershot received evidence from SA Rod Draper of the FBI.

| SUSPEC                | T 1: `     | YANTIS,         | JACK FR    | ED                  |                  |           |        |         |            |          |        |
|-----------------------|------------|-----------------|------------|---------------------|------------------|-----------|--------|---------|------------|----------|--------|
| Involvement           | Invl No    | Туре            | Name       | Carried Free States |                  |           |        |         |            |          |        |
| SUSPECT               | 1          | Individ         | dual YANT  | IS, JACK            | FRED             |           |        |         |            |          |        |
| MNI                   | Race       | Sex             | DOB        | Age                 | Ethnicity        | Juvenile? | Height | Weight  | Hair Color | Eye Colo | r      |
|                       | Whi        | te Male         |            |                     | Unknown          | No        | 5'07'  | 180#    | Brown      | Brow     | n      |
| Res Status            | OFN_IN     | IVL Vic/Ofnd Ag | e          |                     |                  |           |        |         |            |          |        |
| Resident              | 1          |                 |            |                     |                  |           |        |         |            |          |        |
| Туре                  | - W        | ID No           | )          |                     | OLS              |           |        |         |            |          |        |
| Operator              | Lice       | nse             |            |                     | IDAH             | 0         |        |         |            |          |        |
| Property              | r .        |                 |            | w                   |                  |           |        |         |            |          |        |
| Prop# Involveme       | nt         |                 | Invl Date  |                     | ustody? Security | Tag No    |        | Item No |            |          |        |
| 1 EVID                | ENCE-1     | Non-Drug        | 04/12/     | 2016 Y              | es No            | 16000     | 1105   | 1       |            |          |        |
| Description           |            |                 |            | ,                   |                  |           | Ty     | p Cat   | Article    | IBRS     | S Type |
| 8 lead/c              | opper      | chemica         | l paper s  | wabs fro            | m FBI            |           | I      | Other   | SWABS      | Ot       | her    |
| Entered Date 04/12/20 |            |                 | Transfer   | Control3543     | 041216           | 1103      |        |         |            | •        |        |
| Link Involvem         | ent InvI N | o Name          |            |                     |                  |           |        |         |            | Race     | Sex    |
| SUS SUS               | 1          | YANT            | S, JACK FF | ED                  |                  |           |        |         |            | W        | M      |
| DOB                   |            | -               |          |                     |                  |           |        |         |            | 11       |        |
|                       |            |                 |            |                     |                  |           |        |         |            |          |        |
| Narrative             | е          |                 |            |                     |                  |           |        |         |            |          |        |

On April 5, 2016 I, Danielle Hendershot received a plastic bag containing secondary evidence created by the FBI lab in Quantico, Virginia, from SA Rod Draper. The plastic bag contains 8 lead/copper chemical paper swabs collected from Tag 150002847 Item 1.

Tag 150002830 Item 5, was packaged by the FBI in a padded silver can for transport to the FBI lab in Quantico, Virginia. The exhibit will stay in this can and the chain of custody will be continued on the can.

| Report Officer            | Printed At       |             |
|---------------------------|------------------|-------------|
| 3543/HENDERSHOT, DANIELLE | 04/12/2016 11:20 | Page 1 of 1 |

|      | / |    | 1 |
|------|---|----|---|
| Page | / | of |   |
|      |   |    |   |

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION Receipt for Property

| Case ID:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | 182A-5U-6764232                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | item (s) listed below were:  Collected/Seized Received From Returned To Released To                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| (Name)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | 10AND STATE POLICE                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| (Street Address                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | s) 700 Sa STATKORD Q.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| (City)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | MERINIAN ID                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Description of                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | Item (s): 1. (13-1) Two UNFIRED , 204 CAL. ROUNDS - ISP HEM # 5                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Description of                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | 2. (1B-2) RULAND NOTY BELT WIASSY                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | 3. (13.3) SMALL DEFURMED PROJECTIVE                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | 4. (13-4) BULLET FROM WOUND #2                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | 5. (1B-5) RUCAND ASP                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| ***************************************                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | 6. (1B-6) PLASTIC BAG - SECCONDARY EVIDENCE FBICAB                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | Astriz Jothous                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | J                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| ***************************************                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| ***************************************                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| V                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| PPROTESTICAL DESIGNATION OF THE STATE OF THE | The standard of the standard o |
| Received By:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | (Signature) Received From: (Signature)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Printed Name/                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Down all a stored to the                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | intassa.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |

FD-302 (Rev. 5-8-10)

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of entry 03/21/2016

DENNIS ORWIG, who resided at telephone number contacted the United States

Attorneys Office in Boise on 03/18/2016. ORWIG left a telephone message regarding the Yantis investigation. A digital copy of the message was attached to this report.

On 03/21/2016, ORWIG was contacted at the aforementioned telephone number. After being advised of the identity of the interviewing Agent and the nature of the interview, ORWIG provided the following information:

ORWIG previously resided in for approximately twenty-five years, but had moved to for health reasons. ORWIG knew Jack Yantis personally, as a good and peaceful man.

ORWIG believed that the investigation into the shooting of Yantis was going to be covered up because he didn't trust law enforcement after all the negative publicity lately.

ORWIG was not a witness to the shooting of Yantis. ORWIG's information about the shooting came from the news and what his daughter had told him. ORWIG's daughter was still residing in ORWIG looked forward to the conclusion of the investigation and the results being made public.

Investigation on 03/21/2016 at Boise, Idaho, United States (Phone)

File # 282A-SU-6764232 Date drafted 03/21/2016

by DRAPER RODNEY O

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

FD-302 (Rev. 5-8-10)

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of entry 04/22/2016

On 04/21/2016 Special Agent Rodney Draper interviewed DONNA YANTIS,

The interview took place on Highway 95 near

DONNA YANTIS' home and at the location of the critical incident that occurred on 11/01/2015. Present during the interview were three attorneys, to include Chuck Peterson. Also present were her daughter, Sarah, and son-in-law, Mike. DONNA YANTIS (hereafter DONNA) provided the following information:

DONNA and her husband, Jack Yantis (hereafter, Jack), were having dinner with Joe Rumsey and Rowdy Paradis on the evening of 11/01/2015, when they received a call from the Adams County Sheriff's Office advising them that one of their livestock had been struck by a vehicle on the highway. DONNA and Jack were calm about the matter because such incidents had occurred in the past. When they walked outside the house they could hear gunfire and presumed it was deputies shooting at the animal that had been struck by the vehicle near the base of the hill below them.

Jack drove the four wheeler down the driveway to the highway. DONNA walked down the driveway and brought a rifle to Jack. The four wheeler was parked at the base of the driveway which intersected with Highway 95. The four wheeler was parked in the northbound lane of the highway facing north so that the head lights were shining on their injured bull lying nearby. Jack took the rifle from DONNA, checked to see if it were loaded and then put a round in the chamber. Jack began walking toward the bull and seemed unaware that Adams County Deputies were even present. The deputies didn't say anything to Jack during the entire event. Adams County Deputy Cody Rolland and Deputy Brian Wood were standing next to one another in the southbound lane of the highway, perpendicular to the bull.

The injured bull was lying on the eastern edge of the highway, partially in a cut out just a few yards north of the intersection of where the Yantis' driveway intersected with Highway 95. The bull's head was facing south. A pickup truck was parked a little north, but in close proximity to the bull in the same cut out.

Jack first approached the bull from the north and aimed toward the back of the bull's head. DONNA was standing near the four wheeler and realized

| Investi | gation on | 04/21/2016 | at | Council, | Idaho, | United | States | (In | Person)      |            |
|---------|-----------|------------|----|----------|--------|--------|--------|-----|--------------|------------|
| File #  | 282A-     | SU-6764232 |    |          |        |        |        |     | Date drafted | 04/22/2016 |
| by I    | RAPER     | RODNEY O   |    |          |        |        |        |     |              |            |

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

that she was in the line of fire so she thought she had better move. However, Jack then moved into the middle of the northbound lane of the highway facing east and to the side of the bull. Jack aimed at the bull again but did not fire.

Adams County Deputy Cody Rolland and Deputy Brian Wood were still standing next to one another in the southbound lane of the highway, perpendicular to the bull. Deputy Rolland grabbed Jack from behind and knocked Jack off balance. Deputy Rolland had a hold of Jack's rifle as they both moved toward the center lane of the highway.

All of a sudden both deputies began to shoot Jack, who was then facing south. Jack never fired his rifle. As Jack was being shot, he spun to his right (north), holding the rifle to his chest and with it pointed toward the sky. Jack came to rest in the southbound lane.

Paradis was standing next to the skid loader during the shooting. Paradis had driven the skid loader down from the Yantis home and parked it in the southbound lane of the highway facing northeast in order to shine the skid loader's lights onto the bull for Jack. The skid loader was parallel with the four wheeler.

DONNA and Paradis began approaching Jack, who was lying on the ground. Deputy Rolland ordered her to the ground where he then handcuffed her. Deputy Rolland searched her for weapons. DONNA advised Deputy Rolland that her right shoulder was sore but he still handcuffed her. Paradis was also handcuffed.

Neither DONNA or Paradis picked up any spent casings. Following the shooting, Rumsey walked up to the scene and was handcuffed after picking up spent casings in the highway. When DONNA received the call about injured livestock, Rumsey had initially went to the location where the vehicle had struck the bull further south on Highway 95.

DONNA asked Deputy Rolland why he shot Jack. Deputy Rolland replied that Jack had shot him in the side of the body. DONNA asked where, because she couldn't see any holes or blood on his clothing. Deputy Rolland didn't say anything more.

DONNA began having heart trouble and estimated that she left the scene in an ambulance approximately thirty minutes after Jack had been shot. DONNA did not see Deputy Rolland or Deputy Wood talk to each other after the shooting. Nobody gave medical attention to Jack while she was present, he remained lying on the highway where he had fallen after the shooting.

The entire incident, from the moment DONNA gave Jack the rifle to when he was shot unfolded very quickly. DONNA had not discussed with Paradis what he'd seen that night. Her statements were based upon what she had seen firsthand.

282A-SU-6764232

Continuation of FD-302 of (U) Donna Yantis Interview 04/21/2016 , On 04/21/2016 , Page 3 of 3

DONNA and Jack did not know Deputy Rolland or Deputy Wood. The only previous contact they had with the Adams County Sheriff's Office was when they were notified about livestock on the highway.

Jack had fallen from his horse and broken his pelvis approximately five years prior to the shooting. Jack was still able to work around the ranch but for only a few hours at a time before becoming sore.

| Bring up Why AG + AUSA are here? |
|----------------------------------|
| Mit ness or Deforagent?          |
|                                  |
|                                  |
|                                  |
|                                  |
|                                  |
|                                  |
|                                  |
|                                  |
|                                  |
|                                  |

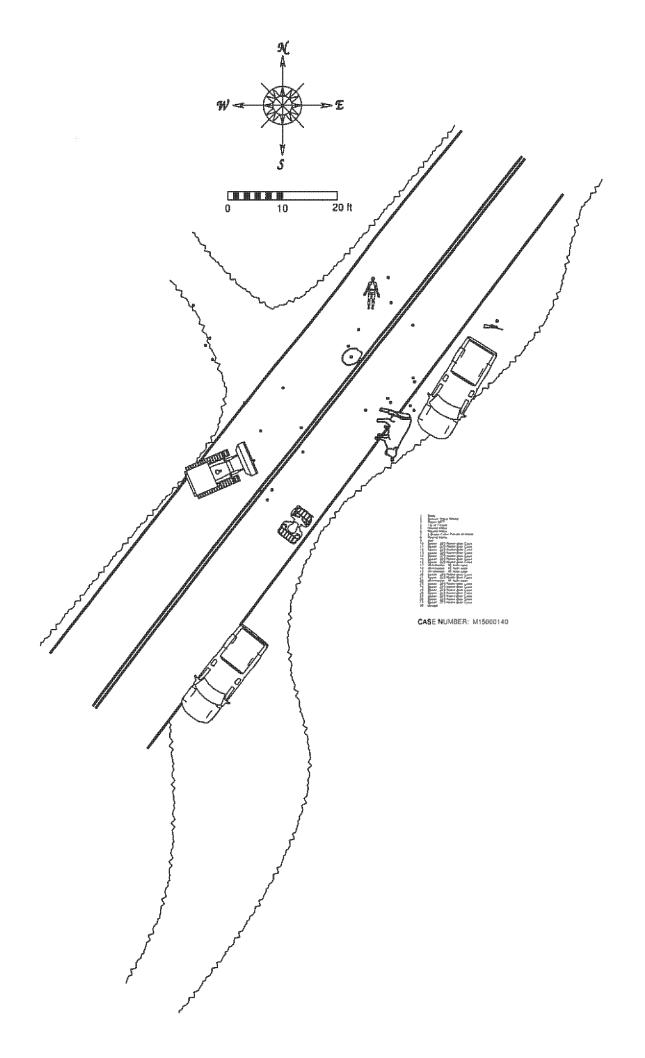

shoved Deputy Wood Left leg in the gir and kind of As soon as Deputy wood lost control of that loaded gun I reached down to try to uphotsker Turned + Fired from the hip Talk about Engaginty him - Tunnel vision - Zero on tifu - I need to back up - Explain the gust & pain in side Fell different stories about checking your - When the struggle broke out I started Moving toward wood to Assist him before that gun went off - or ya Know a fight - Emotions were high obviously - I didn't see the bullet it could have went ten feet over my head could have hit the pavement I Lon't Know - All I know is I felt a Slight gust on my la bullet, that work, I don't know

15-53036 005275

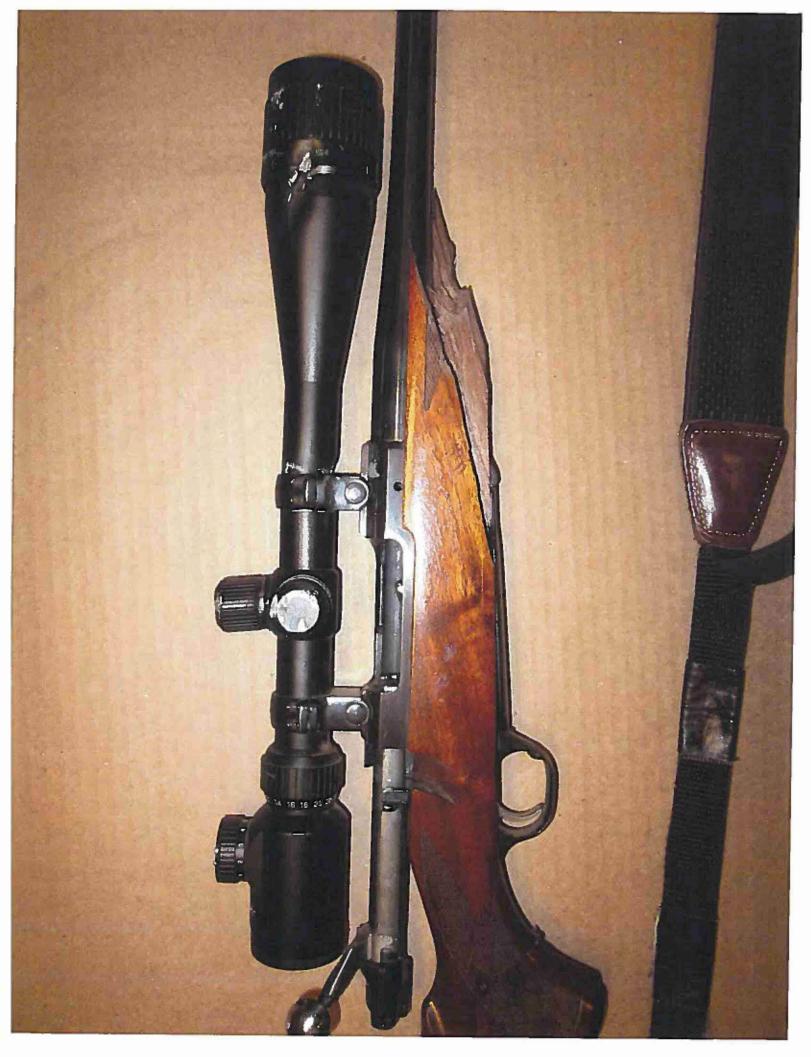

|                | - Can't seveneder where wood was standing a   |
|----------------|-----------------------------------------------|
|                | later talks with great clarity how they were  |
|                | Schoulder to shoulder at the had of the       |
|                | bull.                                         |
|                | I have a very hard time believing an older    |
| Contradition   | man who's hips are being held together by a   |
| ill late 1 and | steel sight could get are hand should so hard |
| 20 or in Share | de very strong cop moving in with purpose to  |
| J              | Control a situation                           |
| Ø~             |                                               |
|                | I thought it was going to be a struggle       |
| -              | get someone else is goung have to do it.      |
|                | get someone else is gonna have to do it-      |
|                |                                               |
| -              | You both talk about expecting him to          |
|                | Stop but both talk about ofiving as fast      |
|                | as possible                                   |
|                |                                               |
|                |                                               |
|                |                                               |
|         |                                               |
|                |                                               |
|                |                                               |
|                |                                               |
|                |                                               |

