Re: Notice of PBI MOVEit Data Security Incident

To Whom It May Concern:

This notice is provided on behalf of our client, Baltimore County, Maryland (the "County"), and relates to a data security incident involving Pension Benefit Information, LLC ("PBI"). This incident impacted (2) Idaho residents. Notice of the incident will be sent directly from PBI to such residents via U.S. mail beginning August 10, 2023, and a dedicated call center will be set up for residents to call should they have any questions or concerns. A sample of the consumer notification letter is attached for reference.

The County's Relationship with PBI

PBI provides audit services on behalf of the County. This research services include finding beneficiaries to whom payments should be ceased (in the case of a pension) upon an individual's death. To perform these services, the County transfers certain personal identifying information to PBI.

Description of the Incident

Based on the information provided by PBI, on or around May 31, 2023, Progress Software, the provider of MOVEit Transfer software disclosed a vulnerability in their software that had been exploited by an unauthorized third party. PBI utilizes MOVEit in the regular course of our business operations to securely transfer files. PBI promptly launched an investigation into the nature and scope of the MOVEit vulnerability's impact on its systems. Through the investigation, PBI learned that the third party accessed one of its MOVEit Transfer servers on May 29, 2023 and May 30, 2023 and downloaded data. PBI then conducted a manual review of its records to confirm the identities of individuals potentially affected by this event and their contact information to provide notifications. PBI recently completed this review.

PBI initially informed the County of the incident on June 16, 2023. On July 25, 2023, PBI provided sufficient information to determine whose personal information was involved in the incident.

Importantly, the County does not use the MOVEit transfer software, and the County's own environment was not impacted as a result of this incident.

Information Involved in the Incident

While the information varied based on the individual at issue, PBI's investigation determined that the information involved includes name, address, Social Security number, date of birth and gender.

Number Of Affected Individuals

Together with PBI, Baltimore County has determined that the incident involved the personal information of (2) Idaho residents.

Remedial Steps

Based on the information provided, the County understands that PBI has security measures in place to protect the data it maintains and continues to assess and update security measures and training to PBI team members to safeguard the privacy and security of information in its care. To that end, the County has been informed that PBI regularly evaluates the evolving risk landscape and implements controls to mitigate those risks.

PBI is providing affected individuals access to complimentary credit monitoring and identity restoration services through Kroll/Experian. These services include fraud consultation and identity theft restoration services at no cost to individuals. PBI will be providing mailed notices to impacted individuals with information about these services along with activation instructions.

Should you have any questions or concerns about this matter, please do not hesitate to contact me using the information provided below.

Sincerely,
Sadia Mirza

Additional Information

- Credit Monitoring. You will receive alerts when there are changes to your credit data—for instance, when a new line of credit is applied for in your name. If you do not recognize the activity, you'll have the option to call a Kroll fraud specialist, who will be able to help you determine if it is an indicator of identity theft.
- Fraud Consultation. You have unlimited access to consultation with a Kroll fraud specialist. Support includes showing you the most effective ways to protect your identity, explaining your rights and protections under the law, assistance with fraud alerts, and interpreting how personal information is accessed and used, including investigating suspicious activity that could be tied to an identity theft event.
- Identity Theft Restoration. If you become a victim of identity theft, an experienced Kroll licensed investigator will work on your behalf to resolve related issues. You will have access to a dedicated investigator who understands your issues and can do most of the work for you. Your investigator will be able to dig deep to uncover the scope of the identity theft, and then work to resolve it.

Monitor Your Accounts

Under U.S. law, a consumer is entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus, Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion. To order a free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call, toll-free, 1-877-322-8228. Consumers may also directly contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below to request a free copy of their credit report.

Consumers have the right to place an initial or extended “fraud alert” on a credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a one-year alert that is placed on a consumer’s credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer’s credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer’s identity before extending new credit. If consumers are the victim of identity theft, they are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting seven years. Should consumers wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any of the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below.

As an alternative to a fraud alert, consumers have the right to place a “credit freeze” on a credit report, which will prohibit a credit bureau from releasing information in the credit report without the consumer’s express authorization. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in a consumer’s name without consent. However, consumers should be aware that using a credit freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in their credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application they make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, consumers cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on their credit report. To request a credit freeze, individuals may need to provide some or all of the following information:

1. Full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);

³ Kroll’s activation website is only compatible with the current version or one version earlier of Chrome, Firefox, Safari and Edge. To receive credit services, you must be over the age of 18 and have established credit in the U.S., have a Social Security number in your name, and have a U.S. residential address associated with your credit file.

2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. Addresses for the prior two to five years;
5. Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (state driver’s license or ID card, etc.); and
7. A copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft if they are a victim of identity theft.

Should consumers wish to place a credit freeze or fraud alert, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:

Additional Information

Consumers may further educate themselves regarding identity theft, fraud alerts, credit freezes, and the steps they can take to protect your personal information by contacting the consumer reporting bureaus, the Federal Trade Commission, or their state attorney general. The Federal Trade Commission may be reached at: 600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, D.C. 20580; www.identitytheft.gov; 1-877-ID-THEFT (1-877-438-4338); and TTY: 1-866-653-4261. The Federal Trade Commission also encourages those who discover that their information has been misused to file a complaint with them. Consumers can obtain further information on how to file such a complaint by way of the contact information listed above. Consumers have the right to file a police report if they ever experience identity theft or fraud. Please note that in order to file a report with law enforcement for identity theft, consumers will likely need to provide some proof that they have been a victim. Instances of known or suspected identity theft should also be reported to law enforcement and the relevant state attorney general. This notice has not been delayed by law enforcement.