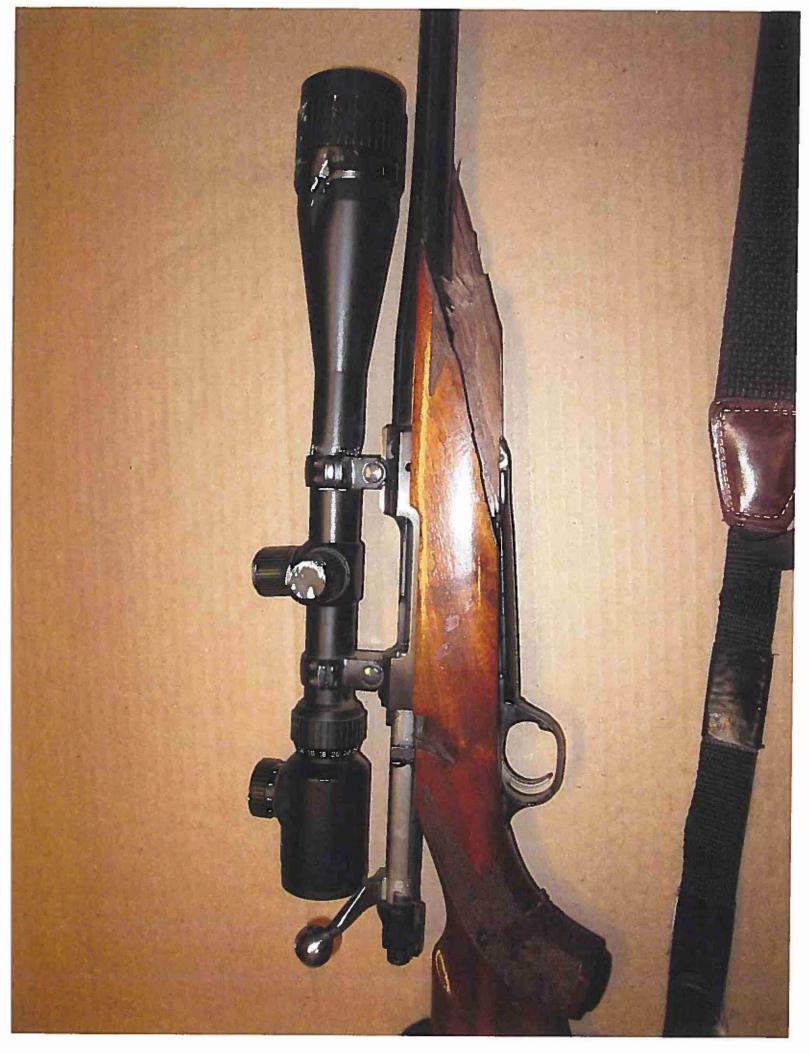

|   | Should we talk about the prosecutors? |
|---|---------------------------------------|
|   | Talk about Symparthetic Shooting?     |
|   |                                       |
|   |                                       |
|   |                                       |
|   |                                       |
|   |                                       |
|   |                                       |
|   |                                       |
|   |                                       |
|   |                                       |
|   |                                       |
|   |                                       |
|   |                                       |
|   |                                       |
| Ü |                                       |

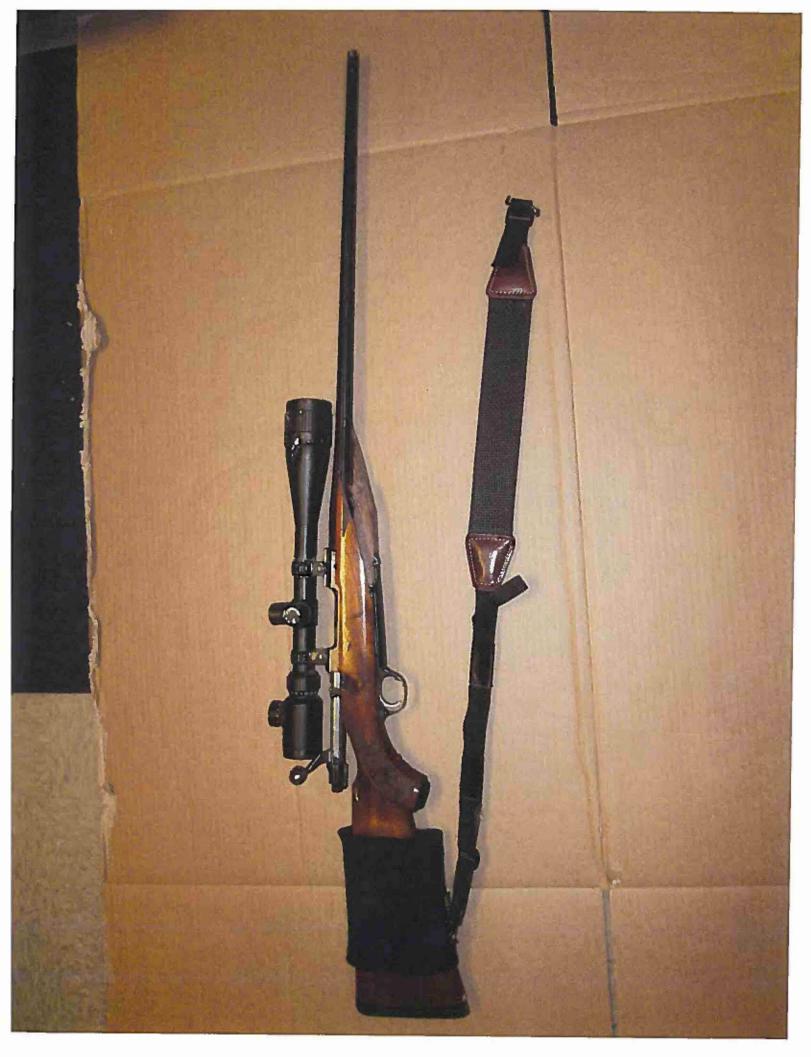

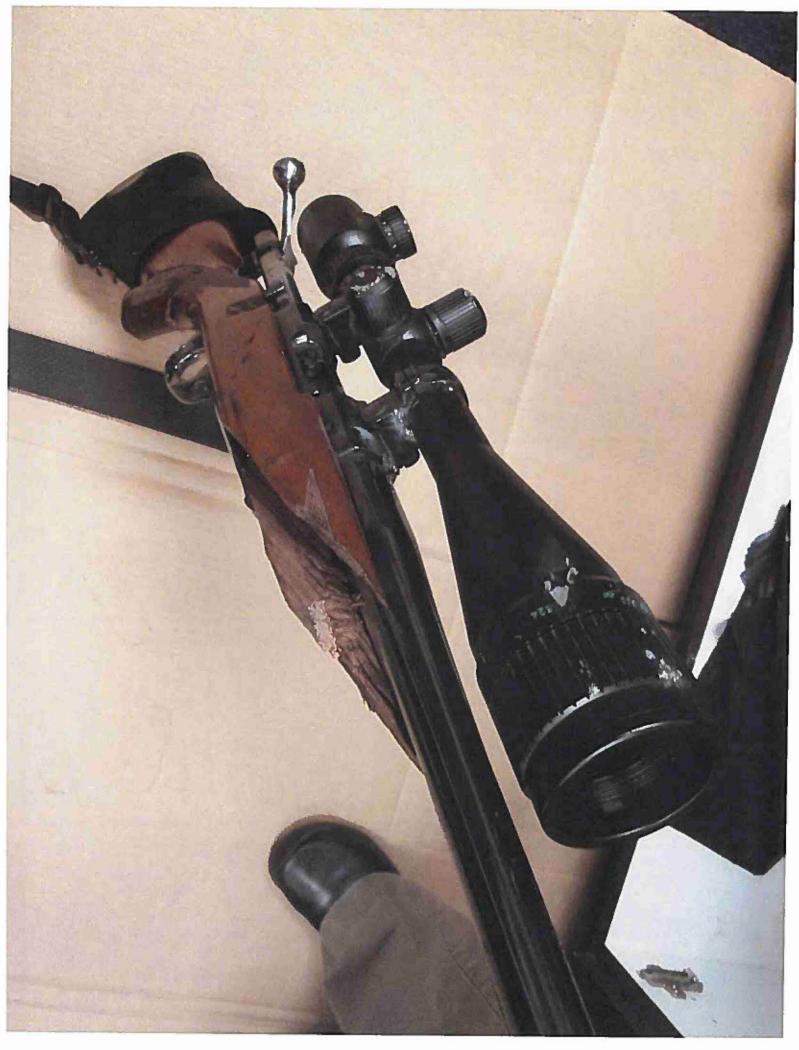

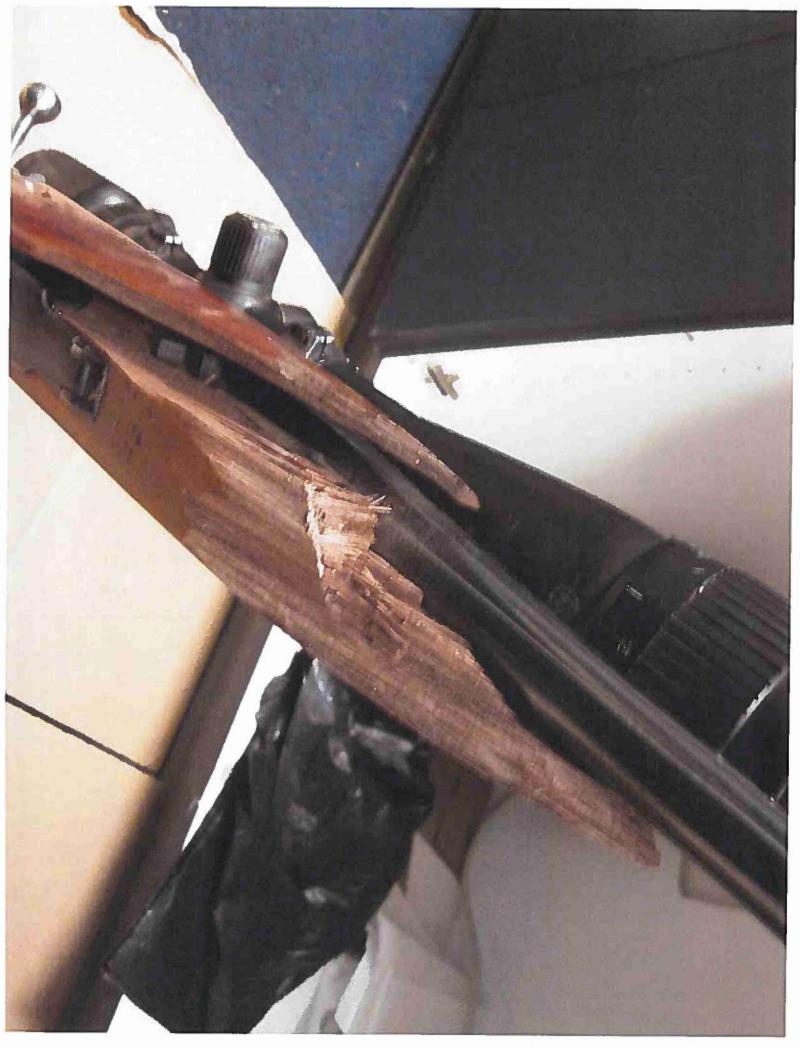

15-53036 005284

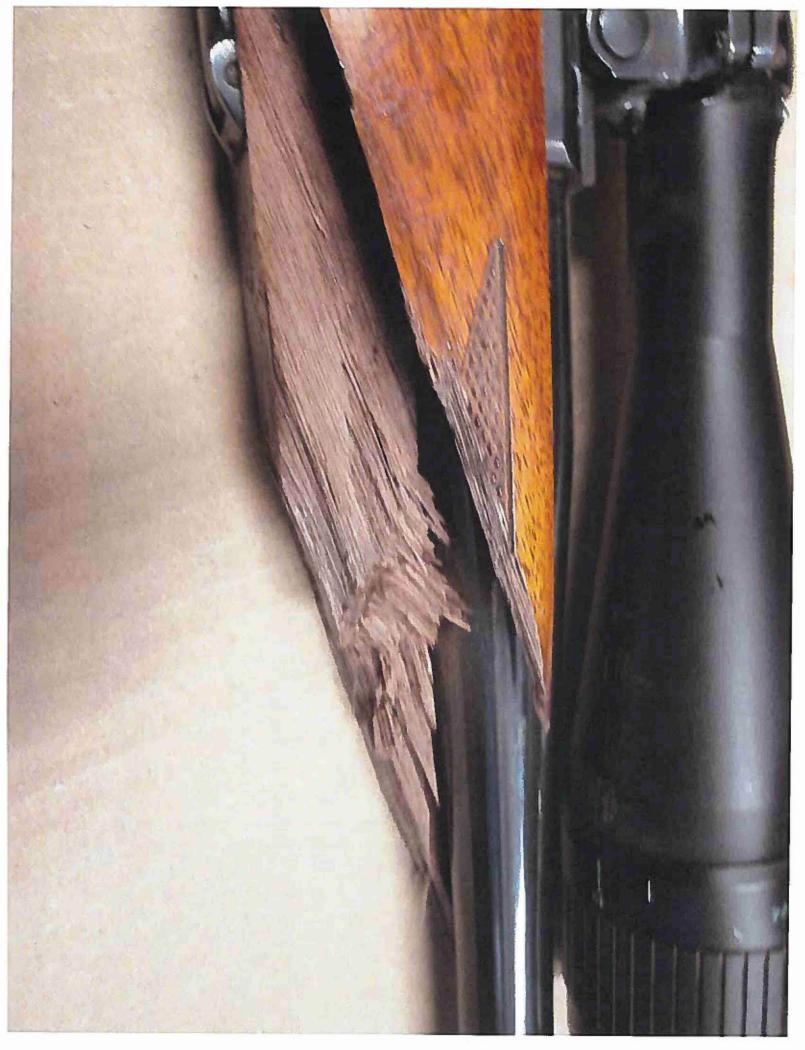

15-53036 005285

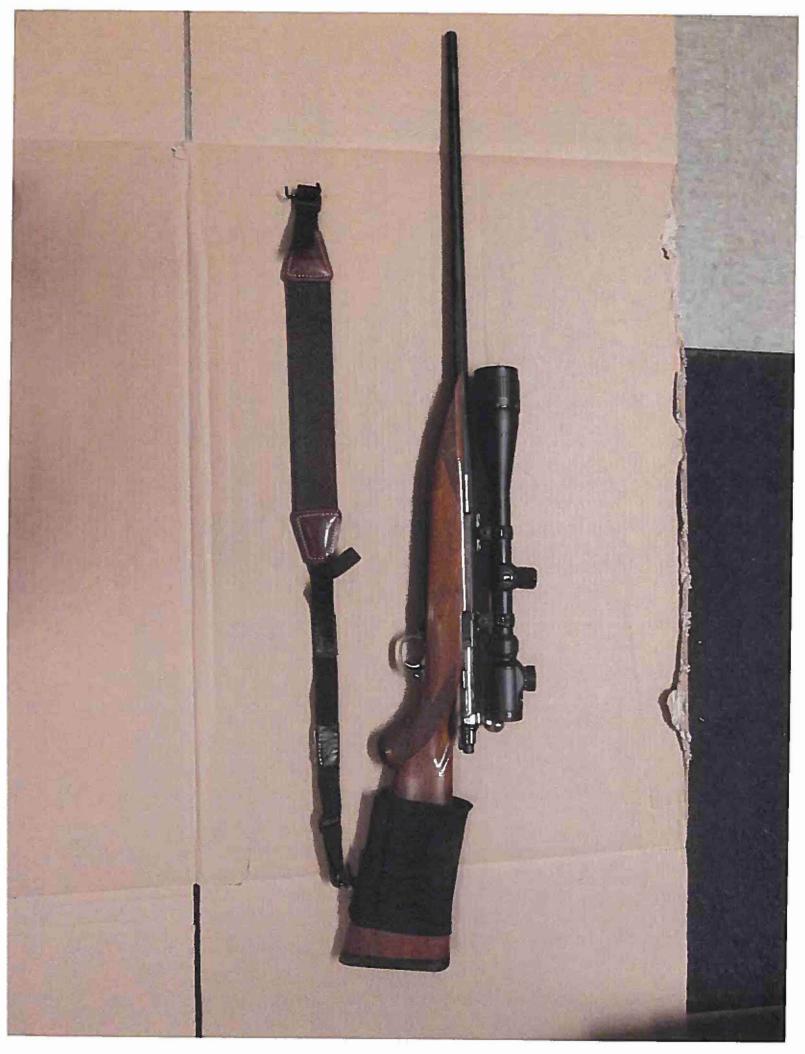

15-53036 005286

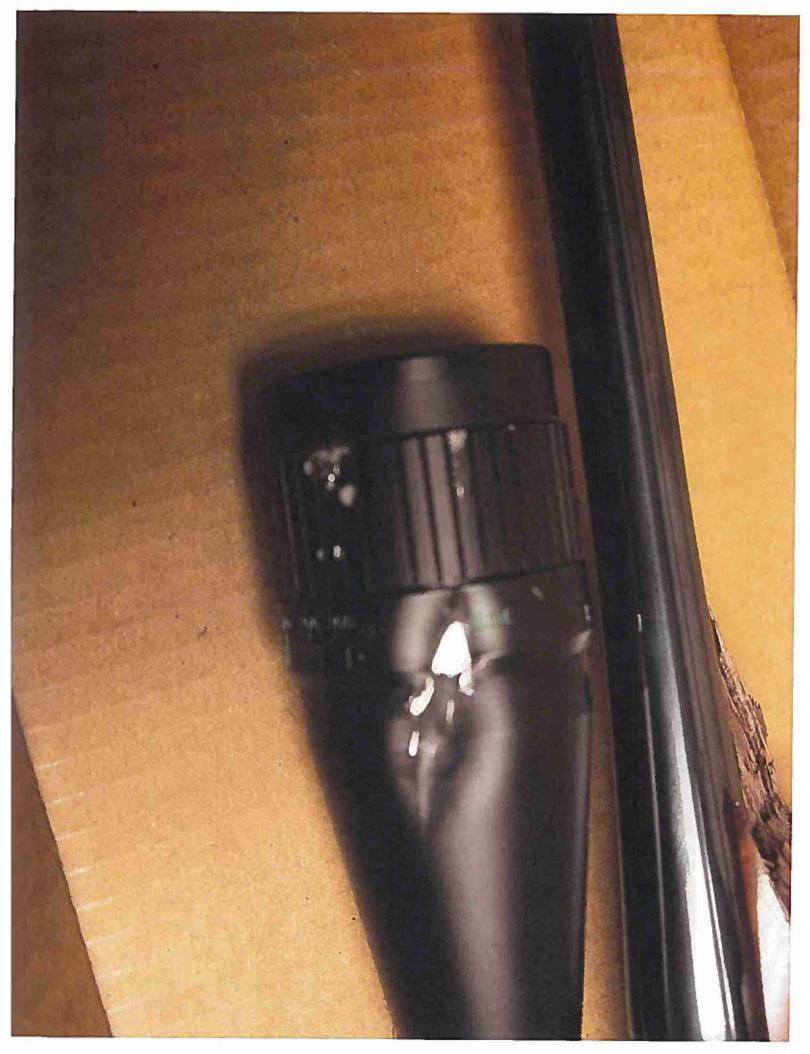

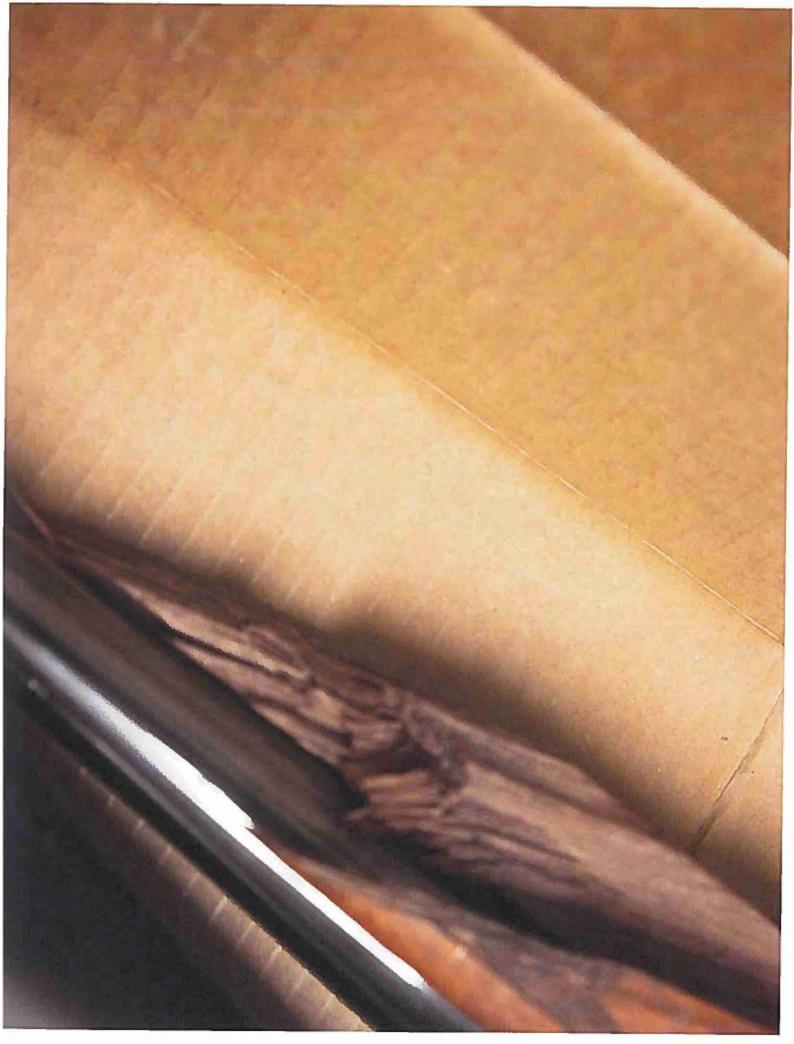

15-53036 005289

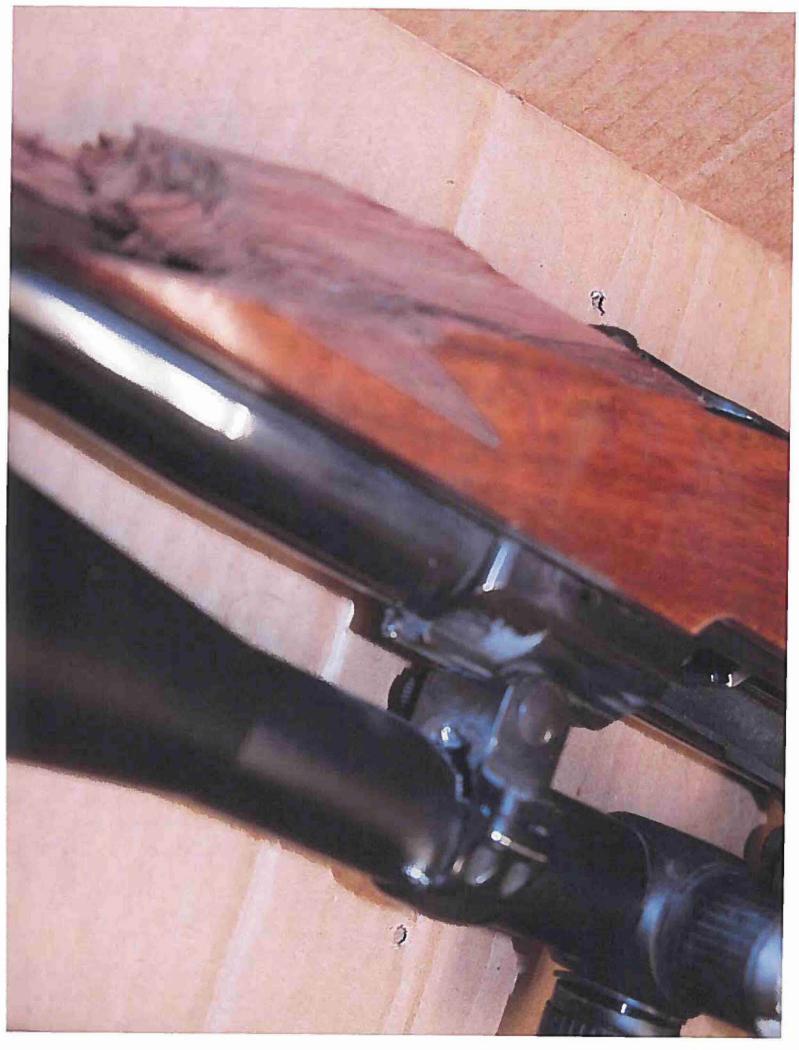

15-53036 005290

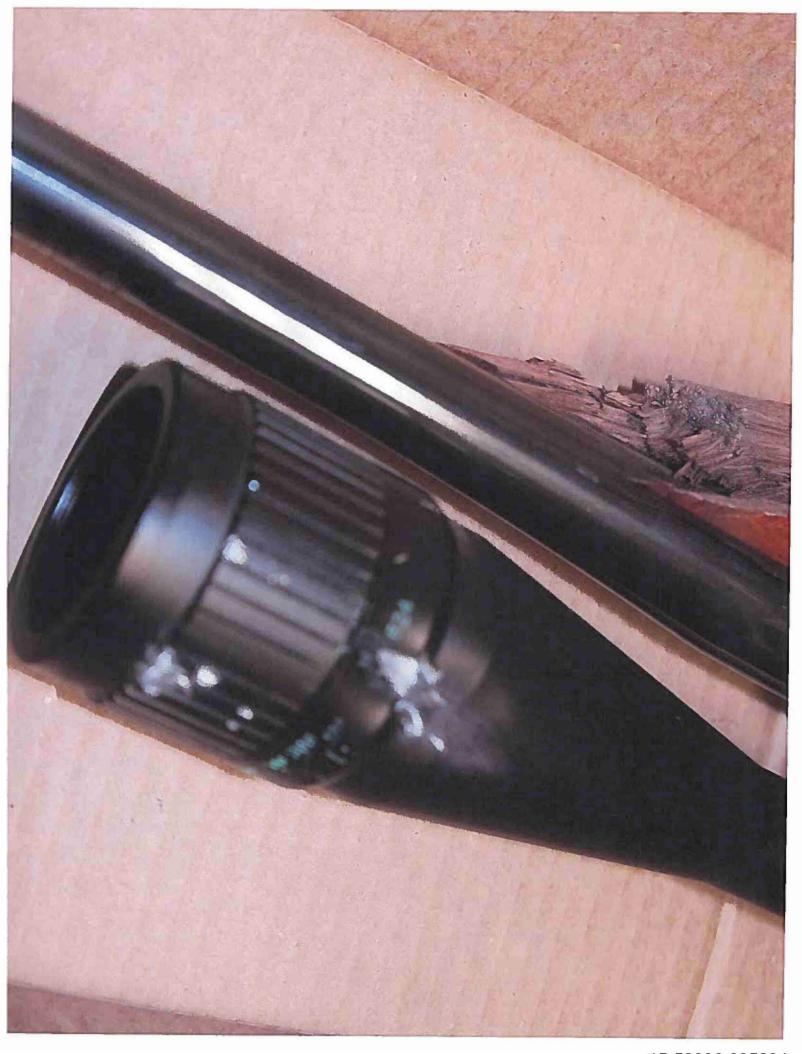

15-53036 005291

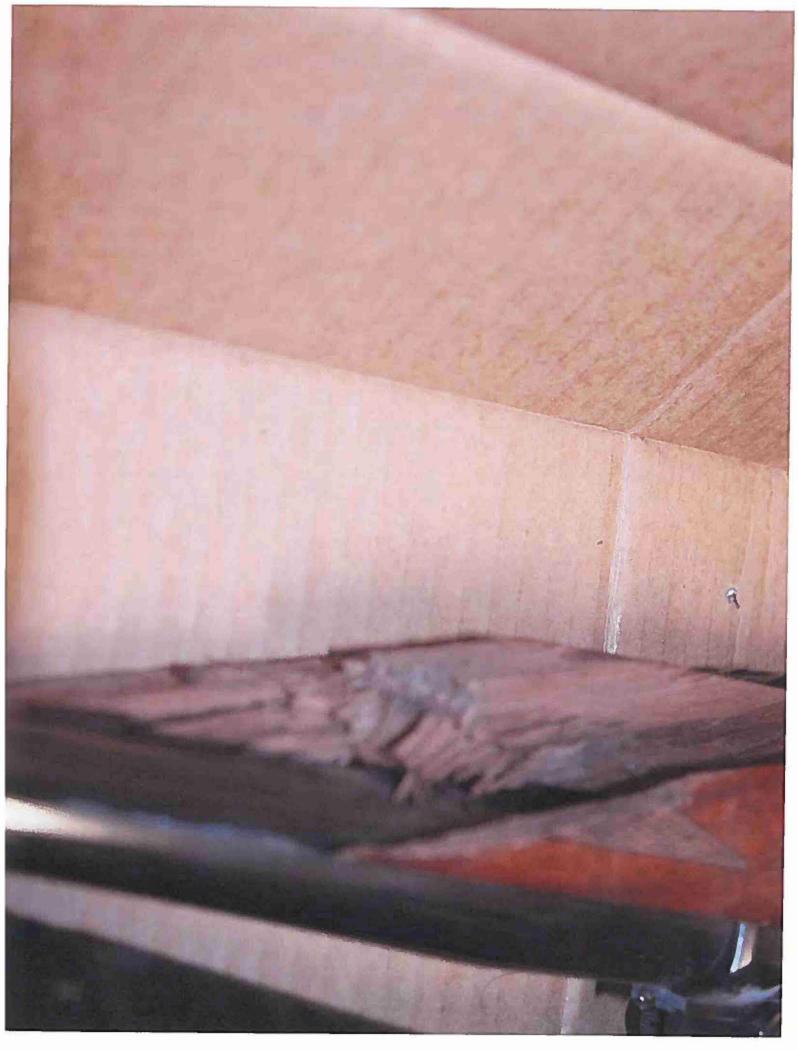

15-53036 005292

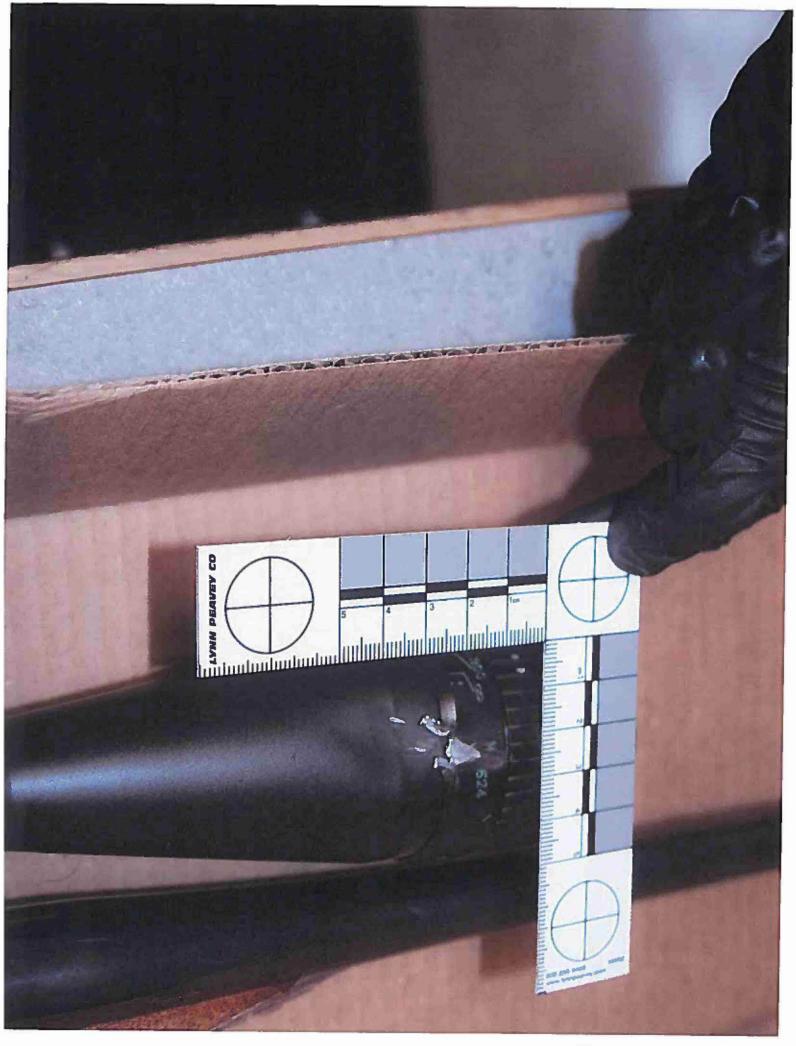

15-53036 005293

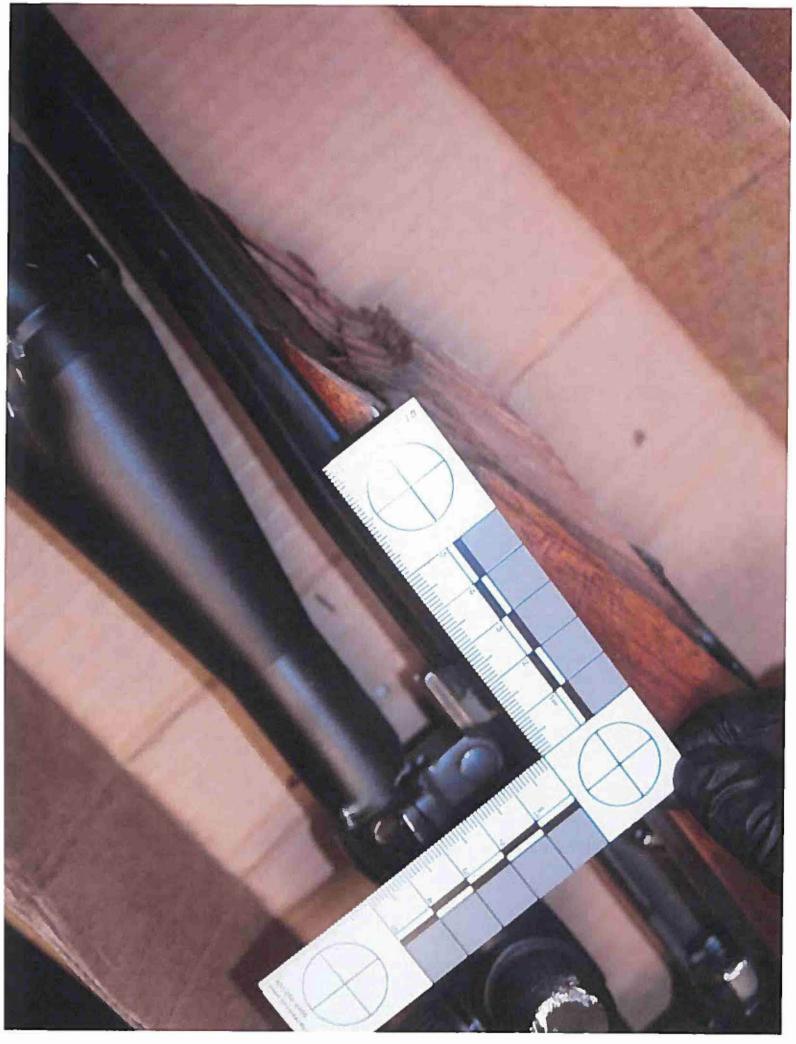

15-53036 005294

15-53036 005295

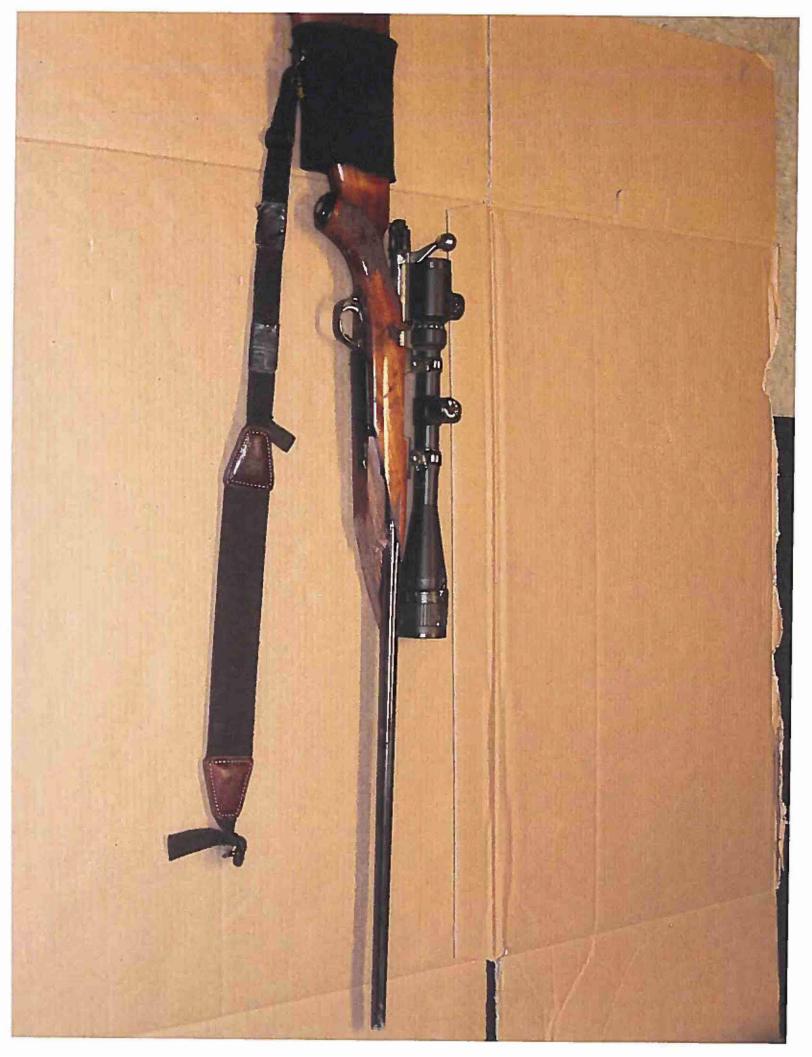

15-53036 005296

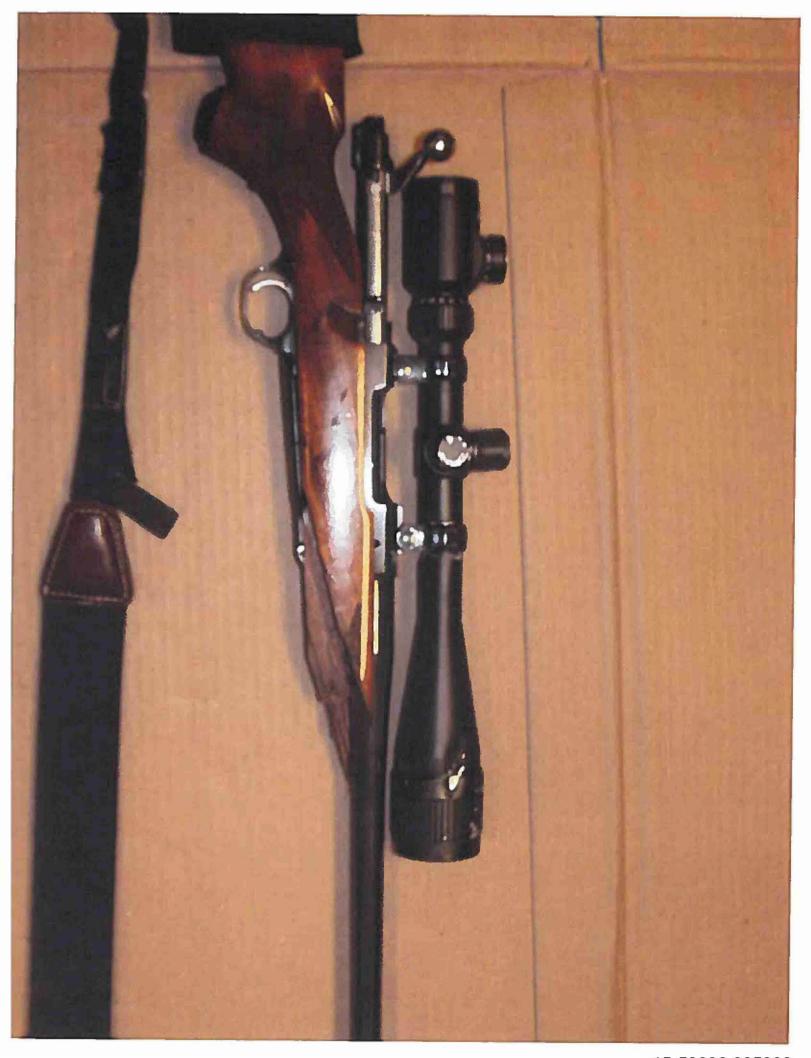

15-53036 005297

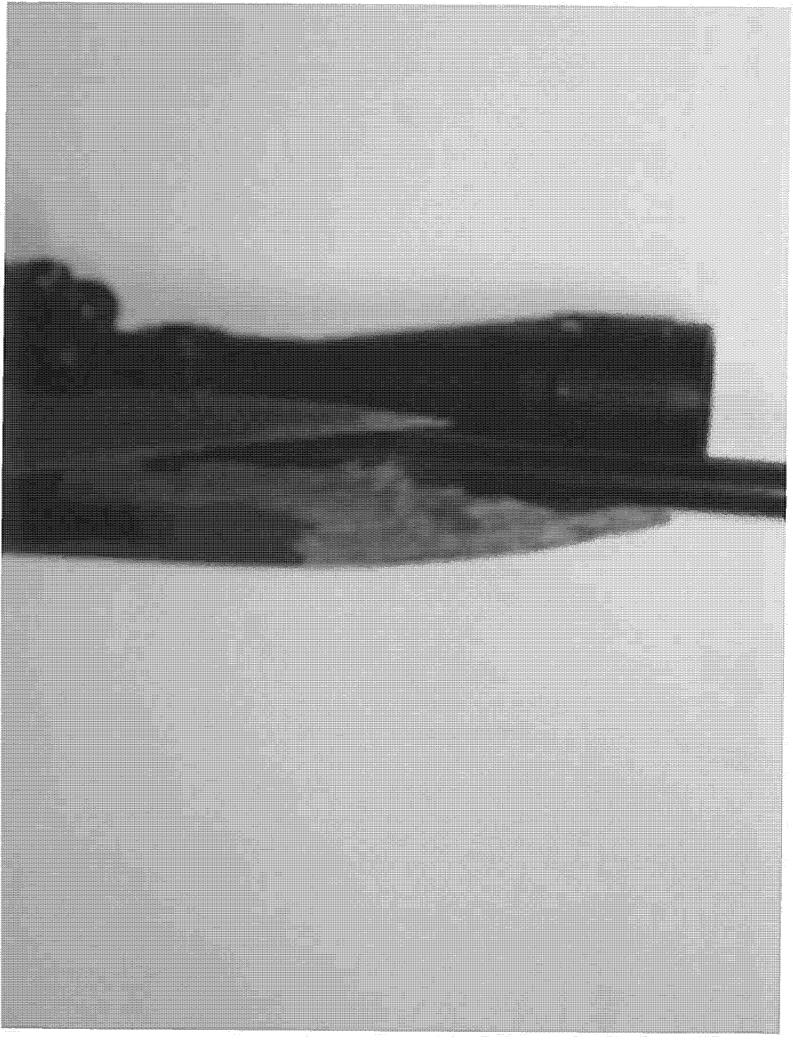

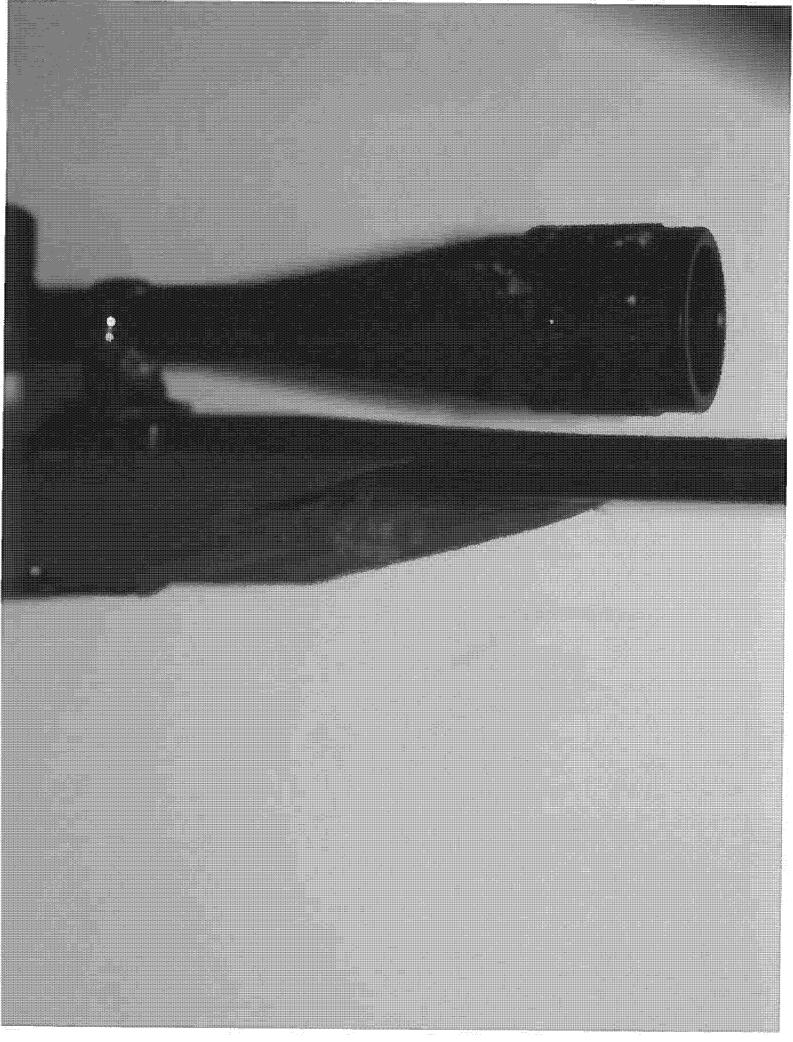

15-53036 005298

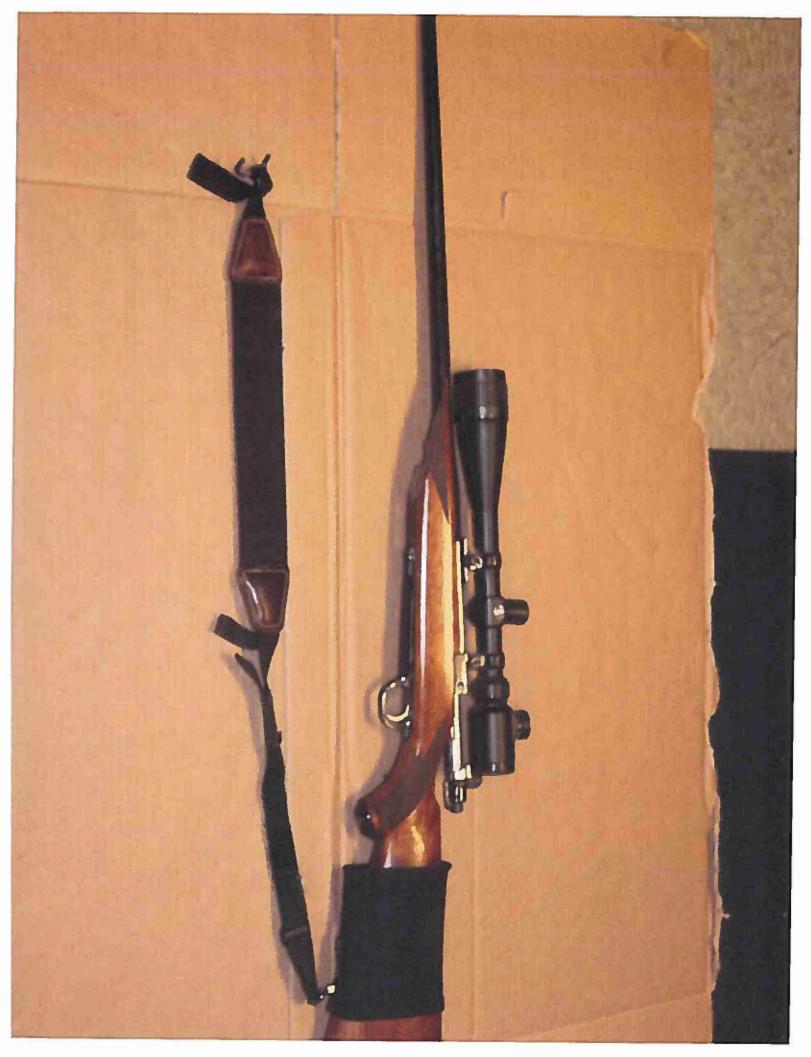

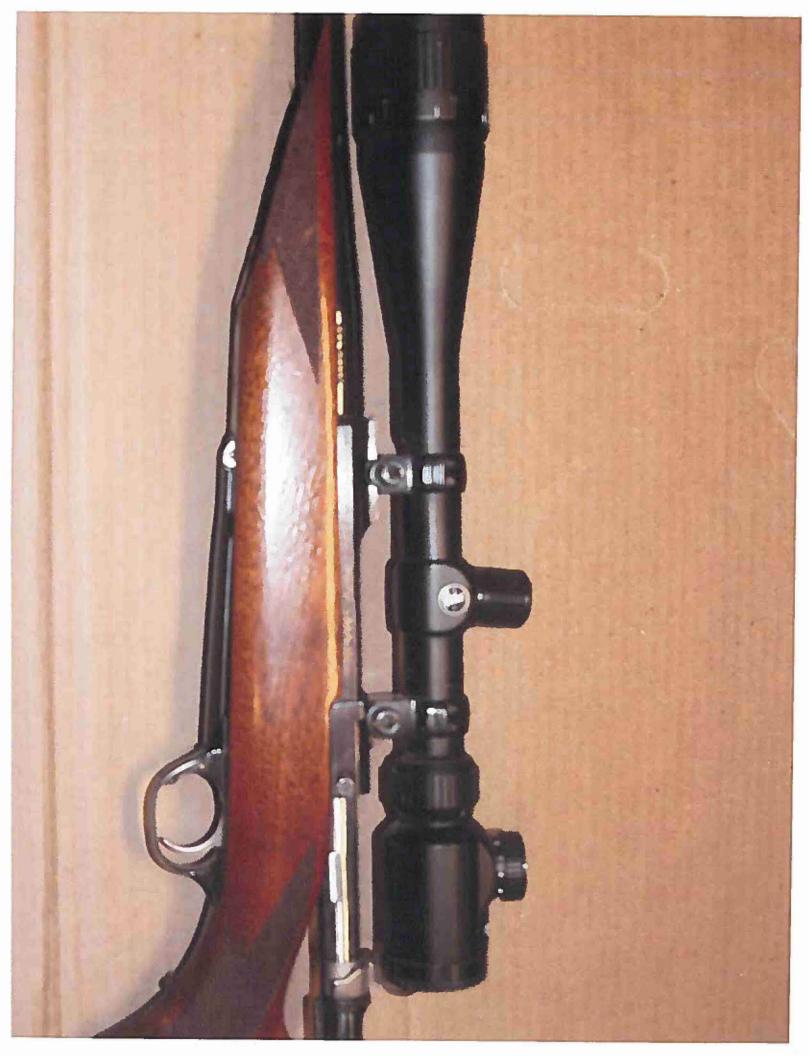

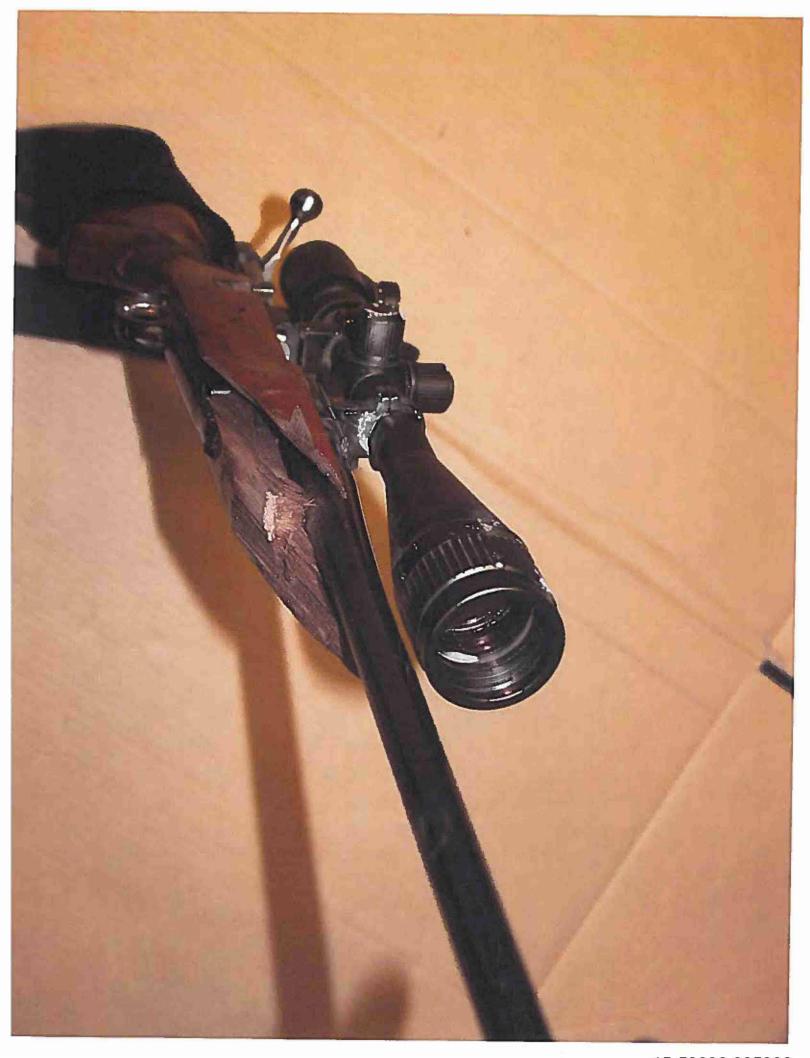

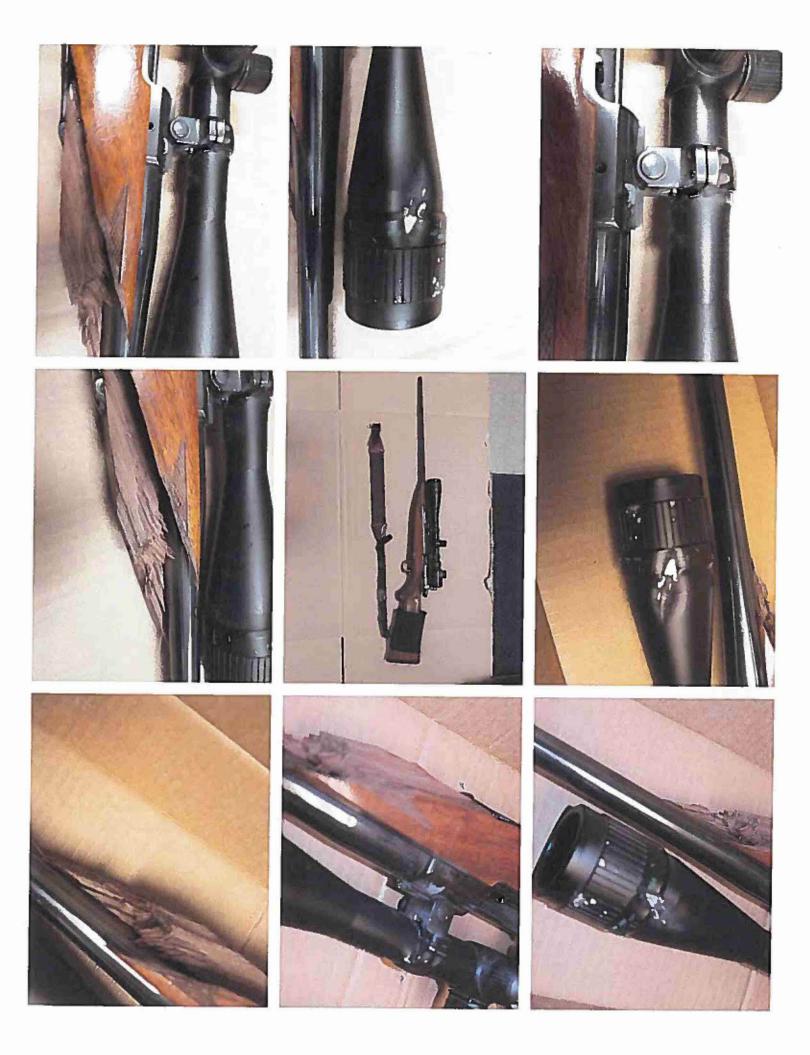

15-53036 005304

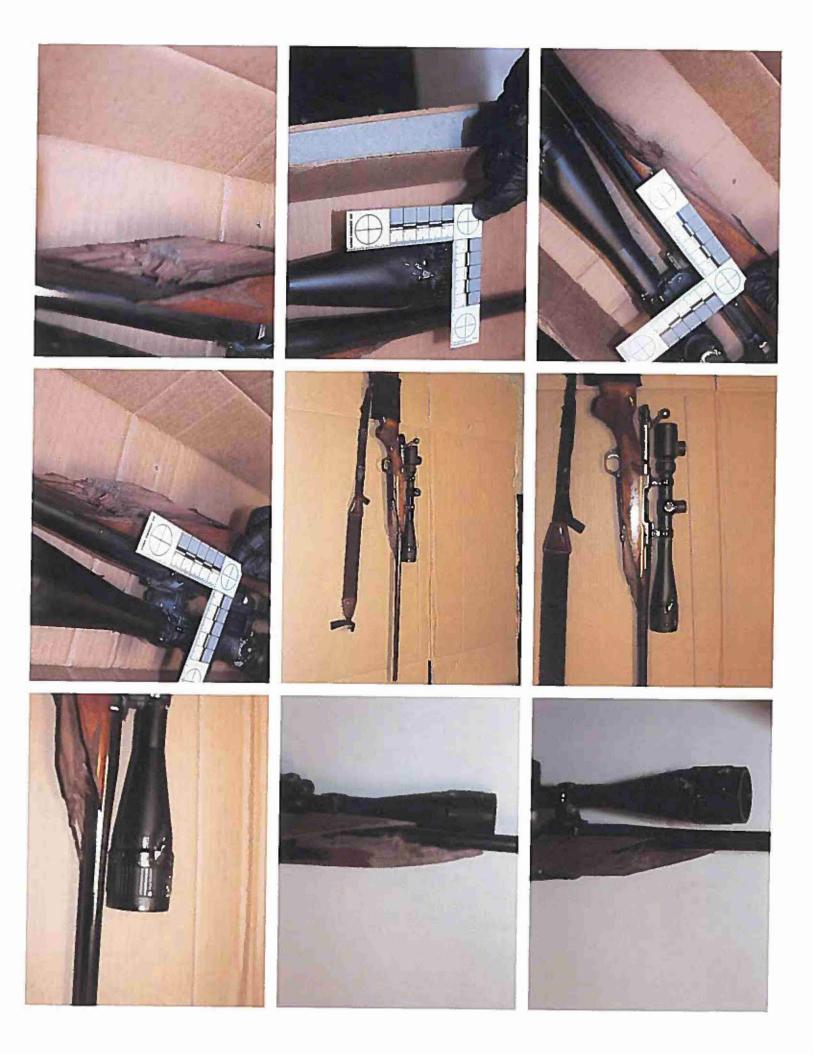

15-53036 005305

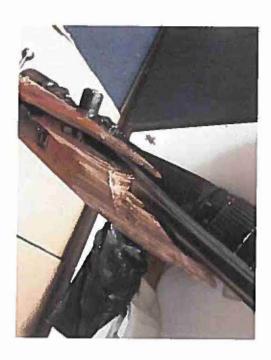

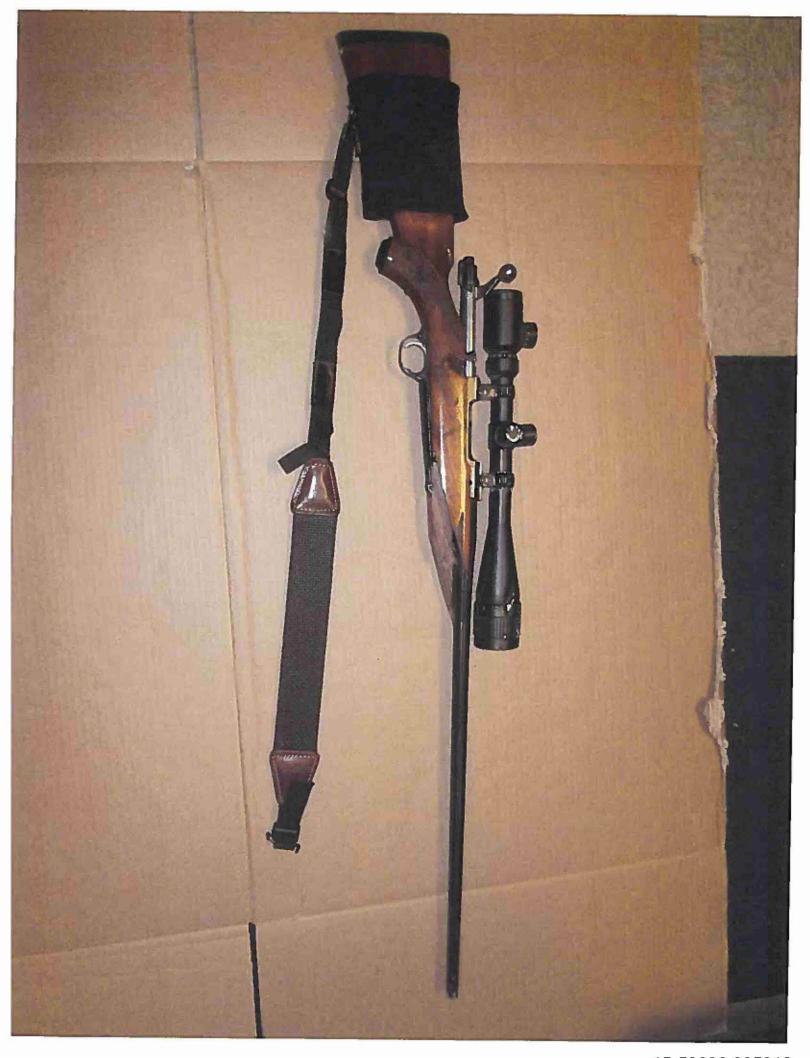

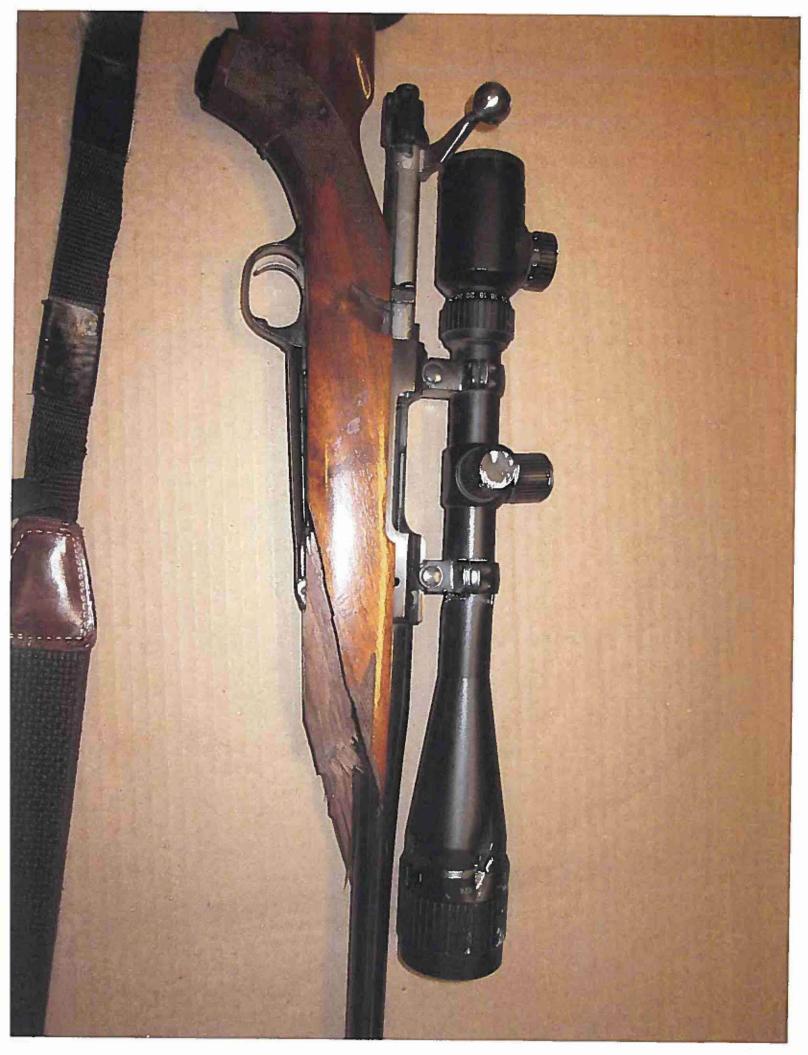

15-53036 005312

ROLAND INT 3 Idaho State Police

M15000140

Supplement No 0068

700 S. Stratford Drive Meridian, ID 83642 Phone (208)884-7000 Reported Date
06/06/2016
Rpt/Incident Typ
OFFICR ICI
Member#/Dept ID#
HORST, JASON M

| Admini           | istrati    | ve Info         | rmat      | ion              |               |            |            |               |               |          |  |
|------------------|------------|-----------------|-----------|------------------|---------------|------------|------------|---------------|---------------|----------|--|
| Agency           | Control On | 2000000         | Case      | No No            | Supplement No | Reported D | ate        | Reported Time | Status        | W Sell   |  |
| Idaho S          | tate       | Police          | M1        | 5000140          | 0068          | 06/06      | /2016      | 14:08         | Investi       | .gate    |  |
| Rpt/Incident Typ | )/         | one or a second |           |                  |               |            |            |               |               |          |  |
| OFFICER          | OVNI       | LVED C          | RITIC     | AL INCI          | DENT          |            |            |               |               |          |  |
| Location         |            |                 |           |                  |               |            |            |               |               | City     |  |
| 700 S S          | TRATE      | ORD DR          |           |                  |               |            |            |               |               | MERIDIAN |  |
| County           | Region     | From Date       |           | Member#/E        | Dept ID#      |            |            |               |               |          |  |
| 1A2              | B3         | 06/03           | /2016     | 3468/            | HORST, JAS    | ON M       |            |               |               |          |  |
| Assignment       |            |                 | Entered B | y                | Assignment    |            | RN         | MS Transfer   | Prop Trans St | at       |  |
| DETECTI          | VE DI      | ST 3            | 3468      |                  | DETECTIVE     | DIST       | 3 S        | uccessful     | Succes        | sful     |  |
| Report Title     |            | *               |           | Approving Office | er            |            | Approval E |               | Approval T    |          |  |
| ROLAND           | INT 3      |                 |           | 3335             |               |            | 06/0       | 6/2016        | 15:15         | 5:52     |  |
| Summa            | ary Na     | arrative        | 9         |                  |               |            |            |               |               |          |  |

On June 3, 2016 at approximately 10:00 a.m., Idaho State Police Detective Horst, Idaho State Police Sergeant Boone, and FBI Special Agent Draper conducted an interview of Cody Roland at the Idaho State Police District 3 Investigations office located at 700 S Stratford Dr, Meridian, Ada County, Idaho. Present also for the interview was Roland's attorney Kevin Dinius.

| as Roland's attorr      |            |              | O TIME 4    | BOI        | AND      | 00                     | 101        |               |            |          |
|-------------------------|------------|--------------|-------------|------------|----------|------------------------|------------|---------------|------------|----------|
| LAW ENFORC              | EMENIC     | PERICER - VI |             |            | AND,C    | ODY                    | VV         |               |            |          |
| volvement               |            | *         | Invi No     | Туре       |          |                        |            |               |            |          |
| AW ENFORCEMEN           | AL OFFICER | - VICTIM     | 1           | Indiv      | ridual   | 2.451                  |            | Deser         | 0          |          |
| oLAND, CODY W           |            |              |             |            |          | MN                     |            | RaceWhite | SexMal | _        |
| OLAND, CODI W           | Ethnicity  |              |             | Juvenile?  | Height   | Weight                 | Hair Color |               | Res Statu  |          |
| 3                       |            | Hispanic ori | igin        | No         |          | 200#                   |            |               | Resi       |          |
| c/Otnd Age              | 1100 01    | midpanic ori | .9          | 110        | 0 00     | 20011                  | DIOWN      | Diac          | 11001      |   |
| 38                      |            |              |             |            |          |                        |            |               |            |          |
| oe oe                   | ID No      |              |             | OLS        |          |                        |            |               |            |          |
| perator Lice            | ise        |              |             | IDAHO      | ):       |                        |            |               |            |          |
| Property                |            |              |             |            |          |                        |            |               |            |          |
| pp# Involvement         |            | Invl Date    | In Custody? | Security   | Tag No   | - 1                    | Item No    |               |            |          |
| 1 EVIDENCE-1            | Non-Drug   | 06/06/2016   | Yes         | No         | 1600016  | 96                     | 1          |               |            |          |
| scription               |            |              |             |            |          | Тур                    |            |               |            |          |
| oland Int 3 '           | /ideo      |              |             |            |          | A                      |            |               |            |          |
| t                       |            | Article      |             | 33.50      | S Type   |                        |            | Entered Date  | 0016       |          |
| adio, TV, Hor           | ne electro | nics Comp    | act Dis     | k R        | adios, 1 | ľVs,                   | VCRs       | 06/06/        | 2016       |          |
| 4:31 Succes             | T-844974   | 0606161      | 458         |            |          |                        |            |               |            |          |
| k Involvement Invl N    |            | 0000101      | 400         |            |          |                        |            |               | Race       | Sex      |
| TH LAW 1                | ROLAND,    | CODY W       |             |            |          |                        |            |               | W          | М        |
| OB                      |            |              |             |            |          |                        |            |               |            |          |
|                         |            |              |             |            |          |                        |            |               |            |          |
| op# Involvement         |            | Invl Date    | In Custody? | Security   | Tag No   |                        | Item No    |               |            |          |
| 2 EVIDENCE-1            | Non-Drug   | 06/06/2016   | Yes         | No         | 1600016  | 1.05 No. 95 Person Law | 2          |               |            |          |
| scription               |            |              |             |            |          | Тур                    |            |               |            |          |
| coland Int 3 I          | auaio      | Article      |             | LIDE       | S Type   | A                      |            | Entered Date  |            |          |
| adio, TV, Hor           | ne electro |              | act Dis     | TWO ISSUED | adios, I | P17/e                  | VCRe       | 06/06/        | 2016       |          |
| tered Time RMS Transfer | Control    | iiics comp   | act Dis     | , K        | autos, i | . 45,                  | VCRS       | 00/00/        | 2010       |          |
| 4:31 Succes             |            | 0606161      | 458         |            |          |                        |            |               |            |          |
| nk Involvement Invl N   |            |              |             |            |          |                        |            |               | Race       | Sex      |
| TH LAW 1                | ROLAND,    | CODY W       |             |            |          |                        |            |               | W          | M        |
| OB                      | 217        |              |             |            |          |                        |            |               |            |          |
|                         |            |              |             |            |          |                        |            |               |            |          |

| Report Officer      | Printed At       |             |  |
|---------------------|------------------|-------------|--|
| 3468/HORST, JASON M | 06/06/2016 16:04 | Page 1 of 2 |  |

M15000140

Supplement No 0068

ROLAND INT 3 Idaho State Police

Narrative

- 1. On June 3, 2016 at approximately 10:00 a.m., Idaho State Police Detective Horst, Idaho State Police Sergeant Boone, and FBI Special Agent Draper conducted an interview of Cody Roland at the Idaho State Police District 3 Investigations office located at 700 S Stratford Dr, Meridian, Ada County, Idaho. Present also for the interview was Roland's attorney Kevin Dinius.
- 2. The following points were clarified:
- 3. He did not see Wood grab Yantis, Yantis pushed Wood.
- 4. He drew his weapon as soon as the rifle started turning towards him.
- 5. He intended to shoot Yantis as soon as the rifle was pointed in his direction, because it was how he was trained and taught.
- 6. He did not know if Wood fired at all and none of Wood's actions had any bearing on his decision to shoot Yantis.
- 7. He could not guarantee who fired first between himself and Yantis, because they fired almost simultaneously and Wood could not have fired first.
- 8. He did not believe Yantis firing was an accidental discharge.
- 9. He believed the .20 cal round recovered at the scene, may have hit the bucket of the skid loader as it was driving up behind him on the scene.
- 10. The interview was concluded at approximately 11:50 a.m. The full interview can be viewed on the recorded video.

| Report Officer      | Printed At       |             |
|---------------------|------------------|-------------|
| 3468/HORST, JASON M | 06/06/2016 16:04 | Page 2 of 2 |

IDAHO STATE POLICE FORENSIC SERVICES

615 W. Wilbur Ste B Coeur D'Alene, ID 83815-7785 Phone: (208) 209-8700

Fax: (208) 209-8612
FORENSIC FIREARM AND TOOLMARK REPORT

| Case Agency(s):            | Agency Case No(s).:       | Laboratory Case No.: |
|----------------------------|---------------------------|----------------------|
| ISP-CONFIDENTIAL D3        | M15000140                 | M2015-4084           |
| Date(s) of Offense:        | Investigating Officer(s): | Report No.:          |
| 11/1/2015                  | Jason Horst               | 10                   |
| Date Evidence Accepted:    | Analyst:                  |                      |
| 5/27/2016                  | Stuart Jacobson           |                      |
| Case Name(s):              |                           |                      |
| Subject - BRIAN S WOOD     |                           |                      |
| Subject - JACK FRED YANTIS |                           |                      |
| Subject - CODY W ROLAND    |                           |                      |

EVIDENCE DESCRIPTION:

- 13 Agency exhibit no. 150002806-18. Evidence envelope containing fired bullet in box.
- 14 Agency exhibit no. 150002806-19. Evidence envelope containing bullet fragment in box.
- 15 Agency exhibit no. 150002806-20. Evidence envelope containing fired bullet in box.
- 16 Agency exhibit no. 150002806-21. Evidence envelope containing bullet fragment in box.
- 17 Agency exhibit no. 150002806-22. Evidence envelope containing fired bullet in box.
- 18 Agency exhibit no. 150002806-23. Evidence envelope containing box containing:
  - 18.1 Fired bullet.
  - 18.2 Bullet fragment.

CONCLUSIONS AND INTERPRETATIONS:

Evidence items 13, 15, 17 and 18.1 are consistent with an approximate 0.223" diameter bullet having 6 lands and grooves and a right hand twist. This bullet diameter is commonly loaded into 223 Remington or 5.56 x 45 mm cartridges.

Evidence items 14, 16 and 18.2 are bullet fragments whose caliber cannot be determined. They are visually consistent with the fired bullets in evidence items 13, 15, 17 and 18.1.

DISPOSITION OF EVIDENCE:

All items will be returned to the submitting agency.

REMARKS:

I declare under penalty of perjury pursuant to the law of the State of Idaho that the foregoing is true and correct.

Stuart Jacobson / Forensic Scientist

Issue Date: 06/07/2016

| Idaho Vehi                                    | cle     | Colli           | sion                                    | Rep             | ort                          |                   |          |                                                              |                                         |             |               |                |                    | Page 1 of                                  |
|-----------------------------------------------|---------|-----------------|-----------------------------------------|-----------------|------------------------------|-------------------|----------|--------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------|-------------|---------------|----------------|--------------------|--------------------------------------------|
| Collision Inforn                              |         | 100             | n Departm                               | nent            |                              |                   | Agency   | CodeSP03                                                 | Officer No. 3471                        | ſ           | Report Dist   | rict (         | ase No             | 15003624                                   |
| Date of Collision Day                         | of Coll | islon           | Time                                    | 200             |                              |                   | rived EN | AS Dispatched                                                | EMS Arrived                             |             | Blocked       |                | eđ e               | Time Cleared                               |
| 11/1/2015                                     | Sun     |                 | 18:4⊠N [                            | 75              | 8:48City or Tow          | 19:0              | 0        | 18:43                                                        | 18:54                                   |             | □NoCounty | 11/1/2         | 2015               |                                            |
| City/Town or -                                | 6.1     | Miles           |                                         |                 | Counc                        |                   |          |                                                              |                                         | ĺ           | Adam          | S              |                    |                                            |
| Interchange No.                               | R. R. C | rossing No      | ).                                      |                 | On Private                   | Property          |          | ovider (first oneIncil Valle)                            |                                         | nce         |               |                |                    |                                            |
| Name of Primary RoadUS95                  | / Park  | ing Lot / Di    | riveway /                               | Alley           |                              |                   | 000      | mon vano                                                     | y Ambulai                               |             | No. of Lane   | s              | Poste55        | ed Speed                                   |
| In Intersection With: Se                      | econda  | ary Road / I    | Parking L                               | ot / Drivey     | ay / Alley                   |                   |          |                                                              |                                         |             |               |                | Poste              | ed Speed                                   |
| Intersection Type                             |         |                 |                                         |                 | ersection                    |                   |          | ive-point or r                                               |                                         |             |               | ffic Circle    |                    |                                            |
| Outside on                                    |         | J               |                                         | ON DEJS DW  | of                           | ne of First       | Referen  | ce Point (Cross                                              | Street / Mile P                         | Post Mari   | ker)          |                |                    |                                            |
| Outside an Intersection                       | -       |                 |                                         | JO □VV          | Nan                          |                   | nd Refe  | rence Point (Cr                                              | oss Street / Mil                        | le Post N   | /larker)      |                |                    |                                            |
|                                               | _       |                 | eet [                                   | ]s □w           |                              |                   |          |                                                              |                                         |             |               |                |                    |                                            |
| Photos Local A                                | Agency  | Use 1           |                                         |                 | Local Ag                     | ency Use          | 2        |                                                              | Latitude (                              | GPS)        |               | Long           | tude (GI           | PS)                                        |
| Light Conditions                              | 05      | 1 Day           | 2 Dawn                                  | n/Dusk ;        | 3 Dark - St                  | reet Light        | ts On    | 4 Dark - Stre                                                | et Lights Off                           | 5 Da | rk - No St    | reet Ligh      | s                  |                                            |
| Weather Conditions(2 selections possible) |         |                 |                                         |                 | ain 4 Snving Snow | ow 5 SI    | leet/Hai | I 6 Fog 7                                      | Blowing Dus                             | ∜Sand       | 8 Sever       | e Cross V      | Vinds              |                                            |
| Road SurfaceConditions                    |         | 1 Dry           | 2 Wet                            | 3 Slush         | 4 Ice 5                      | Snow §            | 6 Mud/d  | lirt/gravel Z                                                | Water - stan                            | ding/m      | oving 11      | Oil 12  | Sand               | 9 Other                                    |
| Other RoadConditions                      | 1 1111  |                 |                                         |                 |                              |                   |          | eeding) 3 Wr Pavement I                                  |                                         |             | Low Shou      | ılder          |                    |                                            |
| Road Type                                     |         | 1 2-Way         | y & Rais                                | ed/Depre        | ssed Divid                   | er 22-            | Way &    | 2-Way Left-TA 2-Way & 2                           | urn Lane/Div                            | ider 3      |               |                |                    | Divider                                    |
| Road Surface Type                             | 02      | 1 Concr         | ete 2 f                          | Paved (A        | sphalt/Bric                  | k) 3 Gra   | avel/St  | one 4 Dirt                                                   | 9 Other                                 |             |               |                |                    |                                            |
| Vertical RoadwayGeometrics                | 1111    | 1 Upgra         | de/Dow                                  | ngrade          | 3 Hillcrest                  | 5 Leve     | el       |                                                              |                                         |             |               |                |                    |                                            |
| Horizontal RoadwayGeometrics              | 01      | 1 Straig        | ht 2 C                           | urve            |                              |                   |          |                                                              |                                         |             |               |                |                    |                                            |
| Traffic Control                               | 00      | ZRRX -          | Flashin                                 | g Beacon        | 1 & Office                   | r/Flagger         | r 10 S   | icon 5 TraffStop Sign on ilus Signal E | Cross Street                            | Only        | 12 Stop       | Signs all      |                    |                                            |
| Traffic ControlStatus                     |         | 1 Functi        | ioning                                  | 2 Not Fu        | nctioning                    | 3 Remo            | ved      |                                                              |                                         |             |               |                |                    |                                            |
| Work ZoneCrash Location                   |         | 1 Before        | the Fire                                | st Work Z       | one Warn                     | ing Sign5 Tem | 2 Adv    | ance WarninArea                                          | g Area 3 Tr                             | ransitio    | n Area        |                |                    |                                            |
| Work Zone Type                                |         | 1 Lane ( | Closure                                 | 2 Lane          | Shift / Cro                  | ssover            | 3 Inter  | mittent or Mo                                                | ving Work                               | 4 Work      | on Shoul      | der or Me      | dian               | 9 Other                                    |
| Work ZoneWorkers Present                  |         | Y Yes           | N No                                    | -U Unkno | own                          |                   |          | 2000.000                                                     | 563                                     |             |               | 16073752754730 | SHOW AND THE SHAPE | 18                                         |
| Work Zone LawEnforcement Present          |         | 1 No 2          | Officer                                 | Present         | 3 Law Ei                     | nforceme          | nt Vehi  | cle only                                                     |                                         |             |               |                |                    |                                            |
| Property Damag                                | je (    | additional      | l propert                               | ty damag        | e may be a                   | added in t        | the Nar  | rative)                                                      |                                         |             |               |                |                    |                                            |
| Item Damaged                                  |         |                 |                                         |                 |                              |                   |          |                                                              |  |             |               |                |                    | mated Damage                               |
| OtherOwner's Name                         | W.W.    |                 |                                         |                 |                              | 10                | Owner Ac | Idress                                                       |                                         |             |               |                | $                 | 4,000                                      |
| Jack Yantis                                   |         |                 |                                         |                 |                              |                   |          |                                                              |                                         |             |               |                |                    |                                            |
| Item Damaged                                  |         |                 | 100                                     |                 |                              |                   |          |                                                              |                                         |             |               |                | Esti               | mated Damage                               |
| Owner's Name                                  |         |                 |  |                 |                              | Ö                 | Owner Ac | Idress                                                       |                                         |             |               |                |                    |                                            |
| Witnesses (add                                | ditions | al witness      | es mav                                  | be added        | in the na                    | rative)           |          |                                                              |                                         |             |               |                |                    |                                            |
| Wilness Name                                  |         |                 | j                                       |                 |                              |                   |          |                                                              | Home Phone                              | ·           |               | Work P         | hone               |                                            |
| Witness Address                               |         |                 |                                         |                 |                              |                   |          |                                                              | 1                                       |             |               |                |                    | 1600 1 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 |
| Witness Name                                  |         |                 |                                         | X.              |                           |                   |          |                                                              | Home Phone                              | ı           |               | Work P         | hone               |                                            |
| Witness Address                               |         |                 |                                         |                 |                              |                   |          |                                                              | 1                                       |             |               |                |                    |                                            |

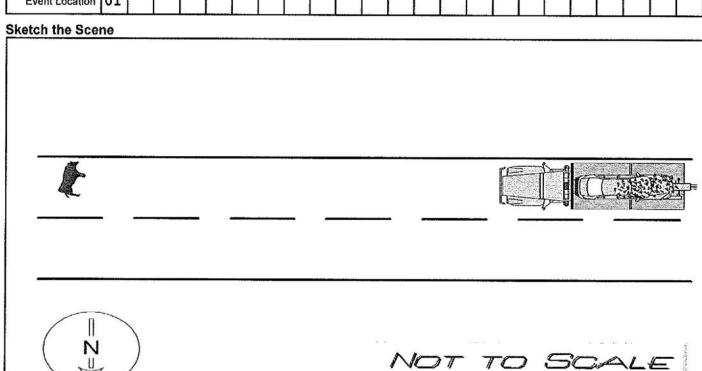

| Unit No.: 1                                                                                                           |                                                                                                          |                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                  |                                         |                                                                                                                   |                                                                |                                       |                                                                         | * if turn                                                                              | ing, select direc                                                          | tion before                    | e turning                                                                                        |                                                                       |                                         |             |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------|-------------|
| See Events                                                                                                            |                                                                                                          | rst Harmful Evenl                                                                              | Most Harmi                                                                                                                                       | ul Event                                | General                                                                                                           |                                                                | eetNorth/Sout                     | Unit                                                                    |                                                                                        | On (Street N                                                               |                                |                                                                                                  |                                                                       |                                         |             |
| page for a listof event code                                                                                      |                                                                                                          | 17                                                                                             | 17                                                                                                                                               | •                                       |                                                                                                                   |                                                                | east/West                             |                                                                         |                                                                                        | ,                                                                          |                                | US                                                                                               | S95                                                                   |                                         |             |
| First Event                                                                                                           | Relation:to Jun                                                                                      | ship oo ONO                                                                                    | njunction 1 inRamp 6 Ran                                                                                                                     | Intersections Related                   | on 2 Inters                                                                                                       | ectionoad C                                                | Related 3 rossing & F                 | At DriveRailroad                                                    | way/AllCrossir                                                                     | ley/Parking Lotng Related 9                                            | t 4 DriveOther             | eway/Alley/f                                                                                     | Parking Lot                                                           | Related                                 |             |
| Unit Type                                                                                                             |                                                                                                          |                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                  |                                         |                                                                                                                   |                                                                |                                       | -                                                                       | Unit U                                                                                 | se                                                                         |                                |                                                                                                  |                                                                       |                                         |             |
| 1 Pedestrian 2 Pedalcycle 3 Motorcycle 4 Moped 5 ATV 6 Car 10 Motor Home 11 Snowmobile 12 Equestrian 15 Bus - 16 or n |                                                                                                          | 22 Truck23 Truck24 Bobts25 Tracts26 Tracts27 Tracts28 Train30 Farm | Equipment                                                                                                                                        |                                         | 41 Van - 1                                                                                                        | rossovVanuctionI to 8 sis - 9 to               | Equipment                             |                                                                         | 0 No1 Po2 Ar3 Or4 Go5 Ta6 Fir7 W                           | o Speciatized Uolicenbulanceriver Trainingovernmentexi | Jse                            | 11 Bus                                                                                           | - Public Tra- Tour / Chabusinearyttlew Plower | e.g. Greyhouinsit, Commiarter   | nd)uter |
| Emergency Use                                                                                                         |                                                                                                          |                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                  |                                         |                                                                                                                   |                                                                |                                       |                                                                         |                                                                                        | Attachi                                                                    |                                |                                                                                                  |                                                                       |                                         |             |
|                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                          | ncy Lights Activatency Lights NOT ac                                                       | tive 4 YE                                                                                                                                        | S: STAND                                | NG or PARNG or PARan Emerge                                                                               | KED, E                                                         | Emergency LEmergency Lesponse | ights Acights NC                                                    | ctivatedOT activ                                                                   | re   180a                                                                  | ieit Trailerty Trailer | 4 To                                                                                             | avel Trailerwed Vehickbile Home                               | 9. othee                            | or          |
| Unit / Vehic                                                                                                          | le / Ov                                                                                                  | vner                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                  |                                         |                                                                                                                   |                                                                |                                       |                                                                         |                                                                                        |                                                                            |                                |                                                                                                  |                                                                       |                                         |             |
| Unit Type Unit                                                                                                        | Use N                                                                                                    | lon-Contact Unit                                                                               | Emergency t                                                                                                                                      | Jse Licer                               | se Plate N                                                                                                        | O.                                                             | 8                                     | StateID                                                             |                                                                                        | VIN (Vehicle Id                                                            | dentification                  | on No.)                                                                                          |                                                                       |                                         |             |
| Year N                                                                                                                | lake                                                                                                     |                                                                                                | 1 (4/5                                                                                                                                           | Model                                   |                                                                                                                   |                                                                |                                       |                                                                         | olor                                                                                   |                                                                            |                                |                                                                                                  |                                                                       | ment 1 Atta                             | A           |
| 1994Owner Last Nam                                                                                                | е                                                                                                        | Subaru                                                                                         | Owne                                                                                                                                             | er First Na                             |                                                                                                                   | gacyM.I.                                                   | Insured?                              | Ins                                                                     | urance                                                                                 | GrnCompany Na                                                          | ame                            |                                                                                                  | Policy No                                                             |                                         | 00          |
| Garner                                                                                                                | 100                                                                                                      |                                                                                                | Wi                                                                                                                                               | lliam                                   | 92.70                                                                                                             | D                                                              | Yes                                   |                                                                         |                                                                                        | United H                                                                   | eritag                         |                                                                                                  |                                                                       |                                         |             |
| Owner Address                                                                                                         |                                                                                                          |                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                  |                                         |                                                                                                                   |                                                                | City                                  | 60                                                                      |                                                                                        |                                                                            | Sta                            | ateID                                                                                        | Zip                                                                   |                                         |             |
| Damage                                                                                                                | -                                                                                                        | u — minus El Coopies "                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                  | in A. amoun                             |                                                                                                                   |                                                                |                                       |                                                                         |                                                                                        | 11.7 es                                                                    | •                              |                                                                                                  |                                                                       |                                         |             |
|                                                                                                                       | Point                                                                                                    | 2 Auto / Mot                                                                                   | orcycle /                                                                                                                                        |                                         | 112/2                                                                                                             | Т                                                              | Trailing U                            | nit #1                                                                  |                                                                                        | (31/32/21)                                                                 | Т.                             | Trailing U                                                                                       | nit #2                                                                | S1 52                                   | 1           |
|                                                                                                                       | npace                                                                                                    |                                                                                                | th Semi Trai                                                                                                                                     | ler (10)                                | 机引                                                                                                                |                                                                |                                       |                                                                         |                                                                                        |                                                                            | )                              |                                                                                                  |                                                                       | 600                                     | 42)         |
| Principalof I                                                                                                     | npact 1                                                                                                  | 2 14 Under                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                  | \$\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\ | 11.54                                                                                                             |                                                                | 33 Top34 Under                    |                                                                         |                                                                                        | 23/1/31/23                                                                 |                                | 53 Top54 Under                                                                 |                                                                       | 45, 44                                  | 45 44       |
| Extent of Defe                                                                                                        | ormity (                                                                                                 | NA Non-Ve                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                  | Minor                                   | 2 Minor                                                                                                           | 3 Mii                                                          | nor-Moder                             | ate 4                                                            | Mode                                                                                   | erate 5 Mo                                                          | derate-                        | Severe                                                                                           | 6 Severe                                                              | Z Very S                                | Severe      |
| Towed Due to⊠Yes □                                                                                                |                                                                                                          | If Yes, Tower ABT To                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                  |                                         |                                                                                                                   |                                                                |                                       |                                                                         |                                                                                        |                                                                            |                                |                                                                                                  |                                                                       |                                         |             |
|                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                          | ircumstance                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                  | hle)                                    |                                                                                                                   |                                                                |                                       |                                                                         |                                                                                        |                                                                            |                                |                                                                                                  |                                                                       |                                         |             |
| 00   0 None1 Exceed2 SpeedCondi3 Too Sid4 Improp5 Improp6 Followi7 Drove I            | led PostecToo Fast Itionsow for Trafer Overlaker Lane Clng Too CkLeft of Cen | Speed                                                                                          | vercorrectednproper Backinnproper Tumailed to Signalailed to Yieldailed to ObeyStop Signailed to Obey Sre Defect | gSignal                             | 17 Wheel18 Light D19 Other V21 Alcohol22 Inatten23 Vision O24 AsleepFatigu25 Sick | efect/ehicleI ImpaltionObstru, Drowied | Defectiredctionsy,        | 28 Imp31 Pre32 Dis34 Dru35 Imp36 Ani37 EmAr | oroperlyevious Atractedig Impaproper tmat(s)otionalngry, D | Jse of Turn Lain Roadway- Depressed,isturbed                   | ne                             | 39 Foot S40 Wrong41 Brakes42 Steerir43 Truck 0Safet44 Wipers99 Other | Side or WrigCoupling, Tiy Chains                          | r Caught Onong Wayrailer Hitch, | Pedal       |
| Distracted By                                                                                                         | 1/4                                                                                                      | Electronic CommuOther Inside the V                                                         | nication Deviceehicle 5 Prev                                                                                                                 | e (Cell, CBious vehicl              | Radio, Etc.                                                                                                       | ) 2 0ketina                                         | ther Electron Incident/Aba            | nic Device                                                              | ce (NavVehicle                                                                     | igation device,6 Other Ext                                             | DVD platernal Dis          | yer, IPODStraction Out                                                                       | 3 Passeside Vehicle                                               | ngere NA Not C                      | Distracted  |
| VisionObstructed By(if # 23 selected)                                                                         | 071                                                                                              | None 1 Curve InBright HeadlightsParked VehicleSigns/Stickers/De                    | Road 2 Hill (10 Rain/Snow15 Traffic Sign                                                                                                 | Crest 3 R//Ice ON wi                | oadway Sloindows 11pard/Fence                                                                             | pe/SnCrack                                                 | owbank 4 ded/Dirty Win                | Tree/Cro                                                                | p/Bush12 Spla                                                                      | 5 Reflectionsh/Spray From                                              | From SuOther V             | rface 6 Brehicle 13 I                                                                            | ight SunlighNoving Veh                                            | nticle                              |             |
| Commercia                                                                                                             | l Vehic                                                                                                  | ele                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                  |                                         |                                                                                                                   |                                                                |                                       |                                                                         |                                                                                        |                                                                            |                                |                                                                                                  |                                                                       |                                         |             |
| Cargo Body                                                                                                            |                                                                                                          | None 1 Bus 2 Pickup Bed 118                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                  |                                         |                                                                                                                   |                                                                |                                       |                                                                         |                                                                                        |                                                                            |                                |                                                                                                  |                                                                       |                                         |             |
| GVWR Total                                                                                                            |                                                                                                          | 10,000 lbs or less                                                                             | 2 10,001-                                                                                                                                        |                                         |                                                                                                                   | W 20                                                           | 6,000 lbs                             | NA No                                                                   |                                                                                        | 2000                                                                       |                                |                                                                                                  |                                                                       |                                         |             |
| Carrier Type                                                                                                          | 1                                                                                                        | Interstate Carrier                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                  |                                         | lot in Comm                                                                                                       | nerce/C                                                        | Sovernment                            | 4 Not i                                                                 | n Comi                                                                                 | merce/Other Tr                                                             | ruck or B                      | us 9 Othe                                                                                 | Operation                                                             | Not specifie                            | d           |
| Carrier Name                                                                                                          |                                                                                                          |                                                                                                | Carrier A                                                                                                                                        | ddress                                  |                                                                                                                   |                                                                |                                       | City                                                                    |                                                                                        |                                                                            |                                | State                                                                                            | Zip                                                                   |                                         | Country     |
| MC / MX No.                                                                                                           | DOT No.                                                                                                  |                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                  | Haza                                    | ardous f                                                                                                          | Mate                                                           |                                       | cardYes [                                                           | ∃No                                                                                    | Unknown                                                                    | Spille                         |                                                                                                  | Placard N                                                             | 0.                                      |             |
| Hazard ClassNumber                                                                                                |                                                                                                          | Explosives 2 Gasobstances - Organi                                                         |                                                                                                                                                  |                                         |                                                                                                                   |                                                                |                                       |                                                                         |                                                                                        |                                                                            |                                |                                                                                                  |                                                                       |                                         |             |

Case No.: B15003624

| Driver / Pedestrian / Pedalcy                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | clist                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                   |                                                               |                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                               |                                  |                              |                                                          |                                                      |                                   |                                         |                                |             |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------|------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------|-----------------------------------------|--------------------------------|-------------|
| 01 Driver                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                   |                                                               |                                                                                      | Pedalcycl                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                               |                                  |                              |                                                          |                                                      |                                   |                                         |                                |             |
| Tuming Right 12 Stopp 3 Right Turn on Red 13 Slowin 4 Turning Left 14 Startir 5 Left Turn on Red 15 Parkir 6 U-Turn 18 Backir 7 Merging 22 Avoid                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | ned in Trafficng In Trafficng in Trafficngnging Obstacle                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | 22 Pursuing Vehk23 Fleeing Pursui24 Racing25 Parked Vehick26 Driverless Veh64 Entering/ExitingStanding Veh65 Entering/Leaving | toIcle in Motiong Parked orIcle                                                                   | 31 Cro35 Cro36 Cro40 Wai41 Wai42 Wai      | ssing at Inssing at Mssing at Mlk/Ride witlk/Ride witlk/Ride Fac | tersection, Crtersection, NCid-block, Crosid-block, NO (h Traffic in Bilh Traffic NO Ecing Traffic in                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | O CrossswalkCrosswake LaneBike LarBike La | walkalknene          |                              | SS 51 53 6353 63 63 63 63 63 63 63 63 63 63 63 63 63 | WalkiStandPlayinWorkiEnternNot C | ling (ng Oling O/Exit | N RoaN RoaSchoo                 | adwadwayadwaof Bu  | ay/     |
| 10 Passing Pede                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | estrian, Pedalcycle                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Lot, Driveway                                                                                                                                             | , Alley                                                                                                           | 7507                                                          |                                                                                      | 2073                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | o bino i                                                      | Lario                            |                              |                                                          | Other                                                |                                   |                                         |                                |             |
| Hit & Run Last Name  Garner                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | First NaWill                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                   | M.I.D                                                     | Home Ph                                                                              | one                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                               |                                  | Wo                           | rk Ph                                                    | one                                                  | 185000.00                         |                                         | _                              |             |
| Address                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | 1 44111                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | Iaiii                                                                                                                                                     | City                                                                                                              |                                                               |                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | State                                                         |                                  |                              |                                                          | Zip                                                  | 200                               |                                         | -                              |             |
| Driver's License No.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | 01-1                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | 1, 1, 2, 2, 2, 2, 2, 2, 2, 2, 2, 2, 2, 2, 2,                                                                                                              | 31                                                                                                                | Nar                                                           | mpa                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                        | 11                               | _                            |                                                          |                                                      |                                   |                                         |                                |             |
| Drivers License No.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | License StateID                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | License (                                                                                                                                                 | Diass D                                                                                                           |                                                               | □ Cd                                                                                 | mmercial l                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | icens                                                         | e                                | ľ                            | SexM                                                 | Date                                                 | of B                              | irth                                    |                                |             |
| Endorsements NA                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | D School Bus H                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | Hazardous materia                                                                                                                                         | als L Motorcyc                                                                                                    | e N Tan                                                | ker vehicle                                                                          | Passeng                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | er I                                                   | Doui                             | le / t                       | iple tr                                                  | ailers                                               |                                   |                                         |                                | •           |
| (list all)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                   |                                                               |                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                               |                                  |                              |                                                          |                                                      |                                   | ot app                                  | olicat                         | le          |
| Restrictions 00 Kini OE                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | utomatic Transmission trastate Only L No vel kcept Tractor-Trailer Eentity Not verified U Mommunity Work Center                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | E Outside MirrorhIcle equipped withLeamer's Permitlotorcycle-No pass                                                                          | G Limited to Dn air brakes MRestrictions Qenger V Idahos A & B School | aylight OnExcept Cl6 mo - 1 lDL in posBuses 0 | nly HLimlass ABusUnder 17 Nssession1 Farm Wa                         | ited to Employ  N. Except Connelative  M. Ignition Interview  N. Ignit Interview  N. Ignition Interview  N. Ignit Interview  N. Ignit Interview  N. Ignit Interv | ymentclass A3 - wherlock dary Veh             | Lin& Clateel nlevice | nitediss Bnotor      | OtherBuscycleNon-                            | 』SonlyFreew                                  | pecia                             |                                         |                                |             |
| (See key at bottom Protective Airbag                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Airbagent Location Injury                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Ejection Trappe                                                                                                                                           | TransportedBy                                                                                                 | Idaho Co                                                      | ode Numb                                                                             | er(s) / Violati                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | ion(s)                                                        |                                  | 92                           | X                                                        | Not C                                                | ited                              |                                         |                                |             |
| of page for the following fields) 3 01  Transported To (if injured)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | 01 B                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | 01 01                                                                                                                                                     | 03                                                                                                                |                                                               |                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | 0 No                                                          | t C                              | ited                         | 1                                                        |                                                      |                                   |                                         |                                |             |
| St Alphonsus Medical CentEMS Provider                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | ter - Boise                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                   |                                                               |                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                               |                                  |                              |                                                          |                                                      |                                   |                                         |                                |             |
| Council Valley Ambulance                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                   |                                                               | -                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                               |                                  |                              |                                                          |                                                      |                                   |                                         |                                |             |
| 1  Alcohol / Drug Involvement                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | ohol Test                                                                                                                                                 | 1 None     2 Test F                                                                                               |                                                               |                                                                                      | od Testne Test                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                                               | reathield T                  |                              |                                                          | $\rightarrow$                                        | Dru                               | g Tes                                   | st11                       |             |
| 1 Neither Alcohol nor Drugs Delected 2 Yes, Alcohol                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | 3 Yes, Drugs4 Yes, Both                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | C Test Results                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                   | Jsed (if k                                                    |                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                               |                                  |                              |                                                          |                                                      | Dru                               | g Tes                                   | t Re                           | sult        |
| 2 100,1100101                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | 1100,000                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                   |                                                               |                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                               |                                  |                              |                                                          |                                                      |                                   | N                                       | A                              | _           |
| Passengers (additional passenge                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | er information may                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | be added in the                                                                                                                                           | Narrative)                                                                                                        |                                                               |                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                               |                                  | l e                          | ent                                                      |                                                      | 3000                              |                                         |                                | ted         |
| Full NameAddress (Street; City, State Zip)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                           | Home Pho                                                                                                          | ne                                                            | Sex                                                                                  | Date of E                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | 3irth                                                         | Seating                          | ice ctiv                     | 800                                                      | AirbagLocation                                   | ح                                 | Ejection                                | Trapped                        | Transported |
| Injured Transported To                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | EMS Provi                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                   |                                                               | 111011                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                               | Se                               | င်္ပစ္                       | Per                                                      | Fee                                                  | Injury                            | E.                                      | E I                            | E .         |
| Dori E Garner                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                   |                                                               | F                                                                                    | 2/25/19                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | 69                                                            |                                  |                              |                                                          |                                                      |                                   |                                         |                                |             |
| 415 Locust St; Nampa, ID 83686                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | 9. 8                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | CaugallMall                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                   |                                                               |                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                               | 03                               | 03                           | 01                                                       | 01                                                   | Α                                 | 01                                      | 02                             | 03          |
| St Alphonsus Medical Center - Boise                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | ····                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Council Vall                                                                                                                                              | ey Ambulance                                                                                                      |                                                               |                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                               | _                                | -                            | -                                                        | -                                                    | -                                 |                                         |                                | H           |
| 75-15-11-11-11-11-11-11-11-11-11-11-11-11                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                   |                                                               | _                                                                                    | L                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                               |                                  |                              |                                                          |                                                      |                                   |                                         | 100000                         |             |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                   |                                                               |                                                                                      | ** *                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                               |                                  |                              |                                                          |                                                      |                                   |                                         |                                |             |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | in de                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                   |                                                               |                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                               |                                  |                              |                                                          |                                                      |                                   |                                         |                                | Г           |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                   |                                                               |                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                               |                                  |                              |                                                          |                                                      |                                   |                                         |                                |             |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                   |                                                               |                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | _                                                             |                                  |                              | H                                                        |                                                      | _                                 |                                         |                                | H           |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                   |                                                               |                                                                                      | L                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                               |                                  |                              |                                                          |                                                      |                                   |                                         |                                |             |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | Annual Control of the |                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                   |                                                               |                                                                                      | DATE OF THE                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                               |                                  |                              |                                                          |                                                      |                                   |                                         |                                |             |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | - 21                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                   |                                                               |                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                               |                                  | - "                          | 15100.141                                                |                                                      |                                   |                                         |                                | Г           |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                   |                                                               |                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                               |                                  |                              |                                                          |                                                      |                                   |                                         |                                |             |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                   |                                                               |                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                               |                                  |                              |                                                          |                                                      |                                   |                                         |                                |             |
| Seating                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | Pro                                                                                                                                                       | otective Devic                                                                                                    | e                                                             |                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | Air                                                           | rbag                             | Dep                          | loyn                                                     | ent                                                  | Airb                              | ag L                                    | ocat                           | ion         |
| Vehicle Front 11 Steeper Section (Truck Ca 12 Passenger-Enclosed Non-Trailing Unit 13 Passenger-Unenclosed Non-Trailing Unit 14 Trailing Unit 15 Riding On Exterior Non-Trailing Unit 15 Riding Unit 15 Riding On Exterior Non-Trailing Unit 15 Riding Unit | 17 Pedal18 Eques99 Otheron la-U Unkne                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | lcycle 1strian 2(e.g. child 3ap, gas tank) 5own 6                                                                                         | NoneShoulder Belt CLap Belt OnlyShoulder and LHelmet UsedN/A Non-MotoriOther              | 13apst 15                                             | - Forwar                                                                             | leatet                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | NA                                                            | 2 Dea3 Mis4 Not5 Not | singEquiDeplAppl | tedpedloyedicable                            |                                                      | 12345                             | DEPL - From - Side - Con - Curl - Other | ntenbinatainer | ation       |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | Ejection                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                           | -                                                                                                                 |                                                               |                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                               |                                  | ~ + ~             | d By                                                     | _                                                    |                                   | Dellie.                                 |                                | ALT TO      |
| A Incapacitating K Dead                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | EIGCHOI:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                           | 1 12                                                                                                              | pped                                                          |                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | 1 r2                                                          | 31180                            | ULLE                         | O DV                                                     |                                                      |                                   |                                         |                                |             |

| Single Unit Non-Collision                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Single Unit Collision With                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | Multi-Unit Collision                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1 Overtum 2 Separation of Units 3 Cargo Loss/Shift 4 Jackknifed 5 Ran Off Road 6 Down Hill Runaway 7 Fire/Explosion 8 Gas/Inhalation 9 Other Non-Collision 10 Loss of Control 11 Fell/Pushed/Jumped 12 Non-Collision Injury 13 Immersion 71 Came Back on Road 72 Drove Left of Center 76 Cross Median 82 Vehicle Equipment Failure (Blown Tire/Brake Failure) | 14 Pedestrian 15 Pedalcycle 16 Railroad Train 17 Animal - Domestic 18 Animal - Wild 19 Other Object Not Fixed 21 Impact Attenuator 22 Bridge/Pier/Abutment 23 Bridge/Parapet End 24 Bridge Rail 25 Overpass 26 Guardrail Face 27 Guardrail End 28 Concrete Traffic Barrier 30 Traffic Sign Support 39 Other Post, Pole or Support 40 Delineator Post | 41 Culvert 42 Curb 43 Ditch 44 Embankment 45 Fence 46 Mailbox 47 Tree 48 Building/Wall 49 Other Fixed Object 74 Cable Barrier 77 Struck by Falling/Shifting Cargo or Anything set in motion by a motor vehicle 78 Thrown or Falling Object 80 Traffic Signal Support 81 Utility/Light Support | 20 Parked Car - on Private Property 50 Head-On 51 Rear-End 60 Backed Into 61 Parked Car  52 Sideswiped Same 53 Sideswiped Opposite 54 Head-On Turning 58 Rear-End Turning 59 Angle Dir Turning 62 Same 62 Same 67 Turning 69 Other |

| On RoadwayLeft Shoulder | 3 Right |       |       |       | 5 Outs6 Off F | ide RighRoadway | t-Of-Wa-Locati | ayon Unk | nown | Z M& G | edianore |   | In Pai | rking Long Lot / | otAccess | Rd | 2 Pri9 Otl | ivate Prher | roperty |
|-----------------------------|---------|-------|-------|-------|---------------------------------|---------------------|--------------------|--------------|------|------------|--------------|----------|--------|----------------------|--------------|----|----------------|-----------------|---------|
| vents - list ev             | ents fo | r ALL | units | in th | e ord                           | er the              | у ос               | curr         | ed   |            |              |          |        |                      |              |    |                |                 |         |
| Unit Number                 | 1       |       |       |       |                                 |                     |                    |              |      |            |              |          |        |                      |              |    |                |                 |         |
| Event                       | 17      |       |       |       |                                 |                     |                    |              |      |            |              |          |        |                      |              |    |                |                 |         |
| Unit Number                 |         |       |       |       |                                 |                     |                    |              |      |            |              |          |        |                      |              |    |                |                 |         |
| Event Location              | 01      |       |       |       |                                 |                     |                    |              |      |            |              |          |        |                      |              |    |                |                 |         |

Not to Scale

Case No.: B15003624 Page 5 of 5 Narrative (additional information / additional passengers - indicate unit no. and all information for additional passengers) William Garner was driving south on US95 in the area of MP 142.5 when he saw a large black cow in the roadway. Garner hit the cow on the roadway. The vehicle was already loaded onto a tow truck when this officer arrived on scene.

Investigating Officer's Name and/or Number Report Date Approved By

Tpr. Victoria McCarthy - 3471 11/10/2015 Jens Pattis - 3359 12/6/2015